PENSMAN takes you Behind the Spotlight

THOSE GOLDEN HANDSHAKES

There has been a great furor through the country since it was revealed in the "Leader" that Dr. S. Andrews, Chairman of C.I.E. will receive a pension of £57 a week and a golden handshake to the order of some £20,000 when he shortly retires. The plain people of Ireland are protesting in a most effective manner against this type of pension in a country which at the moment is suffering from the deepest financial straits, and in fact which could hardly afford such a large sum even at the best of times.

REMOVE THESE CARS

Footpaths are laid for the benefit and protection of pedestrians and are not put down at the expense of the taxpayers. Why then should a footpath having been laid for a purpose and then be used as a parking lot for motor cars. This question crossed my mind one day last week as I travelled down towards the Gaelic Field in Dungarvan and saw a row of cars parked nose in tail across a concrete footpath. There are not so many cars as there used to be. These cars are parked in such a manner that it is impossible for pedestrians to use the path and consequently they are forced to come out on to the roadway to get by.

THE GREEN GLENS OF ANTRIM

Ballad children for this week is the old favourite "The Green Glens of Antrim".
Far across yonder blue lies a true fairland,
With the sea rippling over the shining sand,
When the gay honey-suckle is in bloom,
And the green glens of Antrim are calling to me.
Sure if only you knew how the lamp of the moon
Turns a blue Irish bay to a silver lagoon,
You'd imagine a picture of heaven it could be,
Where the green glens of Antrim are calling to me.
Soon I hope to return to my own Cushendall,
To the one place for me that can outshine them all—
Sure I know every glen, I recall every tree,
Where the green glens of Antrim are calling to me.
I would halt at a cabin close down by the shore,
And I'd knock on my heart at that wee cabin door,
While the sun showered gold in the lap of the sea,
And the green glens of Antrim were smiling on me.
'Tis alone my concern if the grandest surprise,
Would be shining at me out of somebody's eyes,
'Tis my private affair what my feelings would be,
While the green glens of Antrim were welcoming me.
But I'd be where the people are simple and kind,
And among them the one who's been away in my mind,
Sure I'd pray that the world would in peace let me be,
Where the green glens of Antrim are heaven to me.

FESTIVAL TIME

The annual festival of Dungarvan will commence on next Sunday and continue for a week. The idea of the festival is to bring the town and its surroundings together in a spirit of friendly rivalry. The festival is a tradition which has been held in the town since the year 1864. The festival is a tradition which has been held in the town since the year 1864. ### GENERAL IS GOOD BUSINESS MAN BUT

General Costello is a good business man and while I'm not against this move I'm nervous of being caught up in anything and Mr. M. Galgey, at the monthly meeting of the County Waterford Committee of Agriculture in Dungarvan last Friday. The Committee were considering a proposal that their instructors should take over the supervision of the growing of the beet crop for Comhúil Shinné Breann. Mr. Galgey added "The General is a great man for pulling in the thin edge of the wedge but he is well able to drive it home then."
