N.F.A. PRESIDENT AT CO. EXECUTIVE DINNER

Most Enjoyable Function

Mr. Richard Deasy, President of N.F.A. was the guest of honour at the sixth annual dinner of the County Waterford Executive of the Association held at the Hotel Ormonde, Dungarvan, on Thursday.

THE CHRISTMAS CANDLE

With Christmas just a bare week away, I think that the following poem based on the old Christmas tradition of lighting candles and placing them in the windows on Christmas Eve is quite seasonal.

In the Name of God the Father, Of the Son and the Holy Spirit,

When Jesus and Mary and Joseph Were out in the wind and snow,

We offer our prayer to thee, O God, that bright long ago,

With us here to give them shelter, Save the best to a Jew and Gentile,

And the shepherd, whose steps were guided By a star in the sky overhead,

O beautiful Babe of Bethlehem, Look down on the humblest,

And lead their feet through the darkness, Up here to our own door,

Where the kindly light of one Sheds forth a welcoming glow,

For sake of the Gift God gave us, Our Christmas, bring us!

Mr. Deasy was commending the Credit Corporation as being a body which was doing a great deal of good work in the country. He said that the Government might well examine the example set by the Credit Corporation in providing productive purposes and by making the national debt more useful.

WATERFORD'S EXAMPLE "Surely," he said, "it is time that the Government should put the Credit Corporation to the test by examining the example set by the Credit Corporation in providing productive purposes and by making the national debt more useful."

Mr. Deasy added that deep water wells in the County Waterford would be a valuable source of capital when contrasted with the cost of the earlier wells in the County.
