it is with deep regret we chronicle the death which took place at her residence "Hill-side," Ardmore of Mrs Mare Kelly (nee Drohan), relict of Mr Patrick Kelly ex-NT, which sad event took place after an illness of some weeks duration on Thursday evening April 28th.
The passing of the deceased who was one of the most highly respected inhabitants of the Village area came as a great shock to her many friends, not alone in traits of character, charitable, unassuming and always cheerful even though in failing nealth endeared her to the hearts of all Ample proof of her popularity in the area was shown by the large and repre-sentative cortege which followed able afternoon

PORTLAW TANNERY

April Fair—The April monthly fair held on Friday April 29th was marked by a transaction which has caused much comment—Mr J F O Keeffe Tallow sold two heavy cattle for £218 This is reckoned by many local people to be the highest sum ever paid for two cattle in Tallow

The general tone showed good prices and the fairly large number of beasts offered for sale were easily disposed of Sympathy—We tender our sincere sympathy to the relatives of the late Thomas Ahern of Lvre who died recently May hc rest in peace

Road Work—At the present time County Council workers are distributing heavy gravel from Sandyhil pits on the roads in the Park mountain district
