CONGRATULATIONS I called in at the Town Hall Dungarvan last Sunday evening where the Committee of Feis na nDeise held a children's ceill at which prizes ton by dancers at last years Fels were presented Among the prizes were a number of delightful statuettes which immediately caught my eye They were of Irish dancers in costumes suitably mounted and were really striking
I understand that the design for the statuettes was executed by Mr Liam Comerford Secre tary of Connra Na Gaeilge and of the Feis Committee and were manufactured by a Dublin firm All concerned are to be congra tulated on a very excellent job

- And - natural life of Sanctifying Grace in addition to all other activities of mind and body We know from experience how sometimes a child is adopted taken into a home made one of the family treated as a son or daughter and even given a right to inherit all that belongs to those who have thus bestowed their love Now God has done this for each of us in BAPTISM by admitting us into the family of the Blessed Trinity Our sonship in the family of the Blessed Trinity raises us even higher becaus God makes us in a true and wonderful way children "by blood" For Sanctifying Grace is a positive spiritual reality in-fused into the soul of each of us at Baptism by which we are made to share the divine life

> we see the difference between our position as adoptd sons of God and the sonship of those who are adopted by human law This human adoption may be an act of wonderful love and condescension and it may bring many blessings with it, but the adopted son remains of different blood with the physical charac-teristics which the child inherited from its real parents. It is their blood that flows in its veins, their features that are copied in its face and form

But with us as sons of God, it is different. By Sanctifying Grace the very life of God is imparted unto us, we are grafted on to God, we have been "born again" we are a "new creature" we have been "born of God. This is what God did for each one of us, when He gave us at Baptism the gift of the Supernatural Life of Sanctifying Grace
