WHAT IT COSTS I wonder how many readers spotted the news item in one of our national daily papers during the week in which it was reported that one of the Junior Ministers in the Dail stated that from the purely clerical side it would cost £25 and £40 a week to give one recipient of unemployment assistance the wages of employment. At the time he made the disclosure he was replying to a question on the Vote for Employment and Emergency Schemes when a Dail Deputy enquired about these figures as frightening, he was told that it was as well they should be disclosed.

IF YOU BELIEVE The following poem by Nick Kenny of the New York daily Mirror, September 5, will, I am sure, be appreciated by all our readers.

THE MESSAGE OF FATIMA On Wednesday night, 26th November, the usual performance of the Message of Fatima by the pupils of the Presentation Convent, Dungarvan, will take place. This is a beautiful play, in which the message of the Blessed Virgin Mary is brought to life in a most dramatic and moving manner.

CAN NOTHING BE DONE I am now writing these few lines since the Dungarvan Courthouse got its 54,000 new County Councilors have almost been continuously complaining about the unsatisfactory position of the County Council since the last meeting.

MEMBERS QUESTION PROCEDURE AT AGRICULTURAL MEETING

No Choice But To Pay Salary Increases

Several members questioned the procedure adopted following the reading of a letter from the Department on the subject of salary increases for permanent instructors at last Saturday's meeting of the Co. Waterford Committee of Agriculture in Dungarvan. They were told by the Chairman that they had no choice but to agree to the new salary scales which had been approved by Ministerial order.

THE LAST PATROL Home from his tour of duty in the Congo and the Middle East, Michael McCarthy of Ballynabuck, Dungarvan, visited the Leader Office last week seeking a week number of the Leader and a copy of the Little Chest with him.
