WATERFORD ARE OUTSIDERS BUT QUIETLY CONFIDENT

News of the Town "We Can Oust The Men From The Nore" - D. Guid

Sunday's Final Should Be Epic Game

" What are our chances of winning on Sunday" That is the question which has been discussed over and over again at John every gathering place throughout the County during the past week.

The true answer will be given at Croke Park on Sunday evening and then, and only then, will we know whether the McCarthy Cup will rest by the Noreside or Sunside for 1957 At best any forecast now can only be a conjecture, for in Waterford and Kilkenny we have two good evenly matched teams, who play the same kind of game. The outcome then will depend to a great extent as to which side luck and the run of the ball favours

We can be confident however that if the Waterford team plays according to instructions and gets a fair share of the lucky breaks, the scoreboard should layour us when the final whistle calls an end to the

Tallow Anglers Association Annual Masked Ball—As will be seen by an advertisement in this issue Tallow Anglers Association will hold their Annual Masked Ball and Fancy Dress Parade on Sunday, 19th Jan 1958, and not on Jan 5th as on former years Music for the Masked Ball will be by the Brideside Serenaders Orchestra

The Big Qay,—The big day is

The Big Oay.—The big day is near at hand for our Deise hurlers and the whole county is keyed up to fever pitch in ex-pectation of what the outcome will be when the long whistle

sounds on Sunday
In this part of the county there seems to be no doubt but that Waterford will be the winners It seems as if everybody

The day tests that they made Such any tests that they made Such any tests that they made Such any instrument is not very dear and can be recommended to all branches of the NFA

Cut Me A Hurl"-'Cut me a hurl said the sturdy youth His limbs were straight and strong,

I liked his eyes of budding truth, Alight to right some wrong My mates play other games said he,

I saw his proud lip curl,
I li play the game my granddad played
Cut me a hurl.

Cut me a hurl said the winsome lass Her brown eyes smiled at me, For I can take a camog pass, Too fast for you to see I hold my left hand down like

I strike without a turn I love to hit a flying ball Cut me a hurl

Tut me a huddle said the lisping boy, As he climbed a weary knee My chain and medals were his
