PENSMAN takes you Behind the Spotlight

TO PROVIDE THE SERVICES The ratepayers of Dungarvan will be afforded the services of the Council's 1941 loan, indebtedness at present was £455,631, and heard letter from the Department declare without practical effect that the Council could not meet its full housing programme. The Council Chamber was filled with the sounds of The Hucklebuck, "Michele" and other old favourites by O'Higgins, Dublin. Mrs. O'Higgins who sent £1,000 said in a covering note: "It would be such a pity and lack of interest in our hometown if the Galway Council should fail."

The first subscription to the appeal issued by the Dungarvan Gala Committee for funds for this year's Gala has been received from Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Kyne, who have sent £100.

Another Nickel Inn, Main Street, Dungarvan, has been provided by the Dungarvan Power

Company who attended the obsequies of the local Bishop there.

Coming out of the Cathedral Fr. Flavin spilt one priest in an Augustinian Habit and made towards him through the service door, but had not yet met before and Fr. Flavin had said himself and then and then the Augustinian Fr. Jim Hartnett congratulated him on his new appointment as Parish Priest which he had just received about in the Irish Times, he receives every week through the post a sum of £100.

Isn't the world a very small place indeed when you hear things like that?

Tallow and Round About Notes

The Late Mr. B. Budds.—We regret to record the death of Mr. Batterson, who died at Dungarvan Hospital last week. The late Mr. Budds who has reached a ripe old age was a highly esteemed agricultural family, and was held in high regard by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. His death is very deeply regretted. He is survived by his brother Mr. John J. Budds and a number of nieces and nephews to whom much sympathy is extended. The remains were removed to the Church of the Sacred Heart Knockanore and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. This was a large representative gathering present on both occasions. Very Rev. Fr. Power P.P., Knockanore, assisted by Rev. Fr. Nugent C.C. officiated at the graveside.

Death Of Former Curate.—The late Rev. Fr. James Hickey C.C., Grangemockler, died recently at Cork on April 1st. He was from 1923 to 1936. We tender our deepest sympathy to his brothers, sisters and relatives.

The Late Mr. E. Willis.—The death took place at St. Patrick's Hospital, Derry, on Friday March 29th, of Mr. Charles Willis, Curraglass, Tallow. Decedent who had been ill for only a brief period was member of one of the oldest families in the district dating back over three centuries. Of a quiet and retiring disposition, he was held in high esteem by a large circle of friends who deeply regret his loss.

The remains were removed to Knocknourne Church accompanied by a large cortège. The funeral took place on Sunday in Curraglass cemetery following service in Knocknourne Church, conducted by Rev. C. F. Foster, Rector, Knocknourne Union, who also officiated at the interment.

To his brothers, sister nephews and nieces we extend our deepest sympathy. Mr. Charles Willis, Curraglass, Mr. Harold Willis, Lismore, Mr. Henry Willis, Janeville, Tallow brothers Mrs. Emily Clarke, England (sister Mr. Denis Willis, London), wife and family, Janeville Clarke, family, England (nephews and nieces).

(Funeral arrangements were carried out by O'Brien Bros., Undertakers, Tallow.)

Wedding — Daynes-O'Sullivan.—The wedding took place on St. Patrick's Day at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, on Mr. Barry Daynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Daynes, 29, Mayfair Place, Earlsfort, London, and Miss Margaret O'Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Sullivan, Ballyduff Upper. The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Fr. H. O'Brien, P.P., Tallow.

The bride who was given away by her father wore a full-length gown of Nottingham lace and her short veil was held in place by the mother of the bride of the valley. She carried a bouquet of lily of the valley also. The bridesmaids were Miss Bridie Cronin who wore a green satin full length gown with matching headress and a caftan, Margaret, a yellow and white frock. The best man was Mr. Malcolm Daynes, brother of the 'groom'. Ushers at the church were Mr. Thomas O'Sullivan and Mr. Maurice Suttor.

Both bride and groom were the recipients of many wedding gifts and congratulations messages from their acquaintances. We join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Daynes the very best of luck and happiness in their married life.

Honouring Very Rev. Fr. Sheehy.—Amongst those who attended the Bi-Centenary Celebrations of Very Rev. Fr. Nicholas Sheehy at Shanahan graveyard, Clogheen, on Sunday, March 24th, were Mr. and Mrs. Barry Woodview, Fermoy. Mr. Baylor had been invited to the ceremonies by Rev. Fr. Purcell and was in a reserved place at both the Mass and the function in the graveyard.

Mr. Baylor's great-grandmother was Barbara Griffith who was the father of Mr. Griffith, member of a Protestant family living in a farmhouse near the graveyard where he worked on the roads from the British. They lived in the house of which portion of one of the walls forms the graveyard wall also. They broke open a window and the birds, finding no food, gravitated to let Fr. Sheehy climb into the house by night for food and a bed. He stayed by day in the graveyard Tomb in the grave yard which was on the road to Clogheen.

That P.M. was recalled that Mr. and Mrs. Baylor had sheltered the late Miss Kathleen O'Connell, Private Secretary to Mr. de Valera for most of 1946. The late Mrs. Kathleen Barry, sister of Kevin Barry, was born on the occasion of their golden wedding jubilee last year. As a token of appreciation Fr. Sheehy left old curries for skin and other articles in the Griffith family which have been passed on to all descendants and are now in the possession of Mr. and Mrs. Baylor.

Proposed Change of Street Name.—In connection with the Golden Jubilee of the 1916 Rising it is proposed to change certain street names in Tallow.

With that in mind, a plebiscite is being taken at present to ascertain whether the residents are in favour of the proposed changes.

Freedom From Hunger Collection.—The collection received by the Most Rev. Dr. Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, a collection was held at all the churches in the Diocese. The collection was taken in the afternoon and evening on Sunday last in aid of the freedom from hunger campaign.

Big Salmon.—Mr. Thomas Murphy, Ballinrone, Ballyronan, Co. Down, landed a salmon recently which weighed 24 lbs. The salmon was 3 ft. long and had a girth of 19 inches. The fish was 21 inch blue and silver. Devon.

Tallow Foot Brag Club On T.E.C.—Tallow Foot Brag Club was founded on February 1st, 1967, by Michael Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, a collection was held at all the churches in the Diocese. The collection was taken in the afternoon and evening on Sunday last in aid of the freedom from hunger campaign.

Bishop's Visit.—His Lordship Dr. Michael Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore will pay his first official visit to the Parish of Lismore on Friday April 6th, and to Carrigtwohill on Saturday April 7th. The Bishop will visit the new church of St. Carthage at 7.30 p.m. that evening. As this is the first visit of our new Bishop to the "Cathedral town" it is hoped that as far as possible will attend the removal of her remains to the boundary of Ms. Burns' land. The Association has also granted permission to Mr. Burns to have a public mass said in the canal which flows through his lands for the same purpose.

Kilwatermoy Church Heating Fund.—Finals of the 45 Drive held at above fund will be held on Sunday next, April 3rd at 7 p.m. No first rounds can be played until after 7 p.m. Patrons are asked to subscribe to the most worthy project.

Wise Sayings.—Some families can trace their ancestry back over three centuries. If you don't know where your children were last night, then they are lost.

Children begin by loving their parents. Then, as time goes by, they judge them. Rarely, if ever do they forgive them.

The reason they call women the opposite sex is that every woman you think you have one of them, looks it's exactly the opposite.

Death Of Mrs. M. Doyle.—We regret to record the death of Mrs. Mary Doyle, Barrack Street, Tallow, on Saturday March 24th. She was 80 years of age.
