GREAT PLEASURE

"READING LEADER"

A letter to hand from Mr. Michael J Drohan of Winchester

Mass USA, who is a regular reader of the Leader states that the Leuder gives me in my own mind a feeling that I am in Dungarvan while reading it that reason he says that he derives great pleasure from reading it and looks forward to it every week, and he describes

Ber power and influence of Catholics as regards votes houses and other property One of his chief agents urged a campaign of liquidation presumably not in their unusually accepted drastic sense but to rob them of their rights

"Irish Foreigners' and Property Rights in Britain
In giving a decision in the County Court, Judge it every week, and he describes Clothler said, that Irish Company and parties urless than had a smaller.

Goulane and also for cousins at Germany or America' Abbeyside—the Brett family

I am glad that Mr Drohan finds such pleasure in reading Plantation proceeds apace, the Leader and that it proves aliens acquiring land at about such a strong link for him with 4 times the rate of the Land the call Homestead and he can Commission with the ample

Appeals Against Western

Appeals Against Western game re-fixed between Abbeyside and Aglish in the minor football championship on May 9th at Cappoquin, and for which the Abbeyside team failed to turn up The teams originally played on April 4th and following the win of Abbeyside the Aglish Club objected on a technical point When the matter came A meeting of the above was held at the CYMS Rooms Dungarvan on Monday night last May 31st, Mr, C Curran, Chairman presiding Also in at the control of the sequently it was agreed to re-fix the game without hearing the objection. It was from this refixture that Abbeyside appealed J O'Dea the Abbeyside delayers. Chairman presiding Also in attendance were Messrs D Goode, Secretary J Conway, Treasure T Pinkert C Ware P Fanning and a large gathering of delegates

O Dea the Abbeyside delegate stated that he could add very little else outside the appeal except that it was obvious that Aglish knowing that they were beaten on the field were willing to take the opportunity

Referees Reports
