County Trials Provide Poor Fare At Dungarvan

Two county trials were held at Dungarvan on Sunday last where an Eastern selection played a Western selection. In Intermediate Hurling and a County Jnr. football team played a Garda selection from the Templemore Depot to enable the county selectors to pick their sides to play Clare (Intermediate) Hurling and Kerry (Jnr. Football) at Dungarvan on Sunday, April 25th.

The games held little or no appeal for the ordinary individual and only a small gathering was present to watch contests which were played to very lame terms by the players.

The East v. West hurling encounter proved to be a lifeless affair which the East won by 3-2 to 1-6 after leading 1-5 to 2-0 at the interval. The hurling was poor and boring and there was very little enthusiasm displayed by the players on either side.

At the point of view came from a local point of view was centred on the displays of the Western players who performed admirably.

A Power, the senior county goalman, was asked to line out between the posts but he seemed to show little relish for the affair and who could blame him. The selectors must know full well that the Power's abilities are and could have used last Sunday's encounter to try out one or two other goalies from Western.

The other prominent Western players engaged were Mick Connolly, Fournaghwater, who filled the full-back berth; Billy Tuohy, Kiltegan; Paddy Corcoran (Shamrocks); Michael Caples (Ballyduff); and Ollie Wilkinson (Tourtin), all of whom played at centrefield. Mr. John Fahy, who eventually won the second F.F. seat here, was the best man of the thirty, with Ollie Wilkinson a close second, hit top form and both their displays should ensure their selection for the county.

Kieran O'Reilly (Fournaghwater) and Johnny O'Gorman (Ballyduff) both gave good displays at centrefield, while Ger Coughlan, Paddy Power and Dave Barry (Ballyduff) were the most prominent forwards on view. Paddy Kennedy (Carleton) and Col. Banbury (Colgan) failed to hit anything like their true form in attack and were disappointing. Michael Carleton (Ardmore), who was brought on in the second half, gave a good performance and added a touch of fire to the side.

Garda Selection — 1-11

The Garda selection from the Templemore Depots, Tallow, gave a lesson in football to the Waterford side who were short some of the prominent players who were on the select list.

Leading 1-6 to 0-3 at half-time, the Garda were never in trouble, and even though they were playing against the strong home side, they continued to enjoy a clear superiority and were in no way flattered by their whining margin as they had two goals disallowed on appeals. While these scores were really "illegal" is debatable, it is a championship match which would have caused a certain amount of controversy.

Those to blame on the Waterford side were J. Collett (Ardmore), G. Moore (Kilkenny), B. Hallahan (Ardmore) and M. Mooney (Ardmore) in defense. John C. Carleton (Ardmore) and Jim Loneragan (Kilkenny) and Jim Regan (Kilkenny), B. Hallahan (Ardmore) and Jim Rooney (Ardmore) were the most prominent in attack.

Glen Rovers Win
Cappoquin Tournament

Glen Rovers 4-5; Blackrock 3-5

Glen Rovers (Cork) had the distinction of winning the first team to win the Cup against Senior Hurling Trophy presented by Arthur Guinness Son & Co. to the Cappoquin Club and a set of gold medals when they defeated Blackrock in the final of the tournament at Cappoquin Gaelic field on Sunday last.

The contest produced some good games of hurling in spite of the very inclement weather conditions which prevailed and over the hour Glen Rovers again deserved the honors.

Having led 2-1 to 1-1 at the interval they increased their lead to nine points going into the last quarter.

There came a great rally from Blackrock which saw the large crowd on their toes during the final fifteen minutes, when they whitewashed the winners lead to three points but just failed to win the equalizer.

There were some incidents of violence as tempers became frayed and on the whole decent sportsmanship was completely absent from these incidents.

Glen Rovers had one inescapable edge at midfield and in attack, and their defense was seldom in trouble except for the forward.

J. O'Sullivan and M. McCarthy were the pick of the defence while F. O'Neill had a great game in goal, and J. Daly, M. O'Callaghan and Patsy Marie were the most impressive of their forwards. D. Coughlin and John Kennedy held sway all through at midfield and in attack, and their defense was seldom beaten for possession.

Jimmy Brohan, P. Boyd and Mick Cashman were the pick of the Blackrock defense, while John Bennett, J. Redmond and F. O'Mahony were the best of the forwards.

THE "LONG COUNT" ELECTION

New Faces Will Represent Waterford

There is no doubt but the General Election is to elect deputies to the 18th Dail. Dáil Éireann will now be always referred to as the "long count election". Disraeli's dictum that "least affected the country" at least two constituencies, while threats have been made to test at least two other constituencies.
