THE BEST IS ALL
The best is all that any of us can make of our lives and each of us must learn to be content with that This thought struck Man Is An Island' by the fantous Trappist Monk Thomas Merton one passage of which

One who is content with what he has and who accepts the fact that he inevitably misses very much in life is far better off than one who has much more but who worries about all he may be missing For we cannot make the beof what we are if our hearts are always divided between what we are and what we are not How true indeed

A WINNING COMBINATION AGAIN

Mr Peenie O'Donnell Dungar van riding Mr M Kiely's Sgea Shee came back into the news as a winning jockey-horse combination at Mallow Races on Easter Monday when they won the Banteer Handicap Hurdle the first race on the card The odds returned were 3/1 but some lucky punters got as much as 5/1 to make the outing a pro fitable one It will be remembered that some time ago Peenie received serious head injuries when he was thrown while riding in a ers are glad to see him not alone back in the saddle again but also catching the judge's eye

THE MEN OF DUBLIN TOWN

Our last meeting which was on Thursday fortnight started at 8 o clock immediately after in Devotions Even though the weather was bad all the girls seemed to be in high spirits We had no meeting on Holy Thurs in the ceremonies We had a competition in "Twenty Questions" The winner was given Easter Eggs It was rather awk ward as most of the girls were line to expect that the products many of them the future, would be full Christians And it they would not be full christians and it they would not be full christians they certainly would not be full christians they certainly would not be full christians they certainly would not be full them they weak when one of that gallant team which had the products week when one of that gallant team which had the product week when one of that gallant team which had the products of five County Champion-ships to its name in the far off days passed to his eternal re ward A veteran who in his latter years of life took a deep interest in the doings of present day teams in the GAA arená was the late Mr Patrick Quinfended in the fulness of had no meeting on Holy Thurs day on account of the changes further ceremonies. We had a competition in "Twenty Questions" The winner was given Easter Eggs. It was rather awk ward as most of the girls were not eating sweets in Lent. So for fear that the temptation would be too strong, they kept the competition up until it was time to go home. Then that misfortunate "creature' had opportunity of explaining the someone else helped themselves. The "Twenty Questions" were a scream. Some of the girls want ed to know if the Scouts would have "Two Lovely Black Eyes" at the Jumble Sale. Others wanted to know if they could eat the fire-time to go that was all right.

In the ceremonies We had a competition in "Twenty Questions" were a scream. Some of the girls want ed to know if the Scouts would have introduced and that was all right.

In the ceremonies We had a competition in study circles and discussion groups. (Fourth in the Series)—

AN EARLY PRIMROSE

Deep in a green valley Beside the clear brook,

I saw a pale primrose Peep from its soft nook buds grew beside it It blossomed alone An early spring floweret The sweetest e'er known

Though hedges were sprinkled With no soft green hue skies were stil Though clouded And winter winds blew Contented it blossomed Mong dead grasses there The gloomy scene round it But made it more fair

And Oh! what sweet gladnes: That flower brought to me It whispered that Springtime Was coming with glee It told of green meadows And glad golden hours Of skies of deep azure Of sunshine and flowers

As the Spring Queen gives To the sweet Summertide Sweet flowers shall blossom And deck the wayside Though countless their hum-

And more gaily dressed Still the pale pensive primrise
I always love best

ADVICE

Don t eat or drink before going to bed You could take a light fruit drink or maybe the best thing nature can provide a glass of Adam's Ale" Water in other words Try to get to bed before eleven o clock half-past is pretty good make sure you don't sleep with too many or too few bed-clothes Let the body breath and leave fresh air circulate through the room, either during the day or night Don't lie in bed longer than necessary but as soon as For those who are inclined to get a little disheartened from time to time here's a proverb they could do well to remember.
