BEHIND THE SPOTLIGHT

with PENSMAN

BISHOP OF HIPPO AND DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
Such was the great St. Augustine the sixteenth century Augustinian Friar and the life-story of the great saint and how his saintly mother St. Monica by her persevering prayers and devotions recalled him from moral and spiritual degradation.

From the time that he left the ways of the world behind him, St. Augustine, in his own time pointed out to Christians that the Church does not usually celebrate the mortal birth of a saint; the notable exception being those of the Blessed Virgin and St. John the Baptist. Yet such was the great sanctity and depth of wisdom of this great Doctor of the Church that our present Holy Father addressed in August last a special letter to the Augustinian Friars and their associate orders and congregations praising their decision to commemorate the event with worthy ceremony.

For sixteen hundred years the work of St. Augustine has remained to protect and strengthen our Catholic faith and doctrine. In the great span of years between he has been praised down through the centuries by Popes and solemn councils. The keen genius and strength of argument with which he solved and repudiated the errors of his age provide us now with most excellent weapons to answer and refute the errors of our time.

Here in Dungarvan we are honoured in having a Friary which inherits the great Augustinian tradition. The Friars have had a long and honoured association with the people of the Old Boro' and have always been revered and beloved. The honouring of the centenary of the great Augustine will therefore have a special significance for them. A special tridium commences on this Thursday evening (11th November) and a solemn high Mass will be celebrated at 11.30 a.m. on Sunday next, with Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on Sunday evening. The preacher for the occasion will be Rev. Fr. C. O'Sullivan, O.S.A., St. Augustine's, Hammersmith, London.

FIREMEN'S FUND
Everyone without exception appreciates the services rendered by our Fire Brigade. Units and are happy in the thought that any outbreaks of fire, big or small will be dealt with efficiently by the well-trained and intrepid teams which comprise our local Fire Brigade under Chief Officer Roddy McGrath.

How often when we come to work in the morning after a good night's sleep that we hear "Did you know there was a fire at home in the night?" but the Fire Brigade were on the job and it was controlled early on. Yes, night or day it is all the same to the men of the Brigade. For them the sound of the alarm siren becomes an imperative call which must be answered no matter at what time it goes off.

Now as I have said we all appreciate the fact that these men are there ever ready to handle these danger jobs. A tangible form can be given to that appreciation on tonight (Friday Nov 12th) when the Brigade holds a short dance at the Town Hall, Dungarvan in aid of the Firemen's Benevolent Fund. You can help by going to the dance or if it is not possible to attend by at least purchasing a ticket. An ounce of action is worth a ton of praise.

A FAMILY TRADITION
The announcement on Thursday last, the 4th November that Mr Eamonn Bolger, had been appointed permanent Sub-Postmaster for Ballyduff was received in the village and all the surrounding districts with the utmost satisfaction. The Bolger family have been looking after the Postal affairs in this picturesque township with efficiency and courtesy for many years now. The present postmaster's father held the position until his death when the duties were transferred to his late mother, Mrs B Bolger, one of Ballyduff's most beloved and respected residents whose regretted demise occurred last March. And now it is only in the fitness of things that the family tradition in the Post Office should be carried on by the son who has given every satisfaction to the Postal Authorities during his probationary period.

At 22 years of age, Mr Eamonn Bolger must be one of the youngest sub-Postmasters in the country. He enjoys a wide measure of esteem and popularity, not only in his native Ballyduff, but in the neighbouring towns of Lismore and Tallois as well. We join with his legion of friends in extending our heartiest congratulations to Eamonn on his permanent appointment and wish him well in the years to come. We understand that the new Postmaster is at present making arrangements concerning another permanent appointment in the not too distant future, but more about that later.

PUPPET OPERA COMPANY
The Friary Hall Committee will sponsor a distinct novelty which should appeal to all music lovers in Dungarvan and district when at the Friary Hall on Tuesday night. Foras Eireann present the Puppet Opera Company in "La Boheme".

The project has been made possible by funds from the Shaw Trust and the idea behind it is to bring high-class operatic music to the towns and villages of Ireland. The recorded version of this opera which will be reproduced has top-class singers and an orchestra and should attract a wide measure of support.

WORLD CHAMPION ATHLETE
It was in last week's Leader a tribute from Mr Peter Foley, Carrick-on-Suir to the late Thomas F. Kieley Ballyneale Carrick-on-Suir, one of the greatest all-round athletes that Ireland has produced. Tom Kieley died three years ago last Saturday (6th November) but the memory of his feats and his all-conquering prowess on the athletic fields of the world will remain ever-green. A moving memorial is being put to commemorate in fitting way the memory of this great man who brought such fame and renown to Ireland in the hey-days of his youth, and I am sure that sportsmen everywhere will wish to be associated with it.

As an additional tribute I reproduce Maurice Browne's poem to his memory.

WORLD CHAMPION
With solemnity slow they took Tom Kieley home To Ballyneale, the Champion in his grave they laid A Robin piped in holly tree a plaintive note forlorn, November with falling leaf, its sultry grief displayed.

Peaceful he slumbers here who once with agile pace Circled with muscles tensed for the mighty throw, Like Jupiter Olympus from the mountain face Hurling his crashing thunderbolts to vales below.

The people cheered with lusty voices loud and long, To see their hero skim the hurdles like a deer in flight, Ranging the purple heather on sweet Sliavenamon, Out-distancing the grim pursuers without fear.

For Ireland's glory were the laurel crowns he won, Striving against the world's best the spoils he wrested In alien lands athletes supreme in deathly competition.

And now in life's hard race the last tape he has breasted By Silvery Suir that winds its way through and around mead He rests the giant warrior stilled at last in death Mary Mother of God, befriend him now in need Your potent aid from Heaven he sought with dying breath.

The Abbesside Marian Girls' Club
Thursday Night: There was a full attendance at the meeting tonight. Carol practice was in full swing. Miss Brennock conducting. Later we finished off the remainder of the good things left over from the party. Speaking of the party reminds me of an omission in my commentary on the Fancy Dress My apologies to the two ugly sisters of Fairyland fame and also to a very charming Air Hostess.

There was dancing tonight, the spot prize being won by Margaret Beattie and Mella Power. While I think of it, please let me remind all the members to double their efforts in collecting waste paper, which is our only source of revenue at the moment. Eighteen large sacks are waiting to be filled. As you are aware that very necessary commodity—money—is kind of scarce, so let us get going in earnest.

A full attendance is requested for next Thursday night, to discuss plans for our first "At Home" to be held next month (12th).

The community sing-song brought us to the close of another happy meeting night. After prayers we parted sorry the time passed so quickly, and looking forward to next week. (NIGHT OF THE BATH.)

"THE APPARITION" An Outstanding Catholic Film
The film "The Apparition" is an undoubtedly brilliant production in it the Spanish Cinema has given the world its greatest achievement and has set a new standard for the religious film. The story of Fatima is unfolded before us with a commendable adherence to historical facts. Ines Orsini, in the part of Lucia, acts a part that one will not easily forget, and fulfills the promise shown in her widely-acclaimed interpretation of Maria Goretti.

Outstanding stars of the Spanish and Spanish-American film world fill all the notable roles and their talents combine happily to result in a highly artistic production. Fortunately the camera work does justice to the acting throughout, and indeed the technical perfection of the photography is itself a triumph which delights the eye. The theme and development are the work of Vincente Escrivá, the acknowledged master of the art. "The Evening Herald" ranked this latest triumph of his among the best ten films shown in Ireland.

"The Apparition" will be shown at the Ormonde Cinema, Dungarvan on Tuesday next, November 16th, for two nights with a matinee performance on Tuesday evening at 4 p.m. It is presented by the Holy Ghost Fathers in aid of their African Mission.

The Irish Countrywomen's Association - Waterford Federation
The Waterford Federation held their autumn meeting at Ballyduff. Mrs Carroll presided and welcome the representatives from twelve guilds, and also Mrs Armit an Australian visitor.

The minutes were read and signed and the Treasurer read her report which showed a big increase in Federation funds. A brannra was awarded to Mrs Ferguson of Tramore, for smoking and Mrs Jameson by winning a ribbon to her brannra. It is the first of the Federation to have received a double brannra.

Dealing with correspondence, it was found that the meeting was unanimous in favour of the I.C.A. becoming a company limited by guarantee.

The collection of donations for the Polio Remedial Clinic was closed at over £40.

The meeting decided that a replica of the Lucy Franks Cup be purchased each year for the winner of the Perpetual Cup.

Miss Joan Harney, was nominated as representative on an Organising Committee.

Mrs Armit judged the inter-Federation competition entries, and Waterford 1A were declared the winners.

Mrs Armit is a member of C.W.A. of Victoria, and was president of the Omes and Tambo Valley groups. Her mother was the first State President of the Association.

Following a delightful tea, provided by the Ballyduff Guild, Mrs Armit spoke on the organisation of the Australian Countrywomen to the great interest of the meeting.

WATERFORD COUNTY COUNCIL TURF SCHEME COST £20,000 WET TIME FOR COUNCIL WORKERS
Disablement Benefit Under Health Act

Mr M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided at a quarterly meeting of the Waterford County Council held in Dungarvan on Monday last. Also present Messrs J. Quirk, M. McGrath, N. Walsh, J. Fahy, W. Fitzgerald, T. Kyne, T. D. Leahy, S. Ormonde, T. D. Senator, J. Butler, E. Power, F. Roche, T. Kieran, N. Kelly, W. Kennedy, T. D. R. Barron, L. Morrissey, T. Morrissey, and D. Heskin.

Messrs D. Sheedy, County Engineer, J. Ormond, Chief Assistant Engineer, T. Boyle, accountant, and J. G. Dowling Co Secretary, were in attendance.

Bridge at Knockgarron
Mr Walsh said that the report came before the meeting to ask the Council to repair the bridge at Knockgarron, Cappagh, which has been the scene of two tragic accidents (one recently) and which he said in its present condition was a death-trap.

The Engineer said that as the road there was not a public road the Council had no responsibility in the matter.

Deputy Mayor said that an estimate of £1,000 had been got for the job two years ago, and the Local Employment Schemes branch of the Department, agreed to put up about £700 and the local farmers were asked to contribute the balance of £300. Only one would agree to pay and the scheme fell through.

Mr O'Keefe said that the bridge should be repaired as a man had gone to his doom there lately. As regards the Council's responsibility he said that they were doing worse work all over the place with their money.

It was decided that a new application to the Local Employment Schemes Office be made to have the work done.

Lengthy Agenda
At this stage, Mr Walsh proposed that the length of the agenda they were supposed to consider it contained 39 items and it would be impossible for the Councilors to do justice to all the items in the short time they had decided to go ahead and see how far the meeting could go in the matter.

Ardeken Chest Hospital
Senator J. Butler, and Mr P. Ender submitted the following report: "The undersigned visited Ardeken Chest Hospital on Wednesday 18th August, 1954, and were met immediately by Mr Conran Assistant Medical Officer and Miss Fielan, Assistant Matron in the unavoidable absence of Dr Holmes and Miss Cahalan.

Dinner was being prepared at the time of our visit and we had the opportunity of seeing the food which was being provided for the patients on that day and we are glad to be able to report that we could say nothing, other than that it was perfect.

We proceeded immediately to visit the patients and although we were unable to go through every unit, we visited the majority and we found the patients happy and contented, and we heard no complaints. In fact, all were loud in their praises for the attention they receive from the Medical and Nursing Staff.

The Assistant Matron, gave us every assistance and information that we required, and we appreciated that very much.

The report was adopted.

On points raised by Mr Fitzgerald, and Mr Walsh the County Engineer said that he would look into the question of the installation of a new radio at St. Carthage's, Lismore.

Mr Walsh termed the delay of officials in dealing with recommendations of the Council as scandalous.

Financial Report
Arising from a request by Mr Walsh at a previous meeting, the following report from the County accountant, was circulated:

Financial position on the 31st October, 1954 — Overdraft £298,347 Do 1953—£365,772 Overdraft reduced at October, 1954—£67,425.

Anticipated position at end of financial year 1955 Overdraft October, 1954, £298,347 Due to Board of Assistance—£82,848 Do Mental Hospital—£24,038 Do Vocational—£2,115 Do Agricultural Committee—£5,852 Balance of expenditure to March, 1955—£180,000 Totals—£590,996 Due to Council—Rates—£168,710, Cottage Ren-

Disablement Benefits
Arising from a letter from the Department of Health stating that under section 30 sub-section 5, of the Health Act, regulations, providing for maintenance allowances not exceeding £1 per week for disabled persons over 16 years who were not able to provide for themselves would be payable by the Local Authority as from October 1st 1954.

The Secretary stated that the County Manager had estimated that to cover the financial year would require £6,000. This amount it was stated might have to be exceeded, and 50 per cent of the allowances paid would be recouped from the Health Grant.

Mr Heskin said that people who should be getting benefits under the Health Act were getting nothing, and all the money was going on a waste of paper and a waste of time, the whole thing was all bogus and red tape he said.

Deputy Mayor said that the not been so. The Secretary then read a letter from the Department of Local Government dated 20th June, 1952, which stated that the turf account should be closed off at an appropriate date, such as 30th June, 1952, and any balances should be transferred to the general revenue account of the Council.

Senator Butler—That letter was written in 1952, and now it comes before us in 1954. It is 2 1/2 years in arrears coming before us. I don't know what the Department means—whether the Department were to pay the account or not.

Mr Boyle said that it had come before the Council previously in the Abstract of Accounts.

Senator Butler—You know what happens to that as you'd want the experience of an Auditor to go through it.

Mr Heskin said that in their letter the Department had made no mention of the previous guarantee which they had given and he held that that guarantee still stood.

Mr Quirk—And it was given long before 1952. There must be some mistake.

Mr Heskin—Is there such a letter?

Secretary—I am not aware of it.

Mr Heskin—Well I am aware of it as I was Chairman of the Council at the time and I'm sure of it. The Local Government Department are not going to get away with it this time.

The Secretary said that transactions relating to the account commenced in May 1941 and the turf account was opened in May 1942.

Mr Heskin suggested that the matter be further deferred until the letter referring to the guarantee was traced, unless Mr Quirk seconded the suggestion.

Mr Boyle said that if approval was not given it would hold up the audit.

It was pointed out that the matter could be dealt with at the next meeting in a fortnight's time and it was accordingly decided to adjourn further consideration of it until then.

Scholarships
Approval of the award of University scholarships were given in the cases of Seamus Duggan, Abbeyside, Thomas Linnean, Lismore and Dominic Eustace Passage.

A letter was read from Thomas Enderic, E Agr Sc., Coolinagowan, Dungarvan, a previous scholarship holder thanking the Council for all the help given him in obtaining his degree.

A letter from the Minister for Education stated that he regretted that he could not accept the Council's proposal that the I.R.A. Military Service Pensions should be excluded from the Means Test under the scheme for Secondary and Vocational Scholarships.

On the proposal of Mr Kelly, seconded by Mr E. Power, a resolution was passed asking the Minister to reconsider his decision to consent to the exclusion of those pensions.

WATERFORD COUNTY COUNCIL ADJOURNED

Breavement Of Councillor M. Harty

Tributes To Late Mr. D. McCarthy, Ballyduff

Waterford County Council adjourned the pre-lunch session of their quarterly meeting at Dungarvan on Monday last as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Mrs. Harty Gortnadh Ring mother of Mr. Michael Harty, M.C.C. Senator J. Butler said that it was with great regret that he had heard of the death of the mother of their colleague on the Council, Michael Harty. Michael Harty's father the late Tom Harty had also been a member of the Waterford County Council, he said, who had always been looked up to for his advice and guidance in adjourning the Council. We were doing the proper thing in the late Mr. Harty had been a very generous woman, one of the old stock and a member of one of the most respected families in the County he said. Mr. J. Mansfield said that the Harty family had done a great amount of work in the public administration of the affairs of the County and the people owed a lot to them and the Council could not do less than show their appreciation by adjourning the meeting. Mr. J. Mansfield said that another member of the family, Mr. Joe Harty was a great asset to the people especially the small farmers of the district in which he lived. Mr. L. Morrissey said that he knew the late Mrs. Harty who had been a real lady and a member of one of the best known families in the County. Messrs. Leahy, Kelly, Quirk, Walsh, Kirwin, Fitzgerald, M. McGrath, P. Butler and M. Morrissey, associated themselves with the expressions of sympathy as Mr. J. Dowling, Secretary on behalf of the County Manager (absent due to illness) and staff.

A WORTHY OBJECT—The St. Vincent de Paul Society (Dungarvan Branch) will make their usual monthly collection at the Church gates after all Masses on Sunday next.

We commend the work of the Society to the charitable public who can be assured that all donations will be applied to the very best advantage to the needs of the deserving poor, as are visited weekly by the brothers of the Society, however modest, will be most gratefully accepted. The onset of the winter season imposes a very heavy strain on the resources of the society who must depend on the generosity of the charitable public if their good work is to continue. We feel sure it is only necessary to mention the matter to secure a generous response from all our readers.

"SUPPER NOT READY" MAN'S BRUTAL ASSAULT ON WIFE

Daniel Burke was indicted for having assaulted and resisted and obstructed a police constable on the day in question he found the prisoner drunk in Bull-lane kicking his wife. He saw him give her a box on the head with his clenched hand and when he arrested him the prisoner made a blow at him with a hatchet (produced) which he had in his hand, from over the shoulder of a man who had run up to save the woman. The prisoner who resisted most violently after a severe and prolonged struggle his wife's head was bleeding from a cut. The prisoner here said that the woman was his wife, all had not had his supper ready. He wished to call his sister-in-law as a witness.

The jury found a verdict of guilty. His Lordship in passing sentence said that they had heard that the prisoner had supported his wife and himself for 20 years but of that time he had spent 5 years in penal servitude. He had also been several other times convicted and though His Lordship did not think the case was one for penal servitude, still the assault was a brutal one for any man to commit and especially for an Irishman considering the country's reputation for chivalry. The sentence of the court was that Burke should be imprisoned for 9 calendar months with hard labour.

"Irish Times" for January 10th, 1877 and there was humorous speculation concerning the exact composition of the supper for which the prisoner was so important. The supper was a mixture of Musgrave Tea, for this fragrant blend has been a favorite for almost a century a really tremendous indication of its superb quality.

INQUEST ON COUNTY HOME INMATE ADJOURNED

Sequel To Accident In Dungarvan

An inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death of Thomas Cullen (72) single, inmate of the County Home, Dungarvan, who received fatal injuries on last Saturday night, 6th November at Mitchell Street, Dungarvan, was opened and adjourned by Dr. D. Healy, Lisnora Coroner for West Waterford at Dungarvan on last Tuesday evening.

The following were the jury—Messrs. M. Fives, (foreman), M. Kelly, P. Quilty, T. Power, J. Noble, Jas. Mearns, Anthony Lavin and Michael Landers. Supt. P. Flanagan represented the Authorities and Mr. A. R. Farrell, Supt. appeared for the M. Kelly eye carriage driver of the car involved.

Patrick Brennan Lodge-keeper County Home, deposed that he knew the late Thomas Cullen to have been an inmate of the County Home for the past 7 or 8 years. He was there on last Saturday 6th November and saw him leaving about 11.30 p.m. The car was coming in bringing Thomas Cullen. He was injured on Monday November 8th I saw a dead body at the District Hospital which I identified as that of Thomas Cullen. He was about 72 years of age and was a bit giddy on his feet but otherwise normal in health.

Dr. B. G. McCarthy, M.O. County Home and District Hospital Dungarvan, in evidence stated "Thomas Cullen was admitted to the District Hospital about 8 p.m. on Saturday November 6th. There was a history that he had been found unconscious in the street having been involved in a motor-car accident. I saw him at about 10.40 p.m. and had the following injuries—abrasion on left shoulder about 3 inches in diameter a small cut on left side of his head a contusion over the right eye. He was bleeding from both ears and was deeply unconscious. He died at 12.45 p.m. on November 7th without regaining consciousness.

I carried out a post-mortem examination on Nov 8th and found in addition to the injuries already described that he had a fracture of the base of the skull. The cause of death was laceration of the brain associated with the fracture of the base of the skull. The injuries would be consistent with a fall on the kerb. The witness agreed that all the injuries described had would be consistent with a fall. The man was old and in poor physical condition. His feet were bad and that would cause him to walk with a staggering gait.

Dr. M. McCarthy M.O. Whitechurch who assisted in the post-mortem examination agreed with the previous witness. Usually Wobbled Edmond Spratt, O'Connell Street, deposed I saw a crowd at Mitchell Street and I went to see what was wrong. I saw an old man lying on the path and his head resting against the wall. He had blood on his face. I knew he was an inmate of the County Home. With the assistance of two men I put the man into my car and took him to the District Hospital. I had seen the man in O'Connell Street about 6 p.m. that evening and he had wobbled across the street in a way which he usually walked.

Felt A Kind Of Jerk James Creane an employee at Carriglea Convent, Dungarvan, stated that on November 6th he came to Dungarvan with James Murphy the land steward in his motor-car. As we drove through Mitchell Street at about 7.45 p.m. I saw an old man walking towards us diagonally across the path and I saw the car hit him. He was about on the kerb and I saw him being carried away by the car. I then felt the brakes being applied and the car swerved abruptly to the right. I did not hear a tyre burst but felt a kind of jerk in the car. Then when the old man had been cleared by the front of the car I pulled a bump behind. The car fell up within a length of itself. We had been travelling at about 20 m.p.h. I got out and found the old man lying on the ground with the side of his head on the kerb and his feet on the road facing towards Dungarvan. He appeared to be badly injured and we lifted him up and put him in a sitting position against the wall. I then went to the Garda Station and reported the matter. When I returned I noticed that the left front tyre of the car had blown out. The lights on the car were good. To Mr. Farrell witness replied that deceased had his head down when coming towards them. He cleared the front of the car by about a foot and in his opinion must have staggered into the car.

At this stage the Superintendent applied to have the inquest adjourned stating that the facts had been submitted to the Attorney-General for his instructions. The Coroner accepted the request the adjourned the inquest to a later date. He ordered sympathy to the relatives of the deceased. Mr. Farrell on behalf of the driver, Supt. Flanagan and Mr. Fives on behalf of the jury, also joined in the expression of sympathy.

"fine FEATHERS fine BIRDS WITH AN INFRA RED LAMP"

An Infra red lamp which costs 15s 6d and rears 100 chicks for one unit of electricity ensures that chickens make better weight and show improved feathering

When you use an Infra red lamp the litter is warm and dry all the time and adequate heat without fumes is available without over crowding. Infra red lamps may also be used to rear bonhams or lambs or to provide life giving heat for any sick animal Infra red lamps must be used only on a permanently wired and tested circuit.

WATERFORD COUNTY COUNCIL

Grants

For the allocation of £10,500 under the Local Authorities (Works) Act a list of 48 schemes prepared by the Engineering Department were approved.

With reference to the additional grant of £26,000 for Main and County Roads improvements in the current year the County Engineer told Mr Walsh that it was proposed to allocate £24,600 for County roads and £3,400 for main roads.

Wet Time For Council Workers

Referring to the operation of wet time for County Council road workers Deputy Ormonde stated that there was dissatisfaction felt among a number of workers in his area in the method in which the principle was applied.

Deputy Ormonde then asked who was responsible for deciding whether on a wet morning it was fit to work or not when a difference of opinion on the matter arose between the overseer and the men.

Deputy Ormonde said that the suggestion to work in wet clothes had never been put into operation as they did not want men to work when it was not fit. The only men who worked in such weather were lorry drivers and others sheltered from the rain.

Mr J Ormonde E.E. said that in borderline cases the Overseers had instructions that any doubt was to be given in favour of the men.

Deputy Kenneally said that he saw a gang of men working near Waterford City one evening when you wouldn't put a dog out.

Deputy Ormonde held that in cases of dispute the Engineer should be contacted. Deputy Ormonde said that when any differences in this respect had arisen in the past matters had always been easily settled between the officials and the men's union.

The Council agreed to request the County Manager to instruct the rate collectors throughout the county not to force their collections in view of the disastrous harvest.

Next Meeting

It was decided to adjourn the remaining items on the agenda to the next meeting to be held on November 22nd.

ARDMORE GOSSIP

From early morning until dusk at evening can be heard along the highways and byways the noise of heavy lorries travelling to and fro in connection with the greatest beet campaign ever witnessed here in this part and this great industry which gives employment to many thousands must go on daily in spite of wind and weather.

The lovely little chapel of Piltown (Kinsalebeg) has just emerged from a long period of its recent months of renovation and reconstruction work and the greatest credit is due to the man and his staff who carried out such artistic work.

Mr Thomas Murray Building Contractor, Youghal. The work internally consists of a completely new High Altar, three new galleries altar rail and other sanctuary additions. The exterior portion of the contract comprises an enlarged new entrance porch and belfry and renewal of concrete entrance walk.

Deputy Ormonde said that the suggestion to work in wet clothes had never been put into operation as they did not want men to work when it was not fit. The only men who worked in such weather were lorry drivers and others sheltered from the rain.

Deputy Ormonde held that in cases of dispute the Engineer should be contacted. Deputy Ormonde said that when any differences in this respect had arisen in the past matters had always been easily settled between the officials and the men's union.

Deputy Ormonde agreed that the complaints he now mentioned came mainly from men who were not in the union but, he added, that they were also entitled to redress if anything was wrong. Finally it was agreed that the decision should remain with the Overseers but in the case of any grievances that they would be referred to the Engineer for the area.

TALLOW AND ROUND ABOUT

Dungarvanites Should Read This

The following story or perhaps yarn, would be a better title, can be found in "Life and Writings of Rev. Arthur O'Leary" being quoted there from Sir Jonah Barrington's "Personal Sketches".

Father O'Leary was travelling in France at the time. He went to visit a priest friend at the town of Monlognon, Sur-Mer. Here there was great excitement over a "show". The "show" was a bear-like animal which was being exhibited at the local inn by some fishermen.

The fishermen were making a fortune. Father O'Leary went to see this wonderful animal. The keeper seemed to have no pity for the poor beast as he poked him from time to time with a spike and Fr O'Leary could see that the beast was fatigued. Having been on show all day without a stop. Just as the good Irish priest was about to protest at the treatment, the keeper gave the poor brute a very violent jab of the spike and to the priest's amazement the Bear swore in perfectly good Gaelic.

The Mayor ordered the skin to be removed this was done and out stepped a stark naked Irishman. Once inside the skin he hadnt much option but to obey the command of the crafty Frenchman.

Grand Hun—On Wednesday, November 10th, the West Waterford Hunt had a grand run while cubbing. They put a brace to earth at Mount Fair. Another fox was put out and ran down to Glenaboy, then back to Mount Fair on the other side of the river, then to Curraglass, thence to Ballymounteen. Reynard was finally sent to cover at Balinvoisig.

The opening meet has been held back in view of the late harvest. It will be held at Clashmore on Wednesday, Nov 17th, at 11 a.m. So far 34 brace of foxes have been killed. Prospects for a good season.

In the Dail recently Mr. Kyne, T.D., asked the Minister for Local Government whether he is aware of the growing dissatisfaction among citizens in Waterford City over housing requirements.

Mr. O'Donnell: I am not aware of any matter in connection with the allocation of Waterford Corporation houses which would call for investigation at a public inquiry.

Mr. Kyne: Supposing I give to the Minister at least forty written statements alleging that houses are not being allocated in accordance with the letting regulations as sanctioned by his Department and suggested that a danger both to health and morals is being caused due to the present system, will he then undertake to have the matter investigated?

Mr. O'Donnell: When I have had an opportunity of reading the reports to which the Deputy refers, I might mention that the volume of correspondence from or on behalf of persons needing housing accommodation in Waterford has been negligible. I refer to such letters as registered in my Department since the 1st of January last.

also selected as goals for the Waterford selection who played Wexford at New Ross in the National Football League on Sunday last.

Church Robbery

Despite much police activity in the area there has been no arrest up to the time of writing. However, there is no scarcity of rumours.

The New Curiosity Shop

We have from time to time been confronted with the queerest requests. Of late strange coins and such-like, seem to take the lead in the objects presented for inspection.

What is the story of St. Brigid's Well? (at the Sweep), where is the stone, bearing the footprint gone to? I would be very pleased to hear about these, and if any reader knows the story or where the stone is would they please let me know.

Tallow And The E.S.B.

We have been approached by several people who have asked us to draw public attention to the need of a local E.S.B. office through the columns of the Dungarvan Leader.

Then again if a street light falls for want of a bulb it will not be put right for perhaps a week or more. As one reader said "The only thing they do regularly and without delay, is to collect their money."

Housing In Waterford City

In the Dail recently Mr. Kyne, T.D., asked the Minister for Local Government whether he is aware of the growing dissatisfaction among citizens in Waterford City over housing requirements.

Mr. O'Donnell: I am not aware of any matter in connection with the allocation of Waterford Corporation houses which would call for investigation at a public inquiry.

Mr. Kyne: Supposing I give to the Minister at least forty written statements alleging that houses are not being allocated in accordance with the letting regulations as sanctioned by his Department and suggested that a danger both to health and morals is being caused due to the present system, will he then undertake to have the matter investigated?

GROUND LIMESTONE

Deliveries from our Ballybeg and Killough plants during September broke all previous records for any month. More farmers are finding that they cannot afford to miss the increased yields and healthier stock produced on lime-enriched land.

In the area first supplied by our Ballybeg plant alone, there have now been established 18 other Ground Limestone plants and our deliveries are now limited to a radius of 40 miles. But our sales are greater than ever. There is every indication that the Spring demand will exceed even our output which is the biggest in Ireland.

Our quarries were selected after test and examination of almost every limestone deposit in Cork and many in Limerick, Tipperary and Waterford. Our production is tested each day to maintain the best proportion of particles of each size and is analysed for chemical composition in our Laboratories.

We deliver anywhere within 40 miles, even over very difficult routes. We spread almost everywhere with robust and efficient mechanical spreaders designed for cross-country work with front and rear axles driven. Most of these spreaders are now equipped with twin rear wheels to reduce further the bearing pressure on the soil. Our accredited spreading agents are equipped with efficient tractor spreaders. (We are open to consider applications for appointment as spreading agents in a few areas.)

Our Ballybeg plant will supply, during winter and spring only, a mixture of Ground Limestone, Gafsa and Potash or Ground Limestone, Fertiphos and Potash mixed in 30-ton lots in correct proportions to suit your land.

Because of the support of the farmers, our price is the lowest we know of in any country in the world. While other prices and costs have increased, Irish farmers can lime their land cheaper to-day than their ancestors could when wages were 6d a day.

Dail Questions By Deputy Ormonde

To ask the Minister for Agriculture if he will consider fixing for wheat, irrespective of moisture- or bushel weight, a minimum price which would, at least, safeguard badly-hit farmers against total loss of the season's crop.
