THE HOME OF GOOD GREYHOUNDS

Tipped to win the English Oaks in July is a greyhound which was bred and reared in the heart of the Ring Climb. She is Minora's Pink, one of the great Minora strain owned by Joe Hartly of Gortinadaha, Ring Climb.

A recent issue of the English Express, featuring the English Oaks, has a photograph of the greyhound which was bred and reared in the heart of the Ring Climb. She is Minora's Pink, one of the great Minora strain owned by Joe Hartly of Gortinadaha, Ring Climb.

PERFECT RECEPTION

During a recent visit to the County Home, Dungarvan, it was pleased to learn that the public address system over which there was a breakdown at the fall of last year has now been fully installed and overhauled to the complete satisfaction of inmates and staff. Excellent radio reception coupled with an efficient public address system means that Mass and other devotions as well as the bed-tidden inmates in the various wards helps a great deal to brighten the lives of all.

DANGEROUS SPORT

The tragedy on the road at the sweepstakes at Dungarvan last Sunday week, again focuses attention on the great danger of racing and driving sports. A young man in the prime of life was violently hurled to his death by the horror of the big number of spectators who saw his car crash and saw the car and driver dash up the sweep. It can be but poor consolation to offer sympathy to the widow and four children in the loss they have sustained in such tragic circumstances.

CHAMPION FROM BALLINACOURTY

At the close of the last century in 1891 to be exact, Michael Hogan was born at Ballinacourty, Dungarvan. In his boyhood he became well-known as a boxer and won only fifteen years old he joined the emigrant ship at Cobh for New York. After a couple of years he returned to a boxing career during which he fought and won several titles. After an accidental fall which occurred at St. John's Hospital, Ring Climb, he returned to his native Ballinacourty.

PROT OF THE COMRAGHS

Richard Sheelton (Bob Weiden) was born on the southern slopes of the Comrags in the decade preceding the famine and died there two years before his rising. He is affectionately remembered in the Donegall today. He was a prominent member of the Ballinacourty and Abbeystown G.A.A. Clubs, Tom and Patrick Hogan, both of whom were members of the Comrags. He was a boxer and a champion, and his name is well-known in the history of the Comrags.

Yes, would to God I were among the roses. That lean to kiss you as you float between. What on the lowest branch had uncles. A bud uncles to touch you, Queen.

Nay, since you will not love, a happy daisy in the garden path. That on your silver foot might press me going. Might press me going even unto death!

PUBLIC MEETING TOLD OF PLANS TO EXPAND COMHALTAS ACTIVITIES

Aims At Putting Irish Music In Proper Place

A public meeting of the Dungarvan Branch of Comhaltas Gaelic held in the Ballinacourty Club on last Friday night was told of the plans for the future expansion of the activities of the Comhaltas in County Waterford.

FROM CHICAGO

Chicago is sending a concert group of traditional Irish musicians, singers, dancers and comedians to tour Ireland from 25th June to 27th July, who will perform in twenty-one different towns. All of the artists are well-known in Chicago and are looking forward to visiting the land of their forefathers for the first time. They have been rehearsing since Christmas and approximately thirty others from Chicago, who are entirely amateur and none of the artists will be paid any money in accordance with the rules of the Comhaltas Centennial Festival which is sponsoring the trip.

PROGRESS IN WATERFORD

Mr. Humphrey Kelleher, member of the Dungarvan Branch, then dealt with the objects and administrative make-up of the Comhaltas. The pasting years have revealed the vigor of the Comhaltas, said Mr. Kelleher. It is directed to its cause men and women from every walk of life. Its meeting places are rallying centres throughout the world for our scattered exiles in the big cities of England, Wales, and Scotland. In far away Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and New York. David Tobin, of Clonmel, stated that he was a member of the R.A.C. and had been attending the Hill Climb. He was at the second bend on the course and saw a tractor No. 10 coming round on the right-hand side of the road. It had a very high load on the back and the tractor was being driven by a man who was not wearing a seat belt. The tractor was thrown into the air and fell on the road ahead of the car.
