LICENSES HOURS

Sharp criticisms of the new licensing hours, now in force since July 1, continue to be heard, particularly in regard to the time allotted for Sunday trading. Generally the 11.30 p.m. closing on week-days is considered satisfactory, but even here there should be a little more latitude given. Instances of pubicans having to have their customers out on the street by 11.30 minutes "grace" time in which to finish their drinks.

MACKEREL BY THE HUNDRED

I was out on Helvick Pier last Sunday afternoon in anticipation of a big mackerel haul. The sea was calm and the mackerel were plentiful. I was disappointed, however, to find that the haul was only 900 mackerel in four hours. I suggested that this might be a result of the weather, but the fisherman said that with them and the bad weather we have been having the mackerel trade of the country was being destroyed.

A GOLDEN STEERING WHEEL

I am sure to give a great deal of satisfaction to Mr. J. D. Hally, Waterford County Engineer, to have made some sound observations on the position and suggested that the Sunday opening hours should be extended to 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. on Sunday afternoons was semi-announced to the public.

UNUSUALLY DUMPIO

What a fine day! The sun is shining brightly and the temperature is just what we need. The children are playing happily in the park and the old people are sitting on the benches, enjoying the view. It is a wonderful day and we should all be grateful for it.

FOUGHT HARD

Members of the Council who constitute the Lismore sub-committee of the County Committee of Industry and Commerce and the local clergy in Lismore had fought hard to obtain the factory for Lismore as a measure to offset the great unemployment problem in the town and district.

COUNCIL'S HUGE DEBT

Mr. J. G. Dowling, Secretary, informed the members that the capital debt of the County is £1,232,000. Provision for over-extended accommodation of £275,000 for the quarter ending 31st December was approved.

AUGUSTINIAN PILGRIMAGE TO KNOCK

The Augustinian Order in Ireland will be running a Regional Pilgrimage to Our Lady's Shrine at Knock on the 11th September. Trains from the various Augustinian Priories throughout the country will converge at Our Lady's Shrine. It will be in fact, Augustinian Day at Knock. The devotion will be conducted by the Augustinian Fathers.

Chipboard Factory

Behind Scenes Efforts Beat Us

Says County Councillor

A Most Scandalous Decision To Send It To Waterford

MEMBERS OF Waterford County Council from the Lismore area strongly criticised the decision which sends the Chipboard factory which Lismore hoped to obtain to Waterford at their quarterly meeting in Dungarvan last Monday.

The announcement by the directors of the new factory which will give employment to 300 men and women and which will be ready for production by the end of 1961, was understood to be a most scandalous decision. The directors of the factory are Col. J. E. D. Slonek, Chairman, Lord Waterford, Mr. W. Power of Powers, Major R. C. Cunningham, Mr. J. B. Brennan, Clover Meats, Capt. T. V. O'Brien, and Mr. J. Duggan, Stockbrokers, Dublin.

Mr. Walsh's Reply

Mr. Walsh, County Engineer, said that he would like to reply to a letter published in a Waterford paper last week. He said that the County Engineer's Department was not in a position to view the proposed extension in a broader perspective.

JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIPS

Fourmilewater Never Extended in Beating Ring

Colligan Fought Hard To Overcome A Determined Kilmogin Fifteen

Fourmilewater	11-7
Naomh Niolas	3-2
Colligan Rocks	4-10
Kilmogin	1-7

Of the two junior hurling championship games played at the Fraher field on Sunday last the latter between Colligan Rocks and Kilmogin, probably the better far. Hard knocks were given and taken in a sustainable manner, but on more than one occasion there were blows struck that were not accidental and warnings by the referee made no impression on some of the players.

Colligan the better team had some soft scores while their opponents had two easy chances in front of goal. Colligan won and deservedly so, their first time pulling and wing play besides their all round work was the telling blow and had the issue secured twenty minutes from time.

The score indicates alone, the over-whelming defeat Ring suffered at the hands of a rampant Fourmilewater side. Much heavier than their younger opponents they had ramped and literally way but rather than relax on their lead coming near the time, they went rampant and literally tore the Ring defence to shreds in their quest for more scores.

Worked Hard

For the first quarter Ring tried might and main for goals when points were there for the taking. They could not penetrate the Fourmilewater defence where Mick Connolly lorded supreme over all others. His fine positional play and raking clearances were heart-breaking to Ring. He completely outplayed Bobby O'Connell, Sylvester Murray who switched on to the mark in the second half. Sean Healy at full-back, Butler, who made some very plenty of cover to his custodian. Butler, who made some very plenty of cover when Ring made an all-out try on the resumption.

Ryan's Great Game

Fourmilewater were beaten at mid-field in the final, but when Kieran Ryan reverted to this sector they took complete command. He used his feet to the ball to his forwards who used them to advantage. He up set the Ring partnership, Barry and Hart, and struck up a combination with opportunity. Barry, who laid the foundation to many of their scores.

Sean Whelan and Billy Grant, who were the best of the Ring forwards but their colleges all had a hand in the scoring.

Ring's Best

The half-time of the Ring defence came out with colours flying and used not shoulder the blame for their sides' defeat. The Hartys, Barry and Whelan, Keane did all that was asked of them, but too much pressure was put on them in the last quarter sapped their taste for the game.

Walsh was the best of a poor bunch, but his goal-keeping no chance. Of the forwards Pat Murray and Tommy McGee were best.

Scorers for Fourmilewater were E. Hewitt (2-0), A. Barron (2-2), J. Healy (2-0), D. O'Connell (2-1), K. Ryan (1-1), B. Grant (0-2), Ring's scores came from B. Curran (1-1), E. Curran (1-0), P. Murray (1-0), P. Hart (0-1).

Fourmilewater - P. Butler, C. Grant, S. Healy, P. Ryan, M. Walsh, M. Connolly, J. Aherne, S. Whelan, J. Hewitt, A. Barron, B. Grant, B. Healy, P. Whelan, K. Ryan, E. Hewitt.

Ring - E. Walsh, T. White, J. Walsh, L. Regan, M. Keane, T. J. Hart, J. Hart, S. Murray, P. Hart, T. McGrath, B. Curran, P. Murray, R. Curran, S. Curran, N. Graves.

Rough Passages

Colligan/Rocks were first to break away and T. Tobin had the green flag flying at a minute's play. Kilmogin fought back but Mickey Walsh repelled a good move by McCarthy. D. Tobin added a point from far out before Kilmogin repelled this from a placed ball by R. McCarthy. J. Deo reduced the arrears with a low range point. Keating added another point and from this stage play got rough but never off of control.

Two points from M. Walsh (2) and an eight yards (1) increased Colligan's total. Quinn and Tobin shot over two further points and just on the hour D. Walsh crashed the ball to the net for a major leaving Colligan in a comfortable position by 1-7 to 0-2.

All Out Effort

On the change over Kilmogin put in an all-out effort. Full-back, Mickey Power (out of the game for some minutes) played himself to standstill while his

CO. COUNCIL CAN'T HELP BRICKEY FARMERS

Flooding Problem Matter For Department

A deputation representing the Brickey Drainage Committee and consisting of farmers and landowners along the valley of the Brickey river which flows into the Atlantic Harbour were held at last Monday's meeting of Waterford County Council that the Council could not help them in solving the problem of tidal flooding which renders hundreds of acres of their land practically useless.

The deputation which had been to the County Committee of Agriculture a fortnight ago came before the Council with a strong recommendation from the Committee.

Mr. E. Curran, who acted as spokesman for the deputation, said that the road was at present being widened and when work was being done on the bridge at Kilmogin in connection with this sluice gates could be put in at a reasonable cost and this would save roughly 500 acres from tidal flooding and another 500 acres would be indirectly affected. The lands which were used for growing wheat at one time were now almost useless on account of the constant flooding.

Mr. C. Curran, Chairman, said that he had looked into the matter and he had been told that the Council had no function in what his members were recommending to the proper authority that the work suggested be done.

Mr. M. Curran, another member of the deputation submitted a statement outlining the facts and the work suggested to be done. Mr. M. Curran said that a sluice gate in the bridge was essential to eliminate the flooding.

Mr. J. D. Hally, County Engineer, said that there was no proposal in the road widening scheme to widen the bridge.

Mr. M. Harty pointed out that a previous occasion an objection was raised by farmers with regard to the widening of the bridge which asked that a sluice be also put on the other side of the bridge to ease the additional pressure of water that would occur.

Mr. E. Curran said that the sluice would not cause any extra pressure as Mr. Harty claimed. Water would be raised but would not climb up steps of stairs but find its own level all round, he said.

On the proposal of Mr. W. Dwyer, seconded by Mr. J. Fahy, Mr. M. Curran moved that the Department of Agriculture to investigate the need for a sluice at Kilmogin.

MINOR FOOTBALL

Dungarvan Advance To Divisional Final

Dungarvan	2-3
Kilrossanty	0-2

At the Gaelic field, on Sunday last, Dungarvan were never in trouble in beating a poor Kilrossanty side in the minor football championship.

Played at half-speed the game was over at half-time with Dungarvan leading 2-4 to 0-0. Dungarvan rested on their laurels on the resumption but later the ball in their opponents' half practically throughout the half-hour. Desperate shooting by their forwards lost them the same amount of scores and great re-creative work by Connors and Kavanagh kept them down to a respectable tally.

Great Performers

J. Harkin, J. Harkin and Liam Dwyer, were Dungarvan's star players. Harkin's start in the goal and his faultless play were always looking for work.

On a minor Kilrossanty side, who seemed to be a very young team, Connors and Kirwan played well in defence while R. Connors and O'Donnell were the pick of the forwards.

Dungarvan's scorers came from Harkin (2-2), Byrne (0-2), Wall (1-0), O'Donnell (0-2) from the goal.

Dungarvan J. Dunphy, J. Connors, J. Dalton, P. Curran, D. Lannon, M. Lewis, C. Curran, J. Harkin, L. Dwyer, P. Ryan, D. Curran, J. Byrne, T. Whelan, W. Curran, C. Harkin.

Senior Hurling Attraction

In a very exciting and at times puzzling game at the Gaelic field, Dungarvan, on Wednesday night of last week, the Abbeyside married men, took to their positions, but not with the Village senior teams.

The married men showed that they have lost none of the old touch of their younger days. P. Eric Brett, captain of the side, was also the star of the game, his goal coming at a crucial moment of the encounter was out of the top drawer. He was well supported by Tom Ryan, whose speed and stick work were a joy to watch, while Seamus O'Brien and Seamus Keating were always forming for the ball and used it to good advantage.

Billy Morrissey, John "Mac" McGregor, Tom Convington and Tom Seaward, all played their parts in great victory.

So subdued were the senior hurlers that none of them emerged with their reputations enhanced.

THE GREEN RIBBONED PIPES

On music and plays I would talk all the day. I have always been that way inclined. And when I was young the roll of the drum was to me like intoxicating wine.

How I envied each man who could play to a band. On a fiddle, a flute or a nic. But since or before there was none I adored.

Like the men with the Green Ribboned Pipes.

In the wild gen at night by the summer's moonlight, I would list to that weird whirling hum. And I'd longingly sigh as they'd go marching by. While my heart beat as fast as the drum.

Outside my old home as I'd sit all alone. And when far into the night, then to bed I would creep but even in sleep.

Come the call of the Green Ribboned Pipes.

Many years have passed by with their tears and happy sighs, with those dear happy moments of yore, And ambitious and dreams
