HOW THEY WENT THE LAST TIME With interest mounting in the prospects of the forthcoming rent the very dome of heaven General Election, I am sure my It was another great day for readers should find the comparative figures for the last combination as this outstand left revealing as far as County Waterford is concerned

Waterford is concerned year in succession brought the The total valid poll on that blue riband of steeplechasing to occasion was 34048 and the opposition with the cream of the quota stood at 6.810 There three Fianna Fail candidates, two Fine Gael and one caps and everything handy Labour and the first preferences fluttered in the beautiful March went as follows.

The late Mrs Redmond cheer as the victor was lead in (FG) headed the poll with by his proud owner to the en-872 votes, being elected on the closure after the race first count and she was followed by Mr Tom Kyne who polled were heard on the occasion also were deard on the occasion also I am informed when it was second Deputy elected for the second Deputy elected for the constituency in the third count. Next in line came the three Power was helping in the lead-right pandidates Mr P J. ing-in of the sallant Royal Ten Next in line came the thirty Fower was nephing in control of the gallant Royal Tan Fianna Fail candidates Mr P J. ing-in of the gallant Royal Tan Little, with 5,798, Mr J Ormond There was quite a number of 523 (both elected in the fourth locals at the Liverpool course to 5523 (both elected in the fourth locals at the Liverpool course to and final count) and Mr D witness the race who also saw Leahy with 4873. The other Gusty excitedly bring in the casion, Mr T Flynn, polled 3010 deed.

Party preferences therefore, as they stood in the county at that time, were Fianna Fail—16,194 Fine Gael-Labour—17,854.

Due to the regretted death of Mrs Redmond we had a by-election in the County on June 26th 1952 for which each of the parties Flampa Fail Fine Gael and Labour mominated one candidate a piece The total valid poll on that occasion was 34 399 (an increase of a few hundred over the pre-vious year, and the quota was The distribution of the first
