order of the fashions will be declared the prizewinner
All this should make for a very exciting night and although fashions are primarily for the ladies the gents should be interested in that £5 prize—I have noticed quite a few male winners in recent fashion contests Besides all that a wonderful night s dancing is assured and as the saying goes a gay would cease if they became owners themselves
This as any man with a head for business will see is a very fair deduction. In the Urban area in Dungarvan the Council is landlord for hundreds of houses. The lents vary from 2 6 to about 22/- a week, and a remarkable thing they do not vary in ratio to the size of the house or the income of the and as the saying goes a gay rouse or the income of the time can be had by all

 -RENTS OF COUNCIL

HOUSES last month the Council agreed form of increased rents It is to look for a further loan of absolutely ridiculous to have £10 000 to continue repairs be- houses being let in Dungaryan tages This, it would seem, is only a stop-gap measure as the engineer-in-charge reported that a sum of £19 000 would be required to continue the repair programme until next March I am not sure whether this money good percentage of the cost of is mainly required for cottage maintaining and administering continue the mentil them. This would still keep repairs or to keep the men them engaged in cottage repairs in them within the capacity of the employment maybe there s a tenants to pay and is a move bit of both in it Every year the that I think should be sanction-Council has to pass a colossal ed amount of money for these cot-tage repairs and I repeat the phrases "every year and colossal amount." There seems

"colossal amount' There seems to be no end to the demand in this regard and it is time that side Pattern held on Sunday the Council got down to brass last attracted a very large tacks and examined the position crowd which lined the walls

ing dances in recent years will figure in a new role shortly when gorgeous mannequins will model the latest in Autumn and Winter styles in a grand fashion parade which has been planned by Ryan's Exhibition House Clonmel and the management of the Ballroom

The night chosen for this outstanding event is next Sunday night week, September 22nd and a most comprehensive programme has been planned for those who will attend this well-known seaside resort, on that night

The Fashion Parade is timed to start at 8 pm and will continue for two hours It is hoped to be able to provide seating accommodation in the hall The Mannequins will display the fashions on the stage in the ballroom and them walk allows a pressed platfur and why not?

SCHOLARSHIPS
Waterford County Council have awarded a number of scholarships to Secondary Schools and Universities in recent months These scholarship schemes are very laudable ones and are to be highly recommended if they achieve their aim of providing Secondary and University education for the children of parents who could not provide out of their own resources The money to pay the fees and other expenses met by these scholarships are provided from rates and it is not too much to expect that the interests of the ratepayers is looked after where this expenditure is concerned

It is disquieting then to hear complaints that scholarships have been awarded to students whose parents could very wel afford to pay their own without looking for and getting assistance from the public

Split second timing and all too suddenly they were eclipsed in blaze of glory such was the fate of Waterford in the 1957 All-Ireland Hurling Final.

Blame for defeat in the closing seconds of such an hour must rest on no one and the honours must be shared equally between those who did their part and those who tried their best ickey Mards taking advantage of the element of surprise to goal, which incidentally was the only second half score and the last score of the game During the remaining 20 minutes Ballinatoury getting the better of the tussle tried everything in their treplaces Dickie Roche in goal and I am told that O Donoghue of the subjects of prison send the subjects of prison at New Ross on Sunday next tences. The County Board Chairman who was present during last Sunday's fracas will have seen thouse serious the matter was, and I am sure that he vill deal with it capably when it comes before the Board size. A Medal For Kiely?

(To The Editor Dungarvan Leader)
Dear Sir—Waterford gave a brilliant display of hurling in the All-Ireland of 1957 But to men like John Kiely who literally played himself to a stand-still, the Waterford Co Board should at least present a gold medal Galway did it for Mick Burke, so why can t Waterford do it for John Kiely

Yours truly,
