PENSMAN takes you Behind the Spotlight

FOR BETTER OR FOR WORSE
The proud boast of Bord Fáilte Éireann is its annual report for the year ended March 31, 1965. This report is the most comprehensive and most valuable report that any other country has ever published. It is a document of immense value to the tourist industry and to the public in general. It is a document which should be read by every citizen of this country who is interested in the development of the tourist industry and in the welfare of the country as a whole.

THE PRIEST'S OF FATHER JOHN

Thanks to the help of an anonymous contributor who went to considerable trouble in transcribing them, I have received the words of the above and also "Well All Be Rained, Says Hanrahan" as requested a year or two ago. Thanks also to Miss Carmel Stokes, "Stella Maris" Greystones, who sent me the words of "Hanrahan" too.

COUNCIL'S FINANCIAL POSITION HAS WORSENE

Cottage Repair Scheme In Jeopardy
Enough money now only remained to keep the Council's cottage repair programme going until the end of the present month, Mr. J. D. Hally, County Engineer, told members of the Dungarvan County Council at their quarterly meeting in Dungarvan last Monday when the question was taken up on the Council's financial position.

COUNTY COUNCIL DRIVERS GET SAFETY AWARDS

Remarkable Record Praised
An appeal to the drivers of Waterford County Council to continue the wonderful example they were giving and which has earned so much praise on the part of the public was made by Rev. P. Kennedy, S.J., President of the County Council Drivers' Association at a dinner given by the Road Safety Committee of the County Council at the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Dungarvan.

The first annual general meeting of the above was held on the 22nd of October in the Hotel, Westland Dublin. The good attendance of members from all parts of the county and City following Executive Committee were elected:

THE MORESBY

More interesting details about this ill-fated vessel, from Ferny comes a note from Tom Walsh, formerly of the Quay, Dungarvan, giving the Moresby's specifications as he got them from an old crew member, Capt. Whitehaven, Cumberland, 1892. Iron ship 1,250 gross tons. Overall length 222 feet. Beam 36.1 feet. Draft 21.2 feet. Single top galvanized sails and royals.

NEW NURSING POST AT ARDKEEN HOSPITAL

The members of the Waterford Health Authority at their meeting in Waterford on Friday last, on the proposition of Councillor P. Cahill, seconded by Councillor M. Morrissey, decided to create an office of Night Superintendent at Ardkeen General Hospital, Waterford.

DUNGARVAN BRIDGE CLUB

The Dungarvan Bridge Club, Clonmel, are holding an "At Home" on Sunday next, 7 pm, at the Ormond Hotel, Clonmel. Would pairs wishing to go, please give their names to the Hon. Secretary.

DECISION ON TAKE OVER BID FOR COUNCIL QUARRIES ADJOURNED

A Matter Of Great Importance - Says Chairman
Waterford County Council decided to adjourn until their next meeting the decision on a report from the County Engineer placed before them at last Monday's quarterly meeting in Dungarvan, recommending the acceptance of an offer to take over some of the Council's main quarries made by Roadstone Ltd., Dublin.

AL APPEAL

Annual dinner welcomed members present, speaking Irish and English. He praised the work of the hard working members of the Association during the past year.

A REQUEST

From Sister M. Theresa, of the Dominica Convent, Serravallo, who left Lismore 41 years ago, I have received a charming letter in which she asks for the words of the song "My Home In Lismore." Can anyone help?

DISGRACE

Mr. Roche remarked that although nearly half million pounds had been spent on cottage repairs, there were cottages still in the county which were a disgrace to the Council.

THE DRIVERS

The award winning drivers of the County Council Drivers' Association were presented with their trophies at a dinner given by the County Council at the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Dungarvan.
