Deputy T. A. Kyne Speaking in The Dail On Gaming And Lotteries

Mr Kyne—I think there is a general acceptance of the need of a Bill such as this So long as men and women live and whether it is legalised or not gambling in one form or another will continue I think that it is desirable to regulate it in some way If that is not done then you allow the present undesirable position to remain—a posiwhereby decisions as to what type of gambling should go or what form should be permit-ted depend on the views of different Superintendents and the decisions of different District Justices That has been the position in the past While I think the Minister has advisably taken steps under the Bil. to control gambling he whould be control gambling he should be careful not to make the Law so strict or so unworkable as to drive underground, if I might use that expression the people who promote gambles It the Bill does not get the goodwill of the people who promote lotteries and games then there is grave danger that illegality vill flourish together with fraud and corruption It is desirable to have this Bill as wide as possible and acceptable to the promoters of gaming, at the same time ensuring that the ordinary anyone in the world is out for Those of us who are honest will have to admit that that is true Whether or not they hop the horse racing or the greyhound industry I do not know but in my view they are not particularly interested in that side of things

If there were no gaming on norse racing or on dogs it is questionable whether the greyhound or the horse racing modularly would suffer at all. The fact the chairty money does not try would suffer at all. The fact the suddenly land because we decide suddenly land because in the more will visit Lismore on Sun-house the Bishop of Wateriola and Lis more will visit Lismore on Sun-house the Bishop of Wateriola and Lis more will visit Lismore on Sun-house well-known magician who some well-known magician in Ireland to win a whist Drive which was held on the results of the weekly whist Drive which was held on the results of the weekly whist Drive which was held on the results of the weekly whist Drive which was held on the results of the weekly whist Drive which was held on the results of the weekly whist Drive which was held on the results of the weekly whist Drive which was held on the results of the weekly whist Drive which was held on the results of the weekly whist Drive which was held on the results of the weekly whist Drive which was held on the results of the weekly whist Drive which was held on the result that we have betting and it is desirable to ensure as I notice are stopped If it is desirable to have control and to stop fraud then I think everyone will welcome the Bill and agree with the Minister in that regard The

> In my opinion it is not right that the local authority should decide as to whether or not there should be gaming in their areas am a member of a number of local authorities and I am aware of the influence that can be exercised There is no person more subject to that than the oldinary public representative I suggest that it would be far better that the Garda authorities should deal with it Superintendent or somebody in the district I do not think the local authority should have that > right

> I feel that if it were the local authority we would be defeating curselves In the case of the issue of licences to bookmakers A is the Superintendent of the Garda who decides the matter There should be a similar provis ion in this case

In section 16 it is specified that the types of games to be played should be listed. It is difficult for showmen to know what games they will play in a par-ticular area Very often the showmen have to improvise to meet the demand in the locality It is rather strict to ask him to decide before hand on the games to be played

I would particularly object to the attempt in the Bill to do away with the private person who promotes lotteries or games members of the public who en- These are the people who give gage in minor forms of gambl- the employment I know that gage in minor forms of gambing get the pleasures they desire to have and which in my opinion, they are perfectly entitled to enjoy I can see no justification for what the Minister ter says about keeping the bookmakers apart from ordinary promoters of gaming houses. # WERE YOUR CATTLE HUNGRY LAST SPRING?

Prevent hunger next spring by making enough GRASS SILAGE

NOW IS THE TIME FOR ACTION

Silage making is easy when you watch the following points:

- 1 Leafy grass and clover make the best silage, cut early for good quality
- 2 Fill the silo to a depth of 3 to 4 feet, the day you begin
- Let a day or two pass for this filling to heat up to the desirable temperature -which is body heat.
- Now fill in, day after day, until the silo is filled
- Shake out each forkful-loads dumped in the silo cause mouldy patchesand trample well Young leafy grass packs easily so do not trample this as much as you would trample stemmy grass
- 6 Fill the silo slowly if you are dealing with rich young herbage in wet weather, molasses can be a help in these conditions. Fill quickly and pack well if the grass is stemmy or the weather is warm and dry
- 7 Finish the silo by sealing off and putting on some type of covering to

If you are making silage for the first time, or if you have any problems, be sure to consult your Instructor
