GREAT DUNGARVAN FIGHT BACK FAILED TO CATCH STRADBALLY

Missed Penalty Robbed Them Of A Replay

Stradbally ..... 2-4
Dungarvan ..... 3-4

A great fight back by Dungarvan in the last eight minutes of this 1964 Phelan Cup game at Dungarvan on Saturday, however, was just failed to catch Stradbally by one kick of the ball, compensated for the lack of goal by the two goals of the Strad which were features of the affair.

Conditions were not perfect for the game and it was evident themselves slipping off over the plane on the wet and muddy pitch, the ball, compensated for the lack of goal by the two goals of the Strad which were features of the affair.

Dungarvan had good chances,

Ray Lannen pointed for Dungarvan in the 22nd minute and Mike Walsh listed a goal in the 27th minute and at this stage it was all even. However, Matt Farrell pointed, Matt Hayes added a goal and only three points separated the sides. Dungarvan were awarded a penalty and it seemed that this was set up for a replay. Time was up so they had to score direct; Dan Jones (Moylan) and the shot right into the goalkeeper's hands and Strad finally survived.

They were well served by Terry Eby, Terry Gurne, Pat Power and Dick Gurne. It is difficult to say who did best, while the deputy Jim O'Keeffe also did well.

Stradbally's Peter Power, P. Power, P. Walsh, T. Walsh, M. Kelly, E. Casey, P. Clancy, T. Cunningham, M. Casey, P. Mullane, J. Kiley,

BRICKEYS DEFEAT RING IN WINTER LEAGUE GAME

Brick Rangers 3-5 Ring 2-4

Brick Rangers had 3 points

Winter Football League game

which was played at the Frater Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday.

This was a game which held the crowd present. Barren of good football, the standard of play was extremely poor.

Both Brick Rangers and the other team had a number of strong players on their side.

Brick Rangers took the honours

in the first half which they dominated almost entirely with little resistance from the Gaeltacht side.

At the end of the first half

they had a lead of 3-0.

For thirteen minutes after the turnover they completely lost all opposition and were able to add two more to their total.

From the 25th minute to the end of the game the result would definitely have been different.

THE PLAY

Tony Cunningham opened

Stradbally's account with a goal after only three minutes

and John Kiley added two more in the 10th and 15th minutes.

Cunningham had a hand in a free kick and a header which Billy Barry had another in the 21st minute and two minutes

later a lobbing shot from a free kick by Tony Cunningham was picked up by Matt Hayes.

A number of Stradbally's goals

came from Tony Mountain and Dungarvan's first score in the 29th minute was graded to a hand ball and the ball went out of play.

After two minutes the ball was kicked right into the goal by Matt Hayes.

Afterwards was grabbed by

Billy Barry who sent a barrage

of short, sharp, cut-backs

and Tom Harry.

Referee Tom Ryan (Ballymena)

awarded a free kick which was completely off guard.
