ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS... I was surprised when nobody tries to tell me the story of your meeting from you. You may be equally surprised to hear how frankly members will tell you their story. And unless you are very insensitive you will be shattered by the humility and the honesty of these people who have gone through hell on earth and lived to tell the tale.

CHANGED THEIR MINDS... A few weeks ago a couple of young Yorkshire men arrived in Dungarvan. It was their first trip to Ireland and just prior to coming their newspapers and television news-casts were playing up the work of some subversive elements in Kilkenny. They were engaged in service and repairing the lift at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, but Ken (known to his pals at home as Mel) got it soon made his mark when he arranged the Mayor's rose garden at the hospital with an expertise that made Sister Patricia and other members of the staff really wonder.

OLDEST MEMBER OF CO. COUNCIL RETIRES... Mr. Denis F. Madden (FG) the oldest member of Waterford County Council, tendered his resignation from Waterford County Council at the monthly meeting of the Council in Dungarvan last Monday.

THE NIGHTINGALE... Our ballad choice this week is the very popular "Nightingale". As I went awaking one morning in May, I met a young couple who fondly did stray. And one was a young maid so sweet and so fair. And the other was a soldier and a brave grenadier.

CRUISE LINER'S VISIT... There was quite a lot of... CAPPOQUIN ROWING CLUB... In Association with INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCE FESTIVAL, COBH WATERFORD FINAL Blarney Rose Contest Boathouse Ballroom, Sunday, May 22nd ROYAL ACES 8.30 - 1.00.

Cumann Na nDeiseach News... On Sunday April 17th, Mass in Gaelic was offered in St. Laurence O'Keefe Church, Dublin, by our President, Rev. Fr. McCarthy, O.C., for all deceased men and women of Waterford City and County who gave their lives for Irish Freedom. It was attended by the Committee members and other Waterford people in Dublin.

For the Future BUY IRISH... Now I'm off to India for seven long years.

CUMANN IAR-SCOLAIRI CHOLAISTE AIBHISTIN

The 14th Annual General Meeting of the Cumann Iar-Scolairi Cholaiste Aibhistin was held at the College, Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

SON CO-OPED TO FILL LATE FATHER'S SEAT ON CO. COUNCIL—Mr. James Quirk, Junr., nobly, Ballyduff, was unanimously co-opted to fill the vacancy on Waterford County Council caused by the death of his father Mr. J. Quirk (P.P.), at the monthly meeting of the Council in Dungarvan last Monday.

Proposing the co-optation of Mr. Quirk, Mr. D. Ahern (P.P.), said that he was a very able young man who should be well able to follow in the footsteps of his late father. He felt that Mr. Quirk Junr. would fill his father's place on the Council very well.

Mr. Norman Walsh, O.G.G. Vice-Chairman, seconded the motion and said that all he could add was that if Mr. Quirk were to be co-opted as a member of the Council it would be a great loss to the Council and the County. The Chairman Mr. C. Curran welcomed Mr. Quirk to the Council and the County Manager, Mr. C. A. O'Connell, joined in the expression of welcome.

Mr. Quirk thanked the Council for co-opting him a member and said that he would do all in his power to prove a good member.

WATERFORD MINORS BRILLIANT SECOND HALF DISPLAY

O'Grady Point Earned Replay

Waterford's minor hurlers turned in a brilliant second half display in their Championship game against Galway at the Ennis Road Grounds, Limerick on Sunday last.

Going into the break, Waterford's task seemed a hopeless one and few could visualize such an optimistic comeback from a side which had been literally buried in the mud by the rampant Galway fifteen.

Having lost their star half back Timmy Healy with an injury early in the game and facing an eighteen point deficit at the interval, it was a miracle that they were able to score a goal per John Healy in the tenth minute and Liam O'Brien through for another shortly after.

On the whole, the game was a fitting climax to a great game which was played in continuous rain. Waterford were well served in defence by Michael Donnelly, Pat Keogh and Maurice Power.

Pat Moore, Sean Coughlan and Lucas served the Waterford attack well while Paddy Burke and Eamonn Farrell were outstanding in attack.

Scorers: R. McNamara, J. O'Grady (2-0), N. Kelly (2-1), J. Green (1-0), J. Fleming (0-2), M. Fitzgerald (0-1), E. Farrell (3-0), J. Conolly (2-1), J. Burke (2-1), M. Bond (0-4).

Waterford M. Donnelly, G. Daly, Murphy, P. Keogh, M. Norris, M. Power, T. Healy, N. Kelly, P. O'Connell, J. Whelan, J. Flynn, J. Fleming, J. O'Grady, M. Bender, P. Moroney, Subs.—E. Scannlan, P. TALLOW WHIP ABBEYSIDE

Tallow 5-11; Abbeyside 1-4. Tallow whipped Abbeyside by 5-11 in a replay of their abandoned Water hurling league game played at Cappagh on Sunday last.

In their abandoned encounter some weeks previously, Abbeyside were well clear when the game was called off a few minutes from the end after a fire on the Sunday last.

THE SCORES. Tallow jumped ahead with a goal per John Healy in the tenth minute and Liam O'Brien through for another shortly after.

Abbeyside had good defenders in Johnny Walsh, P. Flynn, Peadar Wall and Cosgrave. Michael Hogan played well in goal in this second half.

Obituaries

Mrs. Josephine Dunphy. It is with deep regret that we record the death of Mrs. Josephine Dunphy which occurred at her residence, Grass, Kilmacshannon, on Thursday, May 13, after a short duration of illness but at an advanced age.

She was the wife of the late Mr. Bernard Dunphy, a well-known and popular Lough Ballinacorney family. Possessing many admirable qualities, she was extremely popular and her death is deeply regretted.

Her remains were removed on Friday evening to Faha Church, Dungarvan, and were interred in the family grave. She was buried and received by Rev. Fr. M. Barron, C.C., Kilmacshannon, assisted by Very Rev. Fr. M. Donivan, P.P., Dungarvan, Rev. Fr. P. Farrell, P.P., Stradally, Rev. Fr. M. O'Doherty, C.C., Ballyhenon, Rev. Fr. M. Carroll, C.C., Ballybricken, Rev. Fr. M. Thomas, O'Brien, C.C., Rathgorman, Very Rev. Fr. M. McCarthy, P.P., Australian Mission, Rev. Fr. W. Power, C.C., Dungarvan, Rev. Fr. J. Walsh, C.C., Peter and Paul's, Clonmel (stepson).

Funeral Mass was celebrated on Saturday morning for the eternal repose of her soul. The celebration was held at the parish church of St. Mary's, Dungarvan, at 10 o'clock. The deceased was interred in the family grave in the cemetery of St. Mary's, Dungarvan.

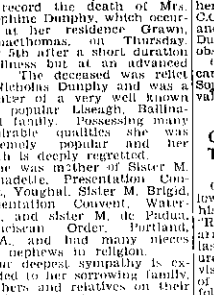

Another very large concourse were present. Chief mourners: David and Mary Dunphy, James Dunphy, Richard Dunphy, Mallow, Edward Dunphy, Mallow, James Dunphy, Dungarvan, Michael Dunphy, Dungarvan, Sister M.
