It is hoped for the small shopkeepers and others on fixed incomes in the town. They must pay for all the increases while they watch their own incomes dwindling.

DEAR LAND
Consensus of all the fine poems pointing from the political situation this week the plain people of Ireland are more than normally aware of the mother land, its welfare and the well-being of its citizens.

When I behold your name
Lone land,
Your noble lakes and streams
A wealth of all your best dark
Hills,
Within my breast I feel
Your nation's heart is here.

IT'S CHEAPER at MOLONEYS

Many have criticised the washing of so much Party dirt in public but I believe that the public are keenly interested in all these moves and are entitled to be kept as fully informed as possible. It might be unfortunate that the spotlight of publicity accretes rather than sheds light on the subject of public life which were persons entering the arena may be prepared to face up to.

Mr. Curran has volunteered full statements as to his views on what occurred and it is published elsewhere in this issue. I understand that Mr. Curran has been doing his best to leave the Plana Fall Party as was completely uninvolved at the week-end. It is, however, significant that Mr. Curran has been doing his best to leave the Plana Fall Party as was completely uninvolved at the week-end.

Looking On The Bright Side

Mr. T. A. Kyne the outgoing Labour Candidate looks cheerful despite the stress of election campaigning which is at present beginning to reach its peak. He will address an eve of the poll election rally in Dungarvan next Tuesday night.

LABOUR SPEAKER WARNS WORKERS

Speaking at a Labour Party meeting in support of their candidate Mr. T. A. Kyne, former Mayor of Waterford, said that for Trade Unions the central and little discussed side in the election was the intention of both Fianna Fail and Fine Gael, in either was returned with a majority to regulate and influence wage trends and wages more and more by Government and Government Agency action, pressure and influence.

"FAHEY FOR WATERFORD"

PEOPLE OF WEST WATERFORD SHOULD PUT THEIR OWN INTERESTS FIRST. Addressing week-end meetings Mr. Curran, M.C., appealed to the people of West Waterford (South Tipperary Constituency) to support Mr. John Fahey, M.P. in the next election. Mr. Curran said that the people of West Waterford should support Mr. Fahey, who could be relied upon to work zealously for their interests.

FINE GAEL WILL REMOVE OBNOXIOUS SECTION OF THE LAND BILL

ALD. DENIS E. BURKE, CLONMEL. Mr. Burke, M.P., said that the Fine Gael Party would support the removal of the obnoxious section of the Land Bill which would have destroyed the public rights of the people of West Waterford.

DUNGARVAN TOWN HALL "A WHITE ELEPHANT" NOW

That the Dungarvan Town Hall was a "White Elephant" was stated at a meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last Friday night during a discussion on suggestions to make the hall more attractive. Mr. D. Connors, Murphy Place, Abbeystead, secretary of one of the local clubs which backs the hall for dances, said that a number of others had intended to come with him on the demolition but they thought the meeting was going to be adjourned and had left.

Our "SMALLS" Bring "BIG" Results

Mr. Fahey, who was an outstanding and dedicated public representative, had the advantage of being the only candidate who, as a member of Waterford Urban Council and Health Committee, in which capacity he had been able to give direct and immediate help and assistance to those in need of such assistance.

GOING TO THE LEFT In an attack on the Fine Gael policy we are described as going to the left because we believe we should translate into action the type of economic and social policies for the best well-off amongst us that the late Captain Hayes, who was a member of the other main party, had promised to bring to the right because the work in parliament compelled Mr. Haughey, then Minister for Justice, to withdraw and renege his sacred oath. Similar action was taken on the Land Bill and we promise to remove the obnoxious section destroying public rights when we return to office.

More Lights For Dungarvan's New Housing Scheme The prevalence of 11 extra public lights for the new housing scheme at Dungarvan 6 at Burrenraha and 3 at Chateaux was approved at last Friday night's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council.

IMPROVED BENEFITS

Mr. T. Kyne, candidate for the constituency of West Waterford, said that the Government should improve the benefits of the Social Welfare Act, especially for the non-contributing groups. Everyone agreed that Mr. Kyne's "that no matter where the money had to come from, these groups must be given benefits sufficient to meet their needs at the present time."

STATEMENT BY MR. CURRAN

Mr. Curran, Chairman of the Fine Gael Party, said that the party would support the removal of the obnoxious section of the Land Bill. He said that the party would support the removal of the obnoxious section of the Land Bill which would have destroyed the public rights of the people of West Waterford.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Unfair Ban On Record. Dear Sir: On Dungarvan I wish to express my disgust at the treatment shown by Radio Eireann to the beautiful County Waterford song "An Fhásóg Iníon Mhícheala" written by your own Mairéad Ní Ghallagáin and recorded by the Cork-born Sister Gertrude. This song which is not a religious song could have been a wonderful tourist attraction for the county if "aired" as it deserves.

Our plans are working. Don't let them mess everything up again. When you vote on April 7th you will be choosing between Fianna Fail whose plans are already working successfully with: More jobs and people better off Salaries and wages increased Farm Income up by £21 million last year An increasing population Output in agriculture and industry at record levels Exports at an all-time record, and a Fine Gael party which is all at sixes and sevens producing a patchwork document which is neither available to the general public nor acceptable to their own party.
