Macra Na Feirme—All members and intending members of the newly formed branch of Macra Na Feirme are requested to attend a general meeting to be held in St. Catharine's Hall on Friday night 13th February, which will commence at 8.15 p.m. The club has been formed as a result of the merger of the County Stock-Fudging and County Stock-Fudging Clubs. The club has been successful in the County Stock-Fudging Championships, winning the championship for those aged 21 and Mr. M. O'Connell winning the championship for those under 25 years. This success has inspired those young Macra members to represent Macra Na Feirme in the International Championship later in the season. The club is holding a County Stock-Fudging Championship next week (both of them finishing well ahead of their nearest rivals). In their district, the club is well represented and Michael are almost sure to represent Ireland yet and so many are looking forward to the next Irish formed club. We wish both of these young men every best wish for success. Also worthy of our heartfelt congratulations are Miss Mary Dunne who won the ladies' question time and Mr. Sean McKeown who was second in the question time in the district. The first Annual Question Time of the club will be held in the Town Hall, Lismore on Sunday, 22nd February at 8 p.m. All members and neighbouring Macra clubs are invited to participate. It has been decided to hold a county-wide competition on the 13th and 14th of the month. The date has been decided on so watch the advertisement columns in this paper for further details. The youth of the parish are urged to attend this wonderful opportunity of winning a prize and the chance to show their own brains, debating or stock-fudging. The competition will close on Friday night.

Ballyduff Bowling Club.—Further information regarding the tournament sponsored by the above club will be in the advertisement columns in this paper for further details. The youth of the parish are urged to attend this wonderful opportunity of winning a prize and the chance to show their own brains, debating or stock-fudging. The competition will close on Friday night.

I.C.A. NOTES

Ballinacorney Guild Hold A.G.M.

The Annual General Meeting took place on the 11th Feb. before the election of officers for the year 1958-59.

After the business meeting took place for a committee to be elected to carry out the duties of the club during the year.

The committee is as follows: Mr. Flanagan, Mrs. Curry, Mrs. Hekey, Miss Lu Osborne, Mrs. Chavasse, Mrs. Fitzgerald, Miss Adde Gec, Mrs. Hogan, Mrs. Brazill, Miss Betty Scanlon, Miss Helen Cliffe, Miss Margaret Walsh, Miss L. O'Connell, Mrs. M. Hallahan, were appointed representatives to Macra na Tuath.

Mr. D. Whelan and Miss O'Donnell, from Cork, spoke on the value of the organization and urged all to do all they can to help and encourage the youngsters in their projects.

A vote of thanks to the speakers was proposed by Mrs. Condon, and seconded by Mrs. Curry.

Annual Report Mrs. V. Curry, Hon. Secretary, in the course of her annual report there have been some very good lectures, talks, demonstrations, etc., namely, a talk on the prevention of cancer, a talk on ancient monuments, dress rehearsals of the play, a talk on the Red Cross in peace time, winter flower decoration, a talk on nylon, a skating holiday, toy-making—something for everybody in fact.

Social activities were the annual dinner at Youghal which was very popular, the annual outing to Limerick and Killaloe which was an outstanding success, a winter drive and the joint social with Macra na Feirme, and last but not least, the dance.

Good works include: talking to the Cappoquin orphans to the seaside, donating money to the Oeyon disaster fund, Kilbegg fishermen disaster fund, wires for the blind, after care of polo victims, helping with the County Home party, and giving to the Waterford Friends of Mental Handicapped Children, a telephone, records, and some educational toys.

The Guild Show took place in July. This takes a lot of organization and it is hoped that there will be better support from members this year. It is for our own amusement and at the same time we can learn, and so give ourselves confidence for bigger shows. So think ahead—the more entries the better—save a lb. of your marmalade for July.

During the year Miss Margaret O'Connell and Miss Linda Walsh, have attended the garden. It is hoped they will continue their interest. Miss Adde Gec and Miss Lu Osborne, painted the gates. Margaret Cosman has been appointed an Irishman officer, which means she will give us news of An Grianain. Only two members went up for courses in the past year.

Every month there has been a raffle, thanks for which are due to our treasurer. The prizes have been excellent, and the money a help to the Guild. The Guild invested in a Frigo Box.

All I.C.A. news, Federation meetings, votes, etc., have been kept before the Guild. Several neighbouring guilds were invited to join us for certain events, and we in turn accepted invitations.

County Waterford Social Club, London

The A.G.M. of the above was held on Friday, Jan. 30th at the Grand Hotel, White Star, London. The general meeting was held in the afternoon and was attended by a large number of members.

Mr. N. Noonan, Chairman, in his annual address, the Chairman complimented all present for their untiring efforts in the past year.

It was decided to hold the annual dinner as last year, at the Park View Hotel, Youghal, on the 2nd April. Names and money to be handed in by March.

After the business meeting took place for a committee to be elected to carry out the duties of the club during the year.

The committee is as follows: Mr. Flanagan, Mrs. Curry, Mrs. Hekey, Miss Lu Osborne, Mrs. Chavasse, Mrs. Fitzgerald, Miss Adde Gec, Mrs. Hogan, Mrs. Brazill, Miss Betty Scanlon, Miss Helen Cliffe, Miss Margaret Walsh, Miss L. Imokilly News And Views

Something Must Be Done Yes, this is the cry of many enthusiasts of the Imokilly Choral Society who are perturbed at the Committee's decision to stage a play this year.

What a pity more enthusiasm should be shown by the few who bear the brunt of the decision. It is too late to do anything about it. Well going by the old norm, the business of the Choral Society should be able to do something to give the Choral Society a new lease of life.

The annual general meeting of the Choral Society was held on Friday, Jan. 30th at the Grand Hotel, White Star, London. The general meeting was held in the afternoon and was attended by a large number of members.

All I.C.A. news, Federation meetings, votes, etc., have been kept before the Guild. Several neighbouring guilds were invited to join us for certain events, and we in turn accepted invitations.

Tallow and Round About

The Late Mrs. M. J. McEvoy. We regret to record the death of Mrs. Mary J. McEvoy, who occurred last week.

She was the wife of the late David O'Keefe, Merchant, Tallow, and sister of Mr. William J. O'Keefe, Tallow. Mr. Joseph O'Keefe, Tallow, was her son and daughter, to whom as well as to the other family members, the funeral was held on Saturday.

The remains were removed to the Imokilly Road Church, Tallow, and the funeral took place on Saturday at 10.30 a.m. Mass, at 11.00 a.m. The interment took place in the family burial plot in the cemetery adjacent to the church.

There was a large and representative cortege, and the service was conducted by the Rev. Fr. W. Canon Flynn, P.P. Tallow, and Rev. Fr. M. Condon, C.C. Tallow. The Rev. Fr. W. Canon Flynn, P.P. Tallow, and Rev. Fr. M. Condon, C.C. Tallow, may their souls rest in peace.

Galweglass At The Arch. The Galweglass Cell Band supplied the music for the last week before Lent in the Arch Ballroom on Sunday night. There was a good attendance. Looking back over the last year, we find that the Proprietor of the Arch Ballroom, Mr. W. J. Fitzgerald, certainly led nothing undone to make the evening enjoyable.
