ROOFLESS HOVELS THAT DISFIGURE APPEARANCE OF

CAPPOQUIN To the Editor Dungaryan Leader Dear Sii -For nearly two years now the people of Cappoquin and of Barrack Street in particular have gazed upon a long line of roofless and weather-beaten hovels which are a constant reminder of the indifference of our Local Authorities to the interests of small towns in County Waterford. No elected, representative body exists locally and the townspeople have a right to expect the County Council to remove this 'bombed site' which so shamefullly disfigures the appearance of the town Statutory powers are in exist-ence for the compulsory requisitioning of derelict property and there is no excuse for tardmess Thousands of pounds are spent annually on the public highways in the county, and money would surely be well spent on removing these hovels and making this thoroughfare. along which thousands of tourists and visitors pass to

to every passer-by and the time has come for the Local Authority responsible, to the ratepayers of the town, to take prompt effective action.—Yours

spirit is abroad in the Brideside town, shop windows are aglow with fairy lights and coloured paper decorations, sparkling tinsel and shining bewied holly, and last but by no means least their usual merchandise, but now dressed up in gaily lined wrappings and ribbons. Everyone is nice to everyone else as beits the season of peace on earth to men of goodwill. However, in the midst of all this gaiety and lavish spending that precedes Christmas, there are some to whom the coming of Christmas brings only a heartache. Those are the children of poor parents who cannot afford the luxury of buying toys and other dainties associated with the festive season. Who has not felt a pang of distress on pass. Our Divine Lord in the Sacrafelt a pang of distress on passing a gaily lit toy store and seeing a crowd of these ill-clad little waifs clustered about its windows admiring its contents, but for them it is only wishful thinking. What greater gift could we give them this Christmas than some present to brighten the have during the past week. some present to brighten the have during the past week, lives of those little ones. Recently up to a thousand Co. Waterford farmers—all mem-bers of the National Farmers' Association—rallied to 4 centres Association—rained to 4 centres in the county to hear Mr Sean Fitzmaurice, National Organiser, give an account of the working of the Association since its formation on January 6th last The meetings were held at Lismore, Tungaryon Wilmosthomas and Dungarvan Klimacthomas and Waterford

The decision to have the meet ings at 4 centres was made by the Waterford Co Executive as they felt that it would be most they felt that it would be most unfair to other counties to hold Mr. Fitzmaurice here in Waterford for up to a month visiting the 27 branches of the Association which are established in the county. The rather novel idea of collecting the members of the 27 branches to 4 centres proved very successful and all 4 meetings were unanimous that in meetings were unanimous that in the short time the NF.A was in being trojan work had been done by all concerned Mr Fitzmaurice in outlining the work of the Association, ex-plained the framework that is
