G.A.A. NOTES

NO NEED TO PANIC AFTER SUNDAY'S DISPLAY

But Selectors Have Problems To Solve

Says Commentator

AT GLISH, Ballyduff, who seemed most good enough to win a County title when they were suspended two years ago, make a return to the Junior hurling championships on Sunday next when they meet St. Declan's (Ardmore) in what promises to be an exciting first-round contest at Glish. Having listened to Mick Feeney seek permission at a Board meeting to enter a second team in the hurling championships this year, I came to the conclusion that the Board would not surely be infested with hurling talent at the moment if they're still in the happy position of having this big number to choose from they should be able to field a very good side on Sunday when they expect to win convincingly. Ardmore make no secret of the fact that their hurling is better than that of their favourite game, but we saw last year when they played St. Declan's in the first round of the championship that they were not amateurs at hurling, and it has been at full strength since the meeting at Board meeting. The fact that the hurling standards entitles them to the vote.

TUBERCULOSIS ERADICATION SCHEME

Minister To Hasten Progress

The Minister for Agriculture has reviewed the development of the Bovine Tuberculosis Eradication Scheme and has decided to make the following arrangements to hasten the progress of eradication:

As from the 1st August, Cattle in the County of Louth and the East Wicklow will become a Clearance Area with compulsory testing of all stocks in the area, the prohibition on the movement of reactors or untested cattle into the area, and the purchase by the Department of all cattle reacting to Scheme tests within the Clearance Area.

As from the 1st October, the Department will purchase in the Southern Area (County of Kerry, Limerick, Kilkenny, Tipperary and Waterford) all reactors from farmers who have earned a second rest under the existing Scheme, and the purchase of all reactors from the 1st January, 1962, onwards.
