Armore and District Notes

Tourists surprisingly enough with the weather anything but favourable several caravans and camps were occupied at the various caravan sites adjacent to Ardmore last week-end and during the week.

No doubt Ardmore has a lot to offer the tourist several fine sheltered sites and moorland ruins, the most scenic of a Round Tower to the south in Ireland several Holy Wells, Ogham Stones and the well-preserved remains of a monastery.

Several good sheepsellers are to be seen at the Ballyvaughan fair on Sunday next and some of the sheep are of a high standard.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage took place at the Church of Our Lady St. John's Wood, London, on Monday (14th) of James P. Sheehan, eldest son of Daniel and Mrs. Sheehan, Castleblair, Co. Cork, to Joan, daughter of David and Mrs. Murray Ballintaylor, Dungarvan.

The bride, who was given away by her cousin, Mr. Gus Browne, looked charming in a full-length gown of white French embroidered tulle with full-length veil and hair to match and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations and mimosas.

The bridesmaids were Miss Murray, eldest of the bride's sisters, and Miss Mary Sheehan, her only sister, both of whom were given away by their cousin, Mr. Gus Browne.

Tallow and Round About Notes

Sergeant Transferred—Sergeant Curley, Ballyduff Garda Station has been transferred to Youghal as Sergeant-in-charge. A native of Cork City, he has been stationed at Ballyduff for twelve months. He was also stationed at Adolph Quay Garda Station, Waterford for five years. Since his advent to the village he has been a very popular peace officer and he carries with him the best wishes of all in his new sphere of duty.

each week, not on Friday night as heretofore. We would appeal for support for the cells. We feel sure that the people of the United Parishes should support this effort. There may be more glamorous attractions somewhere else, but these little get-togethers in your local hall help to develop community spirit and besides are for a very worthy object, so please give them support. The happy Wanderers' Club Band, Lismore supply the music.

On the 15th of the month of May, 1966, the names of the winners of the Phelan Cup were announced. The winners were John Mitchels and his team.

CHANGES

John Mitchels showed two changes when they lined out at the interval. The changes were made in the second half of the game.

COUNCIL'S MOVE IN THREATENED E.S.B. STRIKE

Waterford Co. Council at their quarterly meeting in Dungarvan last Monday agreed to refer to the E.S.B. employees the Archbishop of Dublin and the Minister for Industry and Commerce to use their good offices to bring both sides to the threatened E.S.B. strike together and to iron out their differences.

FORWARDS FAILED THEM

The St. Declan's boys got the better of the exchanges in the first half and were ahead by the narrowest of margins at the interval.

FORWARDS FAILED THEM

The St. Declan's boys were free to break this time and eventually John Joe Carleton and Brian McManus gained control and scored a goal per John Leahy.

KATHLEEN MADE ME FEEL ASHAMED!

Caught me red-handed. Sheer carelessness of course. I should know that Irish quality goods send the money further. Help keep my two big boys in their jobs, too.

When you're shopping in a hurry it's so easy to pick up the nearest thing to hand. But I found that can be a mistake from any point of view. When you buy IRISH QUALITY GOODS you're getting products that are exported all over the world. And it stands to reason they are not bought abroad because they're Irish—but because they're good! It also stands to reason that they will be better value here at home than the imported product.
