PENSMAN takes you Behind the Spotlight

It is not an exaggeration to say that the County Home has been the subject of a number of articles in the past few weeks. The reason why they have become so prominent is simply because the public have lost confidence in the C.I.E. A couple of instances which have come to my notice in recent weeks where both rail and bus transport are concerned will quickly illustrate why.

On July 28, a bundle of newspapers addressed to Dublin was sent from this office on the subject of the County Home. The papers were sent to the Editor of the "Irish Times" and to the Editor of the "Sunday Express". The papers were sent to the Editor of the "Sunday Express" and to the Editor of the "Sunday Express".

COUNTY COUNCILLORS PAY TRIBUTE TO FORMER COUNTY MANAGER

County Councillors paid a glowing tribute to the late Mr. M. J. O'Connell, former County Manager, at a meeting of the Council held in Dungarvan last Monday. The meeting was presided over by the Chairman, Mr. C. Curran, and was attended by all the members of the Council.

Mr. O'Connell was described as a man of high integrity and a man who had done much for the County. He was remembered as a man who had been a great help to the Council and to the County.

BRILLIANT PUPILS WIN SCHOLARSHIPS

THE LOVELY LEADER

A New York reader who writes from Dungarvan writes: "I have just read your issue of the 13th and I must say I am very pleased with it. It is a very nice issue and I am sure that it will be very popular with your readers."

WONDERFUL IRELAND

Ireland is a wonderful country and the progress which has been made is really marvellous. This is what Miss Aileen McGuire of Diamond Street, San Francisco, told me last week when she visited the County Office at the end of a five week holiday spent with her sister Mrs. Nora McHugh at Shear's Street, Abbeyside.

THE MAID OF SWEET GURTEEN

An old timer whom I have recently asked me to write her story of this lovely but not so well-known ballad and I am pleased to be able to oblige.

Come all ye gentle muses
Combine and lend an ear,
While I set forth the praises
Of a charming maiden fair.
It's the curls to her yellow
Locks that stole away my heart,
Her eyes, I'm sure, must be
The cure when she is near.

Whoever heard of a 50% tax free return on an investment?

There is actually what you get when you invest in National Bonds. The purchase price of each bond is £100. When your investment is returned on June 1st, 1977, you get an additional £50 tax-free premium for every £100 bond you hold. But it's back in your side, your bond may be redeemed with the full £50 premium after only 12 months. How? Because.
