UNOCCUPIED COTTAGES

People the great clamour for houses in the past few years. The Council has been asked to do something about it. The Council has been asked to do something about it. The Council has been asked to do something about it.

COURTHOUSE ACUSTICS

When the Dungarvan Courthouse was renovated some years ago the one thing that came to the surface through all the polished veneers and tinted wall-paddings was the poor acoustics. This was commented on frequently by those who use the Courthouse but the officials in charge apparently going on the assumption that people will get tired of complaining if you ignore them long enough just did nothing.

COUNTY COUNCIL BACKS PLANS FOR DEVELOPMENT OF WATERFORD PORT

Waterford Harbour Commission speakers. There were some other comments but none from any of the officials. They were of course following the typical course that no problem exists if it is not admitted. A good way seems of getting over difficulties, but surely it is most unsatisfactory way.

STIRRING DAYS RECALLED

The death last week of Mr. Jim Walsh, Ballymulla, recalls the stirring days when the I.R.A. were actively engaged against Crown forces during the War of Independence. The late Mr. Walsh was not only a member and leader of the I.R.A. but he was also one of the major operations carried out by the West Waterford Brigade was mounted. These included the ambushes at Piltown and the Burgage.

Co. Council Has Another New Member

Waterford County Council has another new member in the person of Mr. Michael Shalloo, Traamore. Mr. Shalloo who has been a member of Traamore Town Commissioners for a number of years, was unanimously elected to replace Mr. D. F. Madden (F.G.), who retired recently because of ill-health and advancing years.

WELL KEPT GRAVEYARD

Once upon a time I knew all of Gray's Elgry by heart and knew a few burials which must have made Gray turn in his grave. I thought of one of these last week when I attended the obsequies of a friend in a country graveyard.

ORDINATIONS AT WATERFORD

Most Rev. Dr. M. Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, raised seventeen students of St. John's College, Waterford, to Holy Orders at the Cathedral, Waterford, last Sunday. The new priests and the dioceses to which they are attached are:

LOVE IS YEASIN'

I have been asked again for the words of the ballad "Love is Yeasin'" which is sung to a slow, sweet nostalgic air:

I wish I wish I wish in vain
I wished I wished I was a youth again,
But a youth again I can never be
Till the apples grow on an ivy tree.
