WATERFORDMEN'S ASSOCIATION IN LONDON

Waterfordmen's Association in London Claims have been made that the elections at the Association s Annual General Meet- able weather on both occasions ing held a couple of months ago have been ultra vires the Association's constitution. It has been further claimed that as a result of these elections that County representation on the Association's executive Committee is so small as to be almost negligible. It is further held that city men so dominate the new committee that county in- ing and other reports that conterests have little or no hope of being approved In the absence of any proofs to In the absence of any proofs to the contrary I must accept this disposal gives us all the imporas being the present position tant stuff up-to-date with no It is unfortunate that such a situation should have arisen as know that the Association since its foundation has proved of certain benefit to County Waterford emigrants to London I hope that something can up in the Association

I had a call from Maurice Cummins home from London who gave me a full account at the Association could be better promise to keep up the good ser-utilised than just organising vice in the future costly socials and dinners that dig deep into its treasury told me that heretotore members of the Association always helped newly arrived emigrants from the County and the City in the way of getting suitable more useful than two smaller ones which will naturally vie with one another as time goes on I hope therefore that wiser Counsels will prevail and that an extraordinary general meeting will be called at which agreement might be reached on a fair representation as between a fair representation as between County and City on the executive Committee In this way it might be possible to save the Association before it is wrecked on the rocks of discord and dis- O Hanlon and Sean South who tected. unity

A'SAVING' RECIPE

A fire in the kitchen and the savoury odours of cooking to greet you That's the place to come home to on a cold winter's night Plain bread and tea are a cold welcome Give them something that smells as good as it tastes and in their memory there's a halo round your head forever Let cheese be your standby it's cheap It's tasty It pays big returns in good health

slices of bread, spread with a little mustard and cut into quarters Arrange alternate layers of bread and grated cheese in a greased fireproof dish, the last layer of all being cheese. A quarter pound goes far when grated Pour over an egg or two beaten with half pint of milk and seasoned with pepper and salt Soak for an hour Bake in moderate oven for about 30 minutes till set and golden brown
