THE LOCAL ELECTIONS
With the local elections only two months away, interest is mounting in candidates for the various areas for the contests in June. As it is five years since the last Councils were elected, memories of most, with the exception of the keen followers of the political field, are hazy about quotas and all the other terms synonymous with such elections. Aware of this fact, I had the 1950 files of the Leader taken out from their dusty corners during the week and turned back the pages of time to the issue of September 23rd of that year which contained the first results of the elections held three days earlier.

These results were to the Dungarvan Urban Council as presently constituted.

THE LAST URBAN ELECTION
The last valid poll on the occasion was 2,085 votes with a quota fixed at 209 votes. Deputy Tom Kyne, headed the poll with 239 votes, followed by Mr. Tom Lannen, with 227, and Senator Butler, with 211. The three were declared elected in the first count. First preferences polled by others subsequently elected members of the Council were—Mr. Tom Lee 187, the late Mr. P. O'Dwyer 165, Mr. E. J. Kelly 153, Mr. N. Kelly 147, Mr. M. J. Keane, 111, Mr. T. McCarthy 90. Other unsuccessful candidates who stood were the late Mr. M. Clancy 79, Messrs. E. Ducey, 34, E. Fitzgerald, 38, E. Foley, 30, G. Goode, 25, Liam Morrissey, 105, C. J. Murphy, 46, T. O'Riordan, 38, D. O'Sullivan, 17, P. Ryan, 93, and D. Walsh, 13.

There were fourteen counts before the issue was decided, and following the first count the next candidate was elected in the 12th count (Mr. T. Lee). Mr. Keane was elected in the 14th count, Mr. Casey in the 14th count by a process of elimination the late Mr. O'Dwyer and Messrs. T. McCarthy and M. J. Keane, were elected without having reached the quota.

COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTIONS
In the Dungarvan Electoral area for the 1950 County Council elections, the total valid poll was 4,966 (146 spoilt votes) and the quota was 621 votes. There were 7 seats.

Deputy Tom Kyne headed the poll with a surplus of 184 votes in the first count having polled a total of 805.

The following were the other first preferences—Senator J. Butler (F.G.) 874, the late Michael Clancy (F.G.) 144, Charles Curran (F.F.) 283, Michael Curran (Ind.) 115, William Dower (F.G.) 248, Michael Hart (F.G.) 535, John Healy (F.F.) 86, Michael Hourigan (F.F.) 220, Nicholas Kelly (F.F.) 264, Denis Lyons (F.F.) 117, James Mansfield (F.F.) 244, Michael McGrath (Ind.) 326, Liam Morrissey (R. Flyers) 189, Nugent (Lab.) 14, Edmund Ryan (Lab.) 125, John Tobin (F.F.) 258.

The order in which the other candidates were elected following Deputy Kyne was Senator Butler (4th count), Mr. Hart (7th count), in the 14th and final count, five candidates were left in the running for the other four seats and with the elimination of Mr. C. Curran, Messrs. Kelly, Mansfield, McGrath and Morrissey, were declared elected.

Well now you know how they went in the Dungarvan area the last time and you can start studying form for next June.

Watch this column next week when I will recall to you how they went in the other areas in the county in 1950.

THE EASTER PARADE
What now we had. The first Bank Holiday week-end of the year has passed us by and I must say the weather clerk was not too unkind for the occasion. Conditions were mild and sprinkles and dappled the holiday-makers to enjoy the out-of-doors. Week-enders—were many home from the many scenes of their labours and all were pleased at the welcome break. The countryside looks really beautiful and the fields—turned rosy by the long period of harsh weather, have again begun to turn a verdant green. The brown patchwork liberally interwoven through the various greens tells of the hard work which has been done in the past few weeks by the tillers of the soil and to the onlooker every vista is one of beauty and progressiveness.

Nature has again come to life and with the budding of the trees and shrubs the new-found song of the birds and the promise of finer days, fresh vigour recharges the humdrum of everyday life for us all.

EVENING TO BE REMEMBERED
Recalling the first-class entertainments staged in recent years by St. Mary's Choral Society, Dungarvan, the public have learned with pleasure of the society's next production which will be staged at the Friary Hall beginning on Sunday, April 24th, and on the following Monday and Tuesday evenings. For those who will have the opportunity of seeing this new colourful show they will prove indeed evenings to be remembered when musical selections, sketches, charades, and choruses to suit all tastes, will be staged in the same superb manner as the past. The Society has shown what a wealth of latent musical talent lies amongst the younger generations of the Old Bore and I am sure that this latest production will bring more pleasant surprises in this regard.

BEAUTY OF LIMERICK.
I sing of my loved one an idol
To me
Though we are parted by the deep rolling sea,
My thoughts gladly wander to
Erin's green shore,
Where dwells my sweet treasure,
My beauty of Limerick, achusia
machie.
By the water's edge, where
a clear running stream,
I fancy I see her my cushla
machie.
Oh there's no girl fairer nor
lovelier than she,
My beauty of Limerick, achusia
machie.
Oh, there's no girl fairer nor
lovelier than she,
My beauty of Limerick, achusia
machie.

I sigh when I think of our farewell goodbye,
You strived for to keep the sad
tear from your eyes Poor Paddy, God save you and me
The heart that is melting for you all alone
Sure don't I remember the promise I gave I'd go back to old Ireland when I money I'd save
Oh, there's no girl fairer nor
lovelier than she,
My beauty of Limerick, achusia
machie.
Oh, there's no girl fairer nor
lovelier than she,
My beauty of Limerick, achusia
machie.

I place 'neath my pillow at night
when I sleep,
A sweet little token she gave me to keep
A wee bit of ribbon she took from her hair
No king has a jewel more precious or rare
In the morn when awakened I press to my heart,
My colleen's last gift, with it never I'll part
It comes from the fairest,
the loveliest to me,
My beauty of Limerick, achusia
machie.
Oh, there's no girl fairer nor
lovelier than she,
My beauty of Limerick, achusia
machie.

LISMORE ITEMS
Holy Week Sermons—On Holy Thursday and Good Friday, two very inspiring sermons were preached in the Parish Church by a Redemptorist Father. Very large congregations attended, and a record number approached the altar rails on Easter Sunday morning. It was most edifying to see such large numbers of the faithful present at all the Holy Week ceremonies.

Retreat—The Retreat which was given in Lismore parish, from March 27th to April 10th was brought to a close on Sunday night last, April 10th. Every morning large crowds were seen at Mass and Holy Communion, and the large congregations present every evening must have constituted a record. On Easter Sunday morning, two early Masses were celebrated to accommodate the large crowds attending. On Easter Sunday evening the spacious Church was packed to capacity for the closing ceremonies. The Retreat was conducted by Very Rev. Fr. Hickey, C.S.S.R.

Confraternity—The monthly meeting of the Womer's Branch of the Sacred Heart Confraternity will be held in the Parish Church tonight (Friday, April 15th, at 7.30 p.m.)

Festive High Mass—On Sunday last—Easter Sunday—a Festive Solemn High Mass was celebrated in St. Carthage's Church, Lismore at 11 a.m. The Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. T. Murphy, C.C. Lismore. Rev. Fr. Hickey, C.S.S.R., was deacon, and Rev. Fr. D. McGrath, C.C. Lismore, was sub-deacon. Master of ceremonies was Very Rev. Fr. Canon McGrath, P.F., Lismore.

The mass choir of the children of the parish, conducted by Brother Blake, C.B.S. Lismore, was most edifying and inspiring.

Whist Results—The following are the results of last week's Whist Drive—Ladies 1st, £1 and 2nd 12/-; resulted in a tie between Miss A. Colbert Station House, and Miss M. O'Connell, Castle Farm, with a score of 14. Each they received 16/- each. Half-time—8/- a tie between Miss N. Willoughby Chapel St. and Mrs. Hogan Glen Farm. Gent's 1st £1 and 2nd 16/-; resulted in a tie between Mr. G. Rea Cappoquin, Mr. J. Tobin, New Street, and Mr. N. Coleman Parks Road with a score of 148. Half-time—8/- a tie between Mr. J. Browne, Fernville, and Mr. A. Crotty, Shrough—78. Minors—10/-—Mr. A. Crotty, Shrough, Lismore—40.

Summer Time—Don't forget to put on your clocks and watches, on next Saturday night when New Time commences.

Sympathy—We offer our deepest sympathy to the family and relatives of the late Mr. Patrick Nugent Curraghroche Cappoquin, whose death occurred at the District Hospital, Lismore, on Sunday last April 10th. May he rest in peace.

Tourin Non Stop Draw—The following are the results of the Non-Stop Draw held last week by the Tourin Hurling and Football Club—1st—Mr. Larry Farrell, Ballyduff, 2nd, Mr. Willie Foley, Main Street, Lismore, 3rd, Miss Noreen Cahill Affane Promoter's prize—Miss Pat McGrath Cappoquin.

Waterford County Executive N. F. A. Hold Inaugural Meeting
ELECTION OF OFFICERS POSTPONED
Address By Chairman Provisional Committee

Mr T. Roche, Tallow Chairman, Waterford County Executive Macra na Feirme presided at the first meeting of the Waterford County Executive of the National Farmers' Association which was held at Court House, Dungarvan, on Wednesday night, 6th April.

Twenty-five branches from all parts of the County sent two delegates each to the meeting and the Court House was crowded when the meeting came to order.

Mr Roche at the outset said that the purpose of the meeting was to elect officers and form the Executive Committee of the Association and when this was done Macra na Feirme who had undertaken the organisation work would hand over to the Association which would then carry on for the future themselves.

Election of Officers Postponed
A long discussion took place as to whether officers of the Executive should be elected at that meeting or the next one, and opinions were divided. Following an appeal by Mr. C. Dempsey, Dungarvan for co-operation amongst the delegates and the County Council, it was decided to adopt the suggestion of Mr. W. Coleman Ballyduff Upper, to accept nominations for the various posts and to vote on them at the next meeting. The following nominations were then made—

Chairman—Messrs. C. Dempsey, Dungarvan, A. Coughlan, Lismore, J. Gaultier, William Coleman, Ballyduff.

Vice-Chairman—The candidate receiving the second greatest number of votes in the first election.

Treasurer—Messrs. D. J. Coughlan, Kilmacothomas, J. Llewellyn, Kinsale, J. O'Brien, Secretary—Miss E. O'Brien (Strabally-unanimous).

Each branch will have two votes for the purpose of the election.

Address by Dr J. Green
Dr J. Green, Chairman of the Provisional Committee of the N.F.A. received a great ovation as he rose to address the meeting.

Having congratulated the Waterford as being the best organised county in the Association, he said that he hoped the good example set up by them and if this was done a strong National Executive would be formed.

Dr Green stated that he had a great personal respect for all the good work being done by existing Organisations and I cannot see that any conflict need arise between them. The following organisations have large interests at stake in our National Agriculture other than the particular commodity in which they specialise, which would justify their becoming members of both the N.F.A. and other commodity organisations.

For that reason, it is important that the provisional committee should be fully representative of all interests. If existing organisations could cooperate to the extent of allowing their members to become members of an N.F.A. it would be as much as perhaps we might expect as this early stage of the movement. A magnificent opportunity in their part to recommend to their members that they should become members of an N.F.A.

Apart from commodity interests, an N.F.A. has so much to offer in fields that are so far unexplored, a programme of work containing unlimited potential for good and profit.

I visualise the creation of a substantial centre or centres for the housing of agricultural interests under one roof, the same centres to accommodate a reliable and independent Information and Statistical Department where farmers will have the opportunity for the first time of expert information and advice to study the trend of their own and world agricultural events from their own independent resources and in their own Board rooms.

In the course of time, the establishment of many services will be of such direct financial benefit to farmers as to make their contribution to the Association appear trivial.

Existing farming organisations have nothing to fear from the N.F.A. whether they decide to actively co-operate or not. They naturally will not allow themselves to be integrated within an N.F.A. without first having an assurance that its members' interests will be fully catered for, and nothing is more reasonable. Yet 95 per cent of all farmers believe in the ideal of a national comprehensive organisation, so let us contribute individually to its achievement and thus earn for the N.F.A. the confidence which must one day lead to the integration of all Farmers' Organisations within its framework. A little time may be necessary to reach this stage but again I believe reason dictates that it must happen.

The I.C.M.S.A., after due consideration have acted in what they believe is in the best interest of their members. We the N.F.A. may regret this decision, but we accept it. Members of the I.C.M.S.A. will, I hope, stand behind their organisation, which has served them so well and if according to the dictates of his reason he can see in an N.F.A. a further development towards even greater service on a much broader field his support and membership will be well worth while.

Stressing the non-political aspects of the Association, Dr Green stated—

"Elected members of the Dail or Senate cannot hold office in the newly formed N.F.A. This decision is in accordance with what is unquestionably the desire of the vast majority of farmers."

It is not an attempt to dictate policy or rules from the top and members will have the opportunity to endorse, reject, or modify the laws which will govern the Association once the organisation is established.

We do not intend any disrespect or lack of confidence in our farmer members of either House of the Oireachtas, but we do intend to represent within the parties of our national political field.

Our farmer T.D.s should be given full credit for the hard work they do for agriculture behind the scenes within their particular party group rather than be judged harshly and arbitrarily on how they express themselves on a division of the House.

Their work can be greatly assisted by the existence of a strong independent free N.F.A. completely outside all party political strife and personalities.

As one would expect a National Farmers Organisation has a special appeal for the small farmer, and it is therefore a source of satisfaction to all that the response amongst owners of 30 acres and under towards the N.F.A. has been very good.

The small-holder is so much in the majority, where Irish farmers are concerned, that he need have no fear that the Organisation will not cater for his needs since he can have the biggest hand in the direction of its affairs. To exercise that power is the small-holder's prerogative and duty and perhaps his salvation.

To those, fortunately, very few, farmers big and small who feel they cannot afford the subscription I would pose the question—"In the light of their experience can they really afford not to have a National Farmers Association?"

In sympathy with the belief that better agriculture means a better Ireland many non-farming individuals and industrial firms have indicated their wholehearted support for this hopeful sign of progress in the right direction. To those I would express the hope that the N.F.A. when organised will act with responsibility and due regard to the best interests of our country and thus earn the respect and blessing of all sections of the community.

With regard to an Agricultural-Industrial Undertaking Dr Green stated—"Progressive Agricultural and Industrial development in this country must necessarily be complementary to each other and in a large degree interdependent."

If we are to prosper as a nation, and if we are to retain more of our own people at home it is essential that our expanding industrial policy be fundamentally sound and in harmony with agriculture.

I think it is true to say that industry looks to agriculture to carry by exporting its produce on a highly competitive foreign market, the necessary foreign currency with which to purchase their foreign materials. Agriculture then has a right to expect industry that they should

Cavalry Troupier Who Rode In A Dog-Cart
Rather Nervous About Riding A Horse

An army surgeon, appointed to a cavalry regiment, had to admit, when the body of troops with which he was connected were marching that his equestrian year was a perfect one that he was somewhat diffident about mounting a horse. He was consequently accommodated by the commanding officer with a ride in a dog-cart, in which it is to be hoped that he reached his destination in fitting condition to discharge his professional duties to the satisfaction of all parties concerned.

The question suggests itself—what would this gentleman have done in a campaign where dog carts were not available? It is to be trusted that his deficient horsemanship was not irremediable, or that if it were some stalwart private was appointed to give him a lift on his shoulders whenever his legs failed him on the line of march.

This critical military problem arose in the year 1874 and was posed in the newspapers of April 28th of that year. Rather hard luck, one would think, on the poor private who in addition to his soldierly duties, had to act as a war-horse. He would at least be entitled to some small token of appreciation—for instance, a nice, hot cup of Musgrave's tea when he retired to his barracks—or even as far back as 1874 Musgrave's famous blends were popular all over the south of Ireland.

NEWS FROM YOUGHAL

One of the Town's most popular residents passed to his eternal reward early in the week in the person of Mrs. Elizabeth Allen which sad event took place at her residence, 11 Friary Street, on Tuesday last, 1955, at the age of 72 years. Mrs. Allen whose illness was of brief duration was wife of Mr. James (Jim) Allen well known coachbuilder and motor works, and mother of Miss Dorothy Allen popular town and county lady. To both bereaved we tender the condolence of our Leader readers

To prominent and deservedly popular townsman Mr. James Griffin of Mill Road we extend the sincere sympathy of Leader readers and other family members on the death of his wife, Mrs. Johanna Griffin which sad event occurred at above address last week. The deceased lady like her husband was extremely popular in the town area, and proof of such was amply testified by the large and representative gathering of business people who attended at the removal of the remains from Inch Church and at the interment from there on the following day to Ardagh Cemetery - RIP

A deservedly popular lady resident of the Strand area attended the great car race week-end in the person of Mr. Norah Crotty, who died at her residence, Balyle Strand. The deceased lady was widow of the late John Crotty, Lismore, and after his death some years ago came to reside at above address. The removal of remains accompanied by a very large concourse of sympathisers took place from residence to Church of Our Lady of Lourdes on the Saturday for interment in the family burial plot at Lismore Cemetery. The area for a number of years through this is at the disposal of our readers to the condolence of our readers to the members of deceased lady's family - RIP

One of the Town's most popular residents passed to his eternal reward early in the week in the person of Mrs. Elizabeth Allen which sad event took place at her residence, 11 Friary Street, on Tuesday last, 1955, at the age of 72 years. Mrs. Allen whose illness was of brief duration was wife of Mr. James (Jim) Allen well known coachbuilder and motor works, and mother of Miss Dorothy Allen popular town and county lady. To both bereaved we tender the condolence of our Leader readers

To prominent and deservedly popular townsman Mr. James Griffin of Mill Road we extend the sincere sympathy of Leader readers and other family members on the death of his wife, Mrs. Johanna Griffin which sad event occurred at above address last week. The deceased lady like her husband was extremely popular in the town area, and proof of such was amply testified by the large and representative gathering of business people who attended at the removal of the remains from Inch Church and at the interment from there on the following day to Ardagh Cemetery - RIP

A deservedly popular lady resident of the Strand area attended the great car race week-end in the person of Mr. Norah Crotty, who died at her residence, Balyle Strand. The deceased lady was widow of the late John Crotty, Lismore, and after his death some years ago came to reside at above address. The removal of remains accompanied by a very large concourse of sympathisers took place from residence to Church of Our Lady of Lourdes on the Saturday for interment in the family burial plot at Lismore Cemetery. The area for a number of years through this is at the disposal of our readers to the condolence of our readers to the members of deceased lady's family - RIP

G.A.A. HURLING KILROSSANTY OUST DUNGARVAN

Kilrossanty, 5-4, Dungarvan, 2-2

Kilrossanty junior hurlers paid to their Dungarvan opponents before a good crowd at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan on Sunday last in their first round encounter in the current championships. Played under ideal conditions the game was a rugged hard-hitting one.

Dungarvan, who held the upper hand for a good portion of the game failed to stay and the stamina of the Comeragh boys won through in the end.

Scorers for Kilrossanty were Whelan (2-1), Ormond (1-2), Kiwan (1-0) and J. Power (1-1) while, Dungarvan's scores came from D. Kiely and Quill a goal each, and M. McGrath (0-2).

Best for the winners were Power, Kirwan, Ormond, Prendergast, and Whelan while the losers were best served by Kiely, O'Donnell, Quill, McGrath, and Shalloo.

The game was ably refereed by "Plus" Dalton

BOXING J. Crotty In Irish Championships

Arrangements are now almost completed for the Inter-County Tournament-Waterford v Cork which will be held on May 20th, instead of May 6th. For the purpose of buying trophies for this tournament it has been decided to run a flag-day shortly. This would have been unnecessary but for the loss incurred at the recent Munster Juvenile Championships.

J. Crotty (9-7), who won the Munster Youth's title is at the time of writing in Dublin for the Irish Championships and should do well and perhaps bring another title to Dungarvan. He was very impressive in winning the Munster title and will go long way in the Irish Championships.

As already mentioned the Club will run a dance on Sunday night and are hoping for a good crowd at same.

BALLYDUFF NOTES

Retreat-The annual Holy Week Retreat was brought to a close in St. Michael's Church, Ballyduff on Easter Sunday evening by Rev. Fr. O'Boyle, of the Redemptionist Order. The Church was packed to listen to the closing sermon and take part in the renewal of baptismal vows. It was a memorable week for the people of Ballyduff and district. Each morning and evening young and old from the valley hills and mountains, converged on the Church during this Holy Week to listen and pay homage to God and His Blessed Mother.

The fervency and efficiency of the week's Retreat was seen at the early Masses on Sunday morning when the whole congregation knelt at the altar rails to receive Holy Communion.

Local History-(Rev. D. J. O'Connor Fourth P.P.)-Continued-A short time before the death of Fr. O'Connor a very beautiful chalice was presented to the Church by the late Mr. and Mrs. Higgins of Ballyduff. This chalice was modelled on the famous De Burgo O'Malley Chalice made for the Dominican Fathers Burreishoole Co. Mayo nearly 300 years ago to the order of Grace O'Malley and now in the National Museum, Dublin. During the Penal days the De Burgo Chalice, as it came to be known, was hidden and was discovered about 60 years ago in Tullamore from whence it went into possession of dealers in antique silver in London. It was purchased from them in 1824 by Mr. J. J. Buckley, F.R.S.A., of Dublin for the Museum in Kildare Street, Dublin. It is said to be the most beautiful proportioned chalice in existence.

In October 1903, Fr. O'Connor passed to his eternal reward and his remains were interred in the Church cemetery, where a monument marks his grave made by Keane of Waterford acknowledged as the master monumental mason of his time.

Rev. Edmund Meagher (6th P.P.)-When Fr. O'Connor was transferred to Ballyduff, Fr. Meagher was appointed P.P. of Ballyduff. He had been P.P. here for many years, where a monument marks his grave made by Keane of Waterford acknowledged as the master monumental mason of his time.

Next week we will give an account of the pastorate of our 6th P.P., Rev. John Moran.

ANCIENT GREECE

Well over 2,000 years ago a fleet of warships sailed from Athens against Syracuse. They met with one of the greatest naval defeats in history. The remains of the hapless vessels of the fleet lie somewhere along the sea bed at the mouth of the Great Harbour. An attempt has been planned to examine these, an undertaking which may well yield valuable archaeological prizes.

Tallow And Round About

Holy Week—The various ceremonies of Holy Week were very well attended in Tallow. On Wednesday, April 6th (Spy Wednesday) a Carmelite Father heard confessions. On Holy Thursday morning large numbers attended Mass and received Holy Communion. During the day there was a steady stream of worshippers to the beautiful Altar of Repose. On Holy Thursday evening, the Church was thronged for the devotions Rev. Fr. Canice delivered a very inspiring sermon on the Last Supper and the Institution of the Blessed Eucharist. On Good Friday morning a large congregation attended Mass of the Pre-Sanctified, and during the day, and especially at 3 p.m. there was a constant flow of the faithful making the Stations of the Cross. On Good Friday evening, Rev. Fr. Condon, C.C. officiated at the Stations of the Cross, after which Fr. Canice, delivered a beautiful and touching sermon on the Passion and Death of Our Saviour to a huge congregation. All through the day on Easter Saturday people approached the confessionals, where the Carmelite Father and the local clergy were hearing. On Easter Sunday morning at the 8 o'clock Mass the people of the parish gave a wonderful demonstration of their faith, when row after row approached the altar rails to receive Holy Communion. At the 11 o'clock Mass, Very Rev. W. Canon Flynn, P.P., delivered a short lecture on the Joy of the Church at Eastertide. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament followed the Mass. Tower Amusements—During the week, the many and various wagons of the well-known Tower Amusements concentrated on Tallow. Everywhere the children and grown-ups were greeting each other with "Perks are in," or "Tower Amusements will be on" Easter Sunday night. The colossal prizes which Tower Amusements give away are sufficient inducement to cause a stir at their coming. The gay Carnival is located in the field near the library, and given fine weather it is expected that "Tower" will be the rendezvous for hundreds of people during the coming weeks. Maera na Feirme Dances—Tallow Maera na Feirme held a dance at the Arch Ballroom, Tallow on Easter Sunday night. Despite countless other attractions the function was a pronounced success from every point of view. The Major Watt Hunt Band, discoursed a grand selection of tunes which brought crowds after another from the capacity attendance. Gonna Fianna Fall Cumann—On Sunday night next, April 17th, Gonna Fianna Fall Cumann will hold their annual meeting at the Arch Ballroom, Tallow. Jimmy McCarthy's Dance Orchestra are engaged to supply the music for this big occasion and this alone should be sufficient inducement to bring the town to the function which will be attended by Mr. M. Corry, T.D., and other members of the party. Sunday's Games—On Sunday next April 17th, there will be a football match between the Tallow and Ballyduff teams at the Arch Ballroom, Tallow. Tallow will meet Ballyduff in the Shamrocks line out against Lismore. There is no denying the fact that Tallow are facing a very stiff task as many of their top-line players are not available, however the substitutes are expected to do as well, and they know that they will give of their best to bring victory to the Brideside town. Ballyduff will be fielding at least ten of the players who won the County Junior Championship the season before last, and as many of these players are in the re-graded, it will be realised that the Bridesiders will have to go all out to win. This does not mean that Tallow have not got what it takes to overcome the advantage of their own field and good support they should emerge victors, and we wish them the best of good luck. Shamrocks are quietly confident of success, but they will field out minus services of some good players, still, they are favourites for the game against Lismore, and they are sure to have a big following of supporters on the line to see them on the field. This will be a great opportunity to see both local teams in action and nobody should miss it. The field arrangements will be in the line of the Tallow club, and all Gaelic games will be played on the field. It is assumed that every provision will be made for a record attendance at Tallow Gaelic Field, on Sunday next. Regal Film Fairs—The much-sought-of film "The Caine Mutiny" will be screened at the Regal Cinema, Tallow, on Friday, April 22nd, and on Saturday, April 23rd. This is a prize winner. Does it deserve to be called the "the greatest film of the year"? It has drawn crowded houses everywhere and is certainly a much-discussed picture. On Sunday, April 24th, "Slaves of Babylon" is the technical, brilliant, and the most lavish production of the ancient City of Babylon. It is violent, spectacular and overpowering, and is a picture that should be seen by all. On Monday and Tuesday, April 18th, and 19th, "The Sign" will be shown. Betty Davis and Steffing Hayden are the stars in this powerful drama. On Thursday, April 21st, the film "Stop Your Running" will be screened. "Gas Brod Crawford and Clark Gable" is this thrilling action drama. Thank You—Some weeks ago I was asked for the words of "He Tread on the Tail of My

ARDMORE GOSSIP

The solemn services of Holy Week were largely attended in St. Declan's Parish Church by all the faithful. From early morning Mass on Spy Wednesday, crowds not only from the village but from all the outlying districts, could be seen entering the Church, till the final closing of the Lenten Devotions with the Stations of the Cross and sermon on Good Friday evening. Easter water was in eager demand all through the day of Easter Saturday, and Easter Sunday morning saw large crowds approach the holy altar rails. The choir was as usual very edifying and they rendered the sacred music and hymns on Easter Sunday in a most inspiring manner. The fitting climax to the Easter celebrations was the heavenly scene of splendour presented at the high altar on Easter Sunday night during devotions by the interesting of flowers and multi-coloured electric bulbs and candles. Once again as in the past, the decorations were in the master hands of sacristan Patrick Mockler. The Gazetteer says of Ardmore is the poorer this week by the death of one of its oldest inhabitants, the late Mr. John Smith of Ardmore, Whiting Bay. The deceased had not been in the best of health for a number of years but nevertheless his demise was unexpected. In his younger days he was a prominent figure in all local sporting and social functions but in everyday life he was unassuming and retiring. He was a native Irish speaker and had a wide knowledge of local folklore. He was brother of Mr. Patrick Smith, U.S.A. who with his wife spent a holiday in Ardmore last summer, and of Mrs. T. Ryan, Ardmore, also of Mrs. J. Hallahan, Main Street, Ardmore. He was uncle of Rev. Brother Declan (Denis) Hallahan, Christian Brothers College Mount Zion, Waterford.

There was a large and representative attendance at the removal of his remains from his residence on Wednesday afternoon to Ardmore Tower Cemetery. The chief mourners were—Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. J. Hallahan, Ardmore (sisters), Mr. Patrick Smith, U.S.A. (brother), Mr. Timothy Ryan (brother-in-law), Mrs. Frances Troy, Ardmore (niece), Rev. Brother Declan Hallahan, Christian Brothers Mount Zion, Messrs. John Hallahan, M.P.S.I., Timoleague, Co. Cork, William Hallahan, Dublin, Thomas Hallahan, Ardmore, (nephews), Thomas Smith, Ardo (cousin). To the bereaved relatives we wish to express our sincere sympathy in their sad bereavement. Congratulations from the area through this week's Gossip column are being extended to Miss M. Mulcahy, N.T., who has been appointed assistant teacher in Buerstown National School, Waterford. This highly qualified young teacher, has been for a time on the staff of the Ursuline Convent, Waterford. She is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mulcahy, Ballinacorney, Ardmore, and niece of Garda Sean Flaherty, Kill Co. Waterford, and of Miss Mary (Minnie) Mulcahy, Ardmore. A popular young Ardmore man whose name is in the news this week, is Garda Jim McGrath, who has been transferred from the post of Superintendent's Clerk at Bantry to a similar post in the Kanturk Office. Garda McGrath who has been in the Bantry Office for approximately two years is son of Mr. and Mrs. John McGrath, of New Line, Ardmore. Before joining the force he was for a time in the National Army. He was very prominent in all local and sporting spheres, and is a first-class handballer. By the way, the Superintendent at Bantry is also a man popularly known in the area. He is Superintendent

Thomas O'Donovan, of Clashmore. A distinguished visitor to the old home town for the annual Easter holiday is Mr. Owen (Eugene) J. Redmond, Secretary to the Minister for Finance. He was accompanied by his wife, daughter, sister and friends and spent an enjoyable holiday at Cliff House Hotel. He made it his chief business to meet many of his old school pals and friends and helped to make theirs an enjoyable holiday also. The patronage at the annual Easter Sunday night dance in St. Declan's Hall, was above the usual attendance, due to the fact that many who had attended the earlier commemorative service in the village remained over. The capacity attendance enjoyed themselves to their hearts content, and the Committee wish to thank all for their great support. County Council Candidates—The Fine Gael Party, have selected a well-known local farmer Mr. Thomas Flynn, Knockan House, Grange as candidate in the forthcoming County Council election. Mr. Flynn is an old IRA man and is very popular in the area. The Labour nominee for the election is Mr. Kevin Coughlan, P.C., Chairman of Ardmore Branch Labour Party. He is also beet loading agent for Malloy Sugar Factory. As already stated the popular representative Council member for Mansfield, is now ward again in the Fianna Fail interest. The tidings of the tragic death at his residence in Geesh, Aghin, of the late James (Jim) Moloney, occasioned a wide regret here where he was so deservedly popular. Deceased always took a deep interest in the progress of Ardmore Village and was prominently identified in its sporting and social features. He was first cousin of Moloney Brothers to whom, as well as to the deceased's widow and family, we wish to extend the condolences of our readers. (Funeral arrangements were by J. Kieley & Sons, Undertakers, Dungarvan.) The influx of holiday visitors for the Easter week-end was up to the usual average. In addition to the large numbers of natives away on business or at various educational centres, who return to the old home town for the Easter holidays, there were a number of visitors who are new-comers to the town, to the hotels and guest houses here, and a fair amount of old patrons.

EAST CORK COMMENTS

Light For Inch Church—The C.Y.M.S. Inch were anxious to have a public light near Inch Church Killeagh, and it is well to know that Mr. Liam Ahern, M.C.C., is after taking the matter up with the South Cork Public Health Authorities. Councillor Ahern should have a great interest in this district, which he has as his grandmother was one of the Kennedy family. His father the late Councillor Eamonn Ahern always said that Inch and Mountunack was his motherland. Road Work—Road work is in full swing with lorries, loaders, and men in the Gengouris, Rearour Killernat and Sandyhill areas for the past week and the residents, ratepayers and workmen, are all thankful to Mr. Liam Ahern, M.C.C. for getting the work started in such short notice. Youghal-Killeagh Fianna Fail Comhairle Gaanntair—A meeting of the above will be held in Killeagh this week, a full report of which will appear in our next issue. Obituary—The death at an advanced age of Mrs. Catherine (Katie) Barradaw, Killeagh occurred during the past week. The late Mrs. Leahy, was widow of Mr. John Leahy, who was one of the leading and most progressive farmers in the Killeagh parish. It can be truly said that the late Mrs. Leahy was reputed for her extreme kindness and generosity to all who sought her assistance. The funeral from Killeagh Church to the ancient Catholic Churchyard at Dangan, fully testified to the high esteem in which the Leahy family were held, as it was representative of all the various trades and professions from Youghal, Middleton, Tallow and even from Cork City. Very Rev. Canon Carey, P.P., Killeagh, Rev. Fr. Foley, C.C., Clonsilla, Rev. Fr. Fitzgerald, C.C., Clonsilla, and Rev. Fr. Gavin, C.C., Ballynac, officiated at the graveside. May she rest in peace. Reconstruction Of Roads—The reconstruction of an important highway which extends from Castle Lyons to Dungarvan, is now in progress and the work is being supervised by the County Council Engineer, Mr. J. O'Regan, B.E. and his assistant, Mr. John Gleason, or Donkmore. In the old, mail coach days it was an important road when many people travelled from North Cork to Ballycotton and adjoining seaside resorts. On both sides of this road in the Ardara and Carrigrohane districts about 1,000 acres of woodland is being planted, and DUNGARVAN BATTALION. Easter Parade—All members who took part in the Easter Parade at Cork are to be heartily congratulated. All responsible for the organising of this Parade were deeply impressed by the excellent performance of the F.C.A. Units which took part and it reflects great credit on the members themselves. It indicates the enthusiasm which they bring in preparation for the parade and this is very encouraging. These members can be depended on for all such activities and the Staff are certainly most satisfied. Annual Range Practices—On Sunday next the 17th April 1955, Youghal Range will be at the disposal of this Unit for the purpose of exercising personnel in Annual Range Practices. It is hoped that every available member will avail of the opportunity of completing his range practices. Details of transport are as follows—11 o'clock F.C.A. Hall, Dungarvan, 11.15 Ring 11.30 Ardmore, 11.45 Aglish and 12 o'clock Glashmore. Full Time Training—Another period of full-time training commenced at Collins Barracks, Cork on the 16/4/55, and members who intend reporting on this date should inform their Centre Leaders at once. Further period of training will commence at Cork on the following dates—30/4/55 and 1/5/55.

Military Exhibition

On Thursday the 21st April 1955, a Military Exhibition of guns, rifles, mines, shells, machine guns, anti-tank guns, trench mortars, etc. will be presented at the F.C.A. Hall, Youghal Road, Dungarvan, by the 13th Southern Battalion.
