MUNSTER HURLING Dynamic Display Takes Crown

WATERFORD 1--11: CORK 1--6

Wherever and whenever great games in the annals of hurling are discussed, Waterford men and women will recall with pride the dynamic display of our senior Hurling XV who, after an hour of power hurling at a wonderful pace, vanquished Cork at Thurles on Sunday last to take their third Munster hurling crown and the first since 1948.

The Deise men left no doubt as to their fitness to hold the coveted Munster trophy for 1957, and Phil Grimes and every one of his team, without exception, are indeed champions of the first water

It is nine years since faithful followers of the Waterford team, and they were there in record numbers, had so much reason to cheer themselves hoarse about as they had at Thurles on Sunday, and they are to be admired for the wonderful vocal support they accorded the heroes of the day. They made the trek to provincial headquarters with confidence, but with a healthy respect for the Corkmen-and came home happy after seeing one of the finest displays ever given by a Waterford hurling team.

Cork came back and Terry Kelly reduced the margin in the 22nd minute and 4 minutes from the interval Goulding made it level pegging. However Waterford again took the advantage when Seamus Power was placed with no one but goalie Cashman to beat and but goalie Cashman to beat and from a position that should easily have brought a goal he palmed the ball over the bal to leave the half-time tally Waterford 0-3 Cork 0-2

On resuming many Waterford followers felt butterflies in their stomachs as Cork put on the pressure and Waterford visibly Within three minutes O Regan had the equaliser for Cork and two minutes later Cork took the lead for the first time with a point by Christy O Shea from a free It was nip and tuck then as 'Duck Whelan drove over to again level the issue but faster than it takes to say Jack Robinson Daly had Cork followers on their toes again when he raised an-other white flag for the Lee-siders However the Deise men were not rattled and continued playing steadily Phil Grimes
