AN EYE SORE

Why must such a large area be left like a feathered creature in the middle of Dungarvan? This is a question which has been bothering quite a few people for a considerable time. They are asking what the Urban Council is doing to rectify the situation.

New Company Will Promote Tourism

Transire Follie Limited, a company being formed to acquire and develop the properties of Transire Enterprises Limited, will be established at a meeting arranged for the 24th of February, 1966.

A FENIAN BALLAD

Going through some old ballads during the past week I came upon the following which has been attributed to O'Donovan Rossa.

OLD I.R.A. SCHOLARSHIP SCHEME

I have previously commended the West Waterford Brigade I.R.A. who have decided to fund a number of post primary scholarships for pupils in the brigade.

Tallow and Round About Notes

Lenten Devotions — Lenten Devotions will be held in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, on each week evening during Lent at 7.30 p.m. and on Sundays at 7 p.m. Devotions will be held in the Church of the Holy Cross, Kiltwatermoy, on each Wednesday evening at 7.30 p.m.

Tallow and Riverstown Foot Beagles — Meet at Tallow and Riverstown, Co. Cork, Foot Beagle Clubs held their annual joint meet at Tallow on Sunday. A big attendance from both clubs turned out. Prior to their departure from the Square the event was filmed by a T.E. Unit and they also took photos of the portions of the ensuing hunt and interviewed the Masters and Whips of both clubs. This was shown on the Eireann on Wednesday night. Though the day was not ideal for hunting, nevertheless, a good day's sport was enjoyed. After the hunt the visiting club were entertained by the local club at the Hotel, Tallow, and an enjoyable evening followed.

The Late Mr. Wm. Grey — We regret to record the death of Mr. William Grey, Barrack Street, Tallow, which occurred on Saturday 19th, following rather protracted illness and at the age of 72 years. Member of a highly esteemed and highly respected family, the late Mr. Grey served with the British Forces in World War I and was seriously wounded. On demobilisation he was appointed to the outdoor staff of Tallow Post-Office and served in this capacity for a considerable number of years until his retirement some years ago on reaching the age limit.

Of a quiet and retiring disposition he made a host of friends who deeply regret his death. The remains were removed to the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Saturday evening and were interred and blessed by Very Rev. Fr. M. Condon, C.C. On Requiem Masses were celebrated on Saturday morning for the happy repose of his soul and the interment took place the same afternoon in the (family) grave in the cemetery. Very Rev. Fr. H. O'Brien, P.P., and Rev. M. Condon, C.C., officiated.

To his bereaved widow, sons, daughters, brothers etc. we extend our deepest sympathy. His mourners include: Margaret Grey (widow); Mrs. J. Fitzgerald, Catherine and Babe (daughters); Messrs. John and Patrick Grey (sons); Messrs. Anthony and Patrick Grey (brothers).

The late Mrs. M. Baker — We regret to record the death of Mrs. M. Baker, Barrack Street, Tallow, which occurred at the Dungarvan Hospital, on Sunday, February 20th.

We extend our sympathy to her relatives. A meeting of the Vocational School on Tuesday night, February 15th. The purpose of the meeting was to decide if the Tallow Section will participate in the 1916 Celebrations in London at Easter and to make the necessary arrangements for the weekly training in drill, etc. and for members to be measured for uniforms.

Mr. Eamonn De Paor — Area Officer, presided at the meeting which was well attended.

Tallow Point-to-Point Race Committee — The Tallow Point-to-Point Race Committee held a Church gate collection at all Masses on Sunday. The response was generous. The committee desire to thank all who subscribed to the collection.

Family Leaves — Mrs. P. Henley, New Street, and some members of her family have left to take up residence in England where other family members are already domiciled. A most popular resident in Tallow in wishing her and her family the very best of good luck across the Channel.

Tallow Owners' Success At Navan — Mr. Wm. Henley, (Cord Arc) ridden by Mr. James Henley, won the Navan race meeting last week. "Cord Arc" is a wonder horse. It is interesting to note that "Archive" finished his days at Mr. Henley's stable in Tallow, who was injured and had to be destroyed.

Kiltwatermoy Drama Group — For Ingh. The Kiltwatermoy Drama Group will travel to Inch C.Y.M.S. Hall on next Sunday night, February 27th, where they will present the two-act play "Old Acquaintance" by J. B. McCarthy, and a laughable farce entitled "Loves Labour Lost" which had such a wonderful success when staged at Kiltwatermoy recently. There will be in addition a full variety programme. The producer is Mr. James John. A great night's entertainment is assured.

Win In Pools — Congratulations to Mr. John O'Mahony on winning £25 in the M.H. Pools last week. Mrs. R. Lynch, West Street is promoter for the pools.

Results Of Kiltwatermoy Church Heating Fund Non-Stop Draw — 5th Draw Results — 1st £5 Garda T. Molloy, Young's, 2nd £5 Miss Murphy, Clashell, 3rd £5 Miss J. Monaghan, Knockanore. Promoter's Prize — Mr. James McKeown, Headborough, Knockanore.

Kiltwatermoy Muintir Na Tire — A souler Monday the Tire was formed at Kiltwatermoy some time ago, but meetings of the guild have not been held since as one would expect. Muintir Na Tire was founded for the purpose of helping co-operation with most rural dwellers and to assist in making country life more tolerable for the people living in the rural areas. In many parts of Ireland Muintir Na Tire has set up a fund providing many amenities such as piped water etc. for residents. Therefore we believe a strong guild of Muintir Na Tire should be in every parish. A general meeting of the Kiltwatermoy Guild will be held in the Hall, Kiltwatermoy, on Wednesday, March 2nd at 8 p.m. when delegates from other parishes will attend. We hope to see a big attendance at this meeting.

Drive Final On Sunday Night — The finals of the Kiltwatermoy 45 Drive will be played at Kiltwatermoy on next Sunday night, February 27th, commencing at 6 p.m. Holders of cards please return same with cash to Rev. Gen. Nugent, C.C. Glendine, or Miss Dolly Mills, Kiltwatermoy, before that date.

Garda Transfers — Garda Ryan, Killeagh Garda Station has been transferred to the Bridwell, Cork. Though only in the village in the village he has proved a courteous and efficient Peace Officer. He was a member of the Kiltwatermoy Garda Branch of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann. He is being replaced by Sergeant Joe Lyons, of the Kiltwatermoy, Co. Cork, who served in Uítu Quia before being assigned to Kiltwatermoy. Very Rev. Fr. M. Condon, C.C., representative of the Garda Club at the Cork County Board meeting, he was recently promoted Sergeant.

The Late Mr. James Spillane — The death took place at his residence at the Kiltwatermoy last week-end of Mr. James Spillane, a well known and highly respected member of the agricultural community. Deceased was resident of the Shean, Ballyduff area for a number of years. He was a large and representative college at the removal of the Kiltwatermoy cemetery and at the interment in Kilcrumper cemetery, Fermoy, on Sunday last.

We extend our deepest sympathy to his family and relatives.

The Recent Family Remembered In Fermoy And Castletown Commemorations — It was held at the Fermoy Executive of the 1916 Commemoration Committee that they would sponsor in conjunction with the Castletown Commemoration at Easter Sunday, April 10th, to the Kent family of Bawnard and to others in the area who gave their lives for freedom.

Religious Association representing clubs and organisations from the area were present at the meeting to make arrangements for a dignified and appropriate commemoration. The parade will assemble at Castletown on Sunday morning at 10.30 near the church where a wreath will be laid on the Kent battlefield in the cemetery of the Fermoy Executive of the 1916 Commemoration Committee that they would sponsor in conjunction with the Castletown Commemoration at Easter Sunday, April 10th, to the Kent family of Bawnard and to others in the area who gave their lives for freedom.

Munster Council Meeting

ATTITUDE OF CASHEL U.D.C. DEPLORED

A motion deploring the attitude of Cashel Urban Council in refusing to grant the licence they had given to the Gaels of Cork and the Gaels of Munster, was passed unanimously at last Saturday's meeting of the Munster Council.

The matter arose out of the Munster club which had been granted a licence to play at Cashel U.D.C. on Sunday night and was to be abandoned.
