Midnight Mass—Midnight Mass will be celebrated in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow on Christmas Eve.

When Speltless Mary—When speltless Mary Jesus bore, Within a stable's murky gloom, When Mary came to see adire, The fruit of Mary's slutes womb.

How all mankind might gladly pray, Their homage to the Lord and King, But little knew the secret way, Fresh come to earth on angels wing.

Nor felt the dslar genius there, Nor knew the soft comparison sweet, Nor saw the heart that similes drew, The bleeding hands or mangled feet.

The Waterford County Libraries Committee passed an estimate of £13,255 for the coming year at their annual estimates meeting at Dungarvan. Mrs. C. Hayes, County Librarian, said the estimate was £1,000 larger than the figure for the previous year. There were increases in salaries of £200 and in the purchase of books of £1,000.

Mr. W. Foran proposed that the library estimates be deferred until the National Library Commission gave a favourable decision regarding the grants for the development of libraries in Co. Waterford and approved of the siting of the headquarters in Lismore.

Mrs. L. Maher, said the siting of the headquarters and the estimates were two different questions and had no relation to each other. They were dealing with the public and the people who were settled in the area. They could not carry on in the miserable premises they had in Dungarvan.

The County Librarian said that no matter what decision the Library Commission gave regarding the headquarters, the Co. Council was still free to accept or reject it. The worst case would still continue in the miserable library they had in Dungarvan.

What's Coming Over The Country At All?—Asks Clr. Lee.

Making a complaint about charges under the Winter Fuel Scheme Mr. T. Lee said at last Friday night's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council that he was in the office and saw a man of good means getting turf for 6d. while a wage of 10/- was paid to the man. "This man," said Mr. Lee, "has 2 shops and 2 houses and has the Old Age Pension and all he has to pay towards the turf is 6d. while the other man who has been working all his life and gave his sweat to the country has a double the amount of turf for 6d. and a few shillings more in his Old Age Pension."

What's coming over the country at all," he asked, and added "Is it fair or just that such a thing should be allowed?"

Mr. T. A. Kynne, T.D., Chairman said that the Council had no control over the fuel Scheme regulations which were made by the Department. He suggested that Mr. Lee might submit particulars of his complaint and the Council would then have it investigated.

Mr. P. Doyle, Town Clerk, said that the Council was not a contributory pension was required to pay 2/- for the turf. He would investigate the case referred to by Mr. Lee on receipt of particulars.
