A PROBE. Following revelations during a recent routine audit of the accounts of Waterford County Council...

It is possible that this matter may prove the basis for some questions by County Council at next Monday's meeting...

HAPPY PATIENTS. Last week I had reason to visit a friend being treated at the District Hospital in Dungarvan...

CONGRATULATIONS. To Mr. Sandford, Wolfe, Tone Road, and his team of 13 men who in 10 months have erected a huge concrete and steel building...

NOT AN INCH. So cried Carson from his perch in Stormont to cry his head off at the North at the present time...

HOME FROM THE STATES. On holidays recently in his native Dungarvan, where he visited his mother and relatives...

Schwaben Hall and made a presentation of a wallet and cheque. There are quite a number of County Waterford folk in Bridgeport...

WAGES INCREASE CLAIM. I understand that a claim for an increase of 20/- a week on existing wage standards has been lodged by the A.T.S.G.W. in respect of members employed in Dungarvan...

AUGUSTINIAN FOREIGN MISSIONS. I direct the attention of readers to the notice in this issue concerning the Display and Sale of Work which will take place at the Friary Hall, Dungarvan, on Friday and Saturday...

OLD TOYS. Christmas is racing towards us at a good gallop and soon we will all be engrossed in preparing for the great festival...

GALWAY BAY. This far away I am today from scenes I roamed a boy. A long ago the hour I know I'm from Illinois...

A prouder man I'd walk the land in health and peace of mind. If I might toil and strive and mull, nor cast one thought behind...

Had I youth's blood and hopeful mood and heart of fire once more. For all the gold the earth might hold I'd never quit your shore...

I'd live content whatever God sent, with neighbours old and grey. And lay my bones 'neath churchyard stones beside you Galway Bay...

The blessings of a poor old man be with you night and day. The blessings of a poor old man whose heart will soon be clay...

'Tis all the heaven I'd ask of God upon my dying day. My soul to soar forever mere above you Galway Bay...

The tidings of the death of a former very popular lady, who received with sentiments of sincere regret by the many friends in all their western matches the season and proved worthy titleholders when the final whistle sounded. The game was a personal triumph for Paddy Kennedy who, at centre field gave as fine an exhibition of football as has been seen in the Waterford pitch for many a year. He split the De La Salle defence time and again and in this vital section of the field he was ably partnered by "Bobo" Shanahan. Jim Hallahan at centre-back was the star of the Aglish defence in which Joe Lewis and John Kiely also starred. Pick of the forwards was Roger Ryan. In the De La Salle line-out Brother Barrett was supreme and he scored all of his team's four points of tries. A noteworthy achievement occurred when he kicked 45 yards out the kicked a ball over the bar but the kick was called back as the whistle had not gone. Bro Barrett with cool anticipation repeated the dose to the cheers of the City team's supporters. Other de La Salle players to shine were Shanahan Barron and Power. Aglish opened the scoring with a point and after five minutes later Paddy Kennedy landed a goal. Aglish had a further goal scored. Kennedy again scored the goal but the net but the score was disallowed. Kennedy added a further point before Bro Barrett had 2 points off tries to leave the half-time score: Aglish 1-3 De La Salle 0-2 Ten minutes from the end Bro Barrett had reduced the margin to 2 points and the Aglish was then really knit, but Aglish finishing the stronger added two further points to win the coveted and elusive title. Well done Geraldines. The game was played under miserable conditions on a very shivery pitch.

THE CHRISTMAS GRANT WORK for the unemployed will begin on Monday such was the information given by members of the UDC at a recent meeting. Mr E P Lynch, paid a tribute to the work of the outdoor staff at Poison Bush Lane but added that the Council will have to take action as regards the top of the place. The passing of his eternal reward at the Cottage Hospital, Youghal, after an illness of some duration of the late Mr John Hennessy of Ballyglassan, was mourned by his friends and general public in a wide area. The deceased was an expert in gardening and his first grade practical knowledge of the science of botany was always available to the solving of beginners problems. In early life he was gardener at Farranferris College. His knowledge of the mother tongue was first rate and he possessed a keen sense of humor. His popularity was in no small way emphatically demonstrated by the large and representative corteges present at the removal of his remains from the hospital to the Parish Church, Killeagh, and at the subsequent interment in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev Canon Carey, P.P. Killeagh, and Rev Fr P Foley, C.C. Inch, officiated at the graveside. To his bereaved family of sons and daughters we extend our deepest sympathy. One of the most seriously affected victims of the recent unusual heavy dews of November 2nd was deservedly popular Mr William Sweeney of 11, The Mall. The lower portion of the house was completely flooded by many feet of water. Mr Sweeney certainly has our sympathy. The circumstances were all the more aggravated by the refusal of the local authority to grant the use of the pumping machinery and staff of the local fire brigade, unless Mr Sweeney agreed to pay £1 per hour for the machine, and 4/8 per hour for the operating staff. On an occasion like when a person's home and property were in danger of destruction every effort to save it should have been made. The similar circumstances of high floods may pre-

DAVID NOONAN, Auctioneer & Valuer, Lismore sent themselves again, and we wonder will similar costs be the order of the day. The tidings of the death of a former very popular lady, who received with sentiments of sincere regret by the many friends in all their western matches the season and proved worthy titleholders when the final whistle sounded. The game was a personal triumph for Paddy Kennedy who, at centre field gave as fine an exhibition of football as has been seen in the Waterford pitch for many a year. He split the De La Salle defence time and again and in this vital section of the field he was ably partnered by "Bobo" Shanahan. Jim Hallahan at centre-back was the star of the Aglish defence in which Joe Lewis and John Kiely also starred. Pick of the forwards was Roger Ryan. In the De La Salle line-out Brother Barrett was supreme and he scored all of his team's four points of tries. A noteworthy achievement occurred when he kicked 45 yards out the kicked a ball over the bar but the kick was called back as the whistle had not gone. Bro Barrett with cool anticipation repeated the dose to the cheers of the City team's supporters. Other de La Salle players to shine were Shanahan Barron and Power. Aglish opened the scoring with a point and after five minutes later Paddy Kennedy landed a goal. Aglish had a further goal scored. Kennedy again scored the goal but the net but the score was disallowed. Kennedy added a further point before Bro Barrett had 2 points off tries to leave the half-time score: Aglish 1-3 De La Salle 0-2 Ten minutes from the end Bro Barrett had reduced the margin to 2 points and the Aglish was then really knit, but Aglish finishing the stronger added two further points to win the coveted and elusive title. Well done Geraldines. The game was played under miserable conditions on a very shivery pitch.

County Waterford Committee of Agriculture. The Christmas Grant Work for the unemployed will begin on Monday such was the information given by members of the UDC at a recent meeting. Mr E P Lynch, paid a tribute to the work of the outdoor staff at Poison Bush Lane but added that the Council will have to take action as regards the top of the place. The passing of his eternal reward at the Cottage Hospital, Youghal, after an illness of some duration of the late Mr John Hennessy of Ballyglassan, was mourned by his friends and general public in a wide area. The deceased was an expert in gardening and his first grade practical knowledge of the science of botany was always available to the solving of beginners problems. In early life he was gardener at Farranferris College. His knowledge of the mother tongue was first rate and he possessed a keen sense of humor. His popularity was in no small way emphatically demonstrated by the large and representative corteges present at the removal of his remains from the hospital to the Parish Church, Killeagh, and at the subsequent interment in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev Canon Carey, P.P. Killeagh, and Rev Fr P Foley, C.C. Inch, officiated at the graveside. To his bereaved family of sons and daughters we extend our deepest sympathy. One of the most seriously affected victims of the recent unusual heavy dews of November 2nd was deservedly popular Mr William Sweeney of 11, The Mall. The lower portion of the house was completely flooded by many feet of water. Mr Sweeney certainly has our sympathy. The circumstances were all the more aggravated by the refusal of the local authority to grant the use of the pumping machinery and staff of the local fire brigade, unless Mr Sweeney agreed to pay £1 per hour for the machine, and 4/8 per hour for the operating staff. On an occasion like when a person's home and property were in danger of destruction every effort to save it should have been made. The similar circumstances of high floods may pre-

RING-RETAIN MINOR FOOTBALL TITLE AGLISH TAKE JUNIOR CROWN MF—Ring 1-5, Kill 0-3 JF—Aglish De La Salle 1-5, 0-4

At Waterford on Sunday last the Western Minor and Junior Football champions won county titles for 1955 when they defeated their Eastern counterparts in two excellent games. The junior match especially, was the grand game to watch and reached a standard on a par with some of the best senior games this season. In retaining their minor football crown Aglish looked champions all over and were superior to the boys from Kill in all departments from the word go. A centre-field full in which McGrath and Curran combined in great style swamped the Eastern boys, and continuously, the Ring forwards made the going very hot for the Kill defence. Ring lead at half-time by 2 points on the score 0-3 to 0-1, and added a goal and two points in the second half to Kill's two points. Scorers for the champions were Crotty (1-0) Kelly (0-2) Carlton and McGrath a point each.

AGLISH WORTHY CHAMPIONS In the Junior Football Final Geraldines (Aglish) sustained a heavy defeat by the champions in all their western matches this season and proved worthy titleholders when the final whistle sounded. The game was a personal triumph for Paddy Kennedy who, at centre field gave as fine an exhibition of football as has been seen in the Waterford pitch for many a year. He split the De La Salle defence time and again and in this vital section of the field he was ably partnered by "Bobo" Shanahan. Abbeyside Juvenile League. Due to the fact that the senior junior and minor teams were engaged in no less than 24 matches this season considerable difficulty was experienced in running the Juvenile League as efficiently as it was last year. But now that all championship engagements have finished a wholehearted effort is being made to play the remaining League games. On Sunday next two interesting games are to be decided and on the following Sunday a further two matches will be played. This will mean that Sunday December 6th will be "Final Day". Next Sunday's games will begin at 2.20 p.m. when Ollie Clancy's team line out against Paddy Organ's selection. Both these teams are evenly matched as are Denis Flynn's and Michael Enright's who clash at 3.20 p.m. Most of the 48 youths taking part in next Sunday's games will have improved considerably from the experience gained in last year's championship and the standard of hurling in both games should be well up to the best juvenile standard.

Sergeant Browne, who prosecuted on behalf of the defendants who were home from England had been quiet on the occasion and had returned to England again.

The Justice applied the P.A.O. Nearly Crashed With Squad Car.

The facts are that on October 8th, at 11.5 a.m., the District Patrol Car was returning from Whitechurch to Dungarvan, a 7 mile stretch of road on which there is very heavy traffic when they were suddenly confronted by a lorry which was on the wrong side of the road.

This was stated by Superintendent Flanagan when Frank O'Donovan, driver of the lorry, staying at 82, Congress Villas, Dungarvan, was charged with dangerous driving on the occasion.

The patrol car braked hard and the lorry reversed back to its right side and an accident was avoided, said the Superintendent.

Mr. E. P. King solr (Messrs J. F. Williams & Son) said that his client would submit to a charge of careless driving and the Superintendent agreed to this.

Mr. King said that the road was narrow at the point and his client informed him that in the event of a turn he had to keep a little over the crown of the road.

The Justice imposed a fine of £2.

Finally we take this opportunity to remind dancers of "The Guild's Third Annual All-Night Dance," billed for Sunday, Jan. 8th, 1956.

Storm—The heavy storm which raged in the district on All Souls Night, did remarkably little damage considering its intensity. The town's electricity supply was disrupted as a result of the wind which tore roofs in the area were minus, not all but some of their slates.

Sale Of Work—It is hoped that the Sale of Work billed to take place in the Boathouse on Sunday next at 2 p.m. will attract large numbers. Cappoquin Brass & Reed Band—It was learned with delight that Mr. John Singleton, Hon Secretary of the Brass and Reed Band has returned from England after some weeks in the army. It is the feeling of all that the band should go ahead by leaps and bounds, under the musical guidance of John and some of the other playing members.

Members hurling fame—Mount Sion and Tourin selected will play a senior hurling challenge game at Cappoquin, on Sunday, November 20th in aid of the George McGrath Accident Fund when it is anticipated that a good attendance will support the worthy cause, there being no other counter-attraction in the district on that day. I.R.A. Memorial—The cell in aid of the above which was held in the Boathouse on Sunday night last 6th inst. proved very successful. Despite the inclemency of the weather, and many counter-attractions, it was well patronised by the people of the town and the surrounding districts.

General—I have not seen a pack of cards in the Den for quite a long time now, and I'm sure Deuca has forgotten all about 45. While the rule stands no scout would dream of playing a "3d hand" in the den. The piano is laid up this weather since Hago left. The S.M. is the only one I know of who knocks a few notes out of it once in a while. Burke says he is nearly ready to pass the Music Merit Badge. I wonder who taught him all the music? I'm sure he didn't learn it standing in the Square. I wouldn't mind to see Squad there or even Mackey. Has he any other messages to do after school.

Mr. Quinn Replies.

(To The Editor Dungarvan Leader)

Dear Sir,—A report in your last issue of an Urban Council meeting at which my name was mentioned was grossly misleading.

I feel it would do no harm to enlighten Mr. R. Keane on the "whos and whats" of last week's debate on the water and the "follow with the Oxford accent".

I did not volunteer to do anything for the Town Clerk but during my recent visit to Dungarvan with the above company the Town Hall caretaker, Mr. James Veale, came to the Friary Hall and asked me to go and see the Town Clerk. Mr. Deery explained to me that the water mains had burst and the town would have to be notified at once, so they had to borrow the Company's amplifier. As no other was available I lent the Company's amplification, free of charge, let me add.

At three o'clock I was contacted again, this time with a request that I should do the actual announcing and though it inconvenienced me somewhat I agreed. A typed notice was given to me which I broadcast round the town for two and three-quarters of an hour.

I have not been to Oxford or Cambridge either for that matter but in my profession clarity of speech is more than desirable, it is essential. Amateur politicians might get by with confused gibbering and the guttural tones of their native parishes but not actors.

Mr. Keane's statement that people thought it was the Play and paid no attention, is ridiculous as it was in no small measure due to our announcements each day we had such bumper houses.

In future, should the occasion arise, public announcements perhaps could be made in the "patios" of the locale in which such announcements are being made—Yours truly,

C.B.S.I. (St Joseph's, Abbeyside)

Troop Meeting—Saturday night's Troop meeting proved to be a success, from one point of view at any rate as we had a very good attendance. Fall in went at 8 p.m. and nearly every patrol was able to report all present except the P.L. We hadn't to wait long for these, however, as all four arrived a few minutes later. A sing-song item was first on the band and every body had a go at the new song. A little practice every week and soon we will have it perfect. During patrol corners tests were looked up and each P.L. received a new cover in which to keep the Challenge Game—Due to the very wet weather which prevailed, there was a small attendance at the Gaelic Sportsfield Lismore on Sunday last. Now on resuming play for the challenge game between Abbeyside and Tourin selected in aid of the George McGrath Accident Fund.

During the first half of the game Tourin were very much in the picture, and were winning at half-time but Abbeyside were determined that Tourin should not gain the honours in this challenge game so they fought every inch of the ground.

On resuming play for the second moiety Abbeyside went all out for victory and when the final whistle sounded they were winners with a 3 goals margin.

Due to the inclement weather and to the many other counter attractions the cell which was to have been held in the Town Hall, Lismore, in aid of the same very worthy cause was postponed to a later date.
