PENSMAN takes you Behind the Spotlight

WHO WAS THE BELOVED CATHERINE? It came up in the ordinary course of conversation one evening and was mentioned by Mr. Ted Draper...

Of your charity pray for the soul of Catherine, the beloved wife of Mr. Master Sergeant Jeremiah Moloney of the 55th Regt. Foot.

After accompanying him through the wars of China and India she died this life in Dungarvan on the 1st Jan. 1885...

What love and devotion must have imbued this young life for her soldier husband that it set her travelling with his through the Middle East...

N.F.A. WEEKLY BULLETIN

WHAT HAS GONE WRONG. Just about every farmer in Ireland is asking himself and everybody else 'What's gone wrong with the Trade Agreement?' Where is the subsidy on beef and lamb going? A comment from a Westmeath farmer this week 'I was getting more for my beef and lamb than I was last year. I was getting 25-30p for my beef and 20-25p for my lamb. I was getting 25-30p for my beef and 20-25p for my lamb. I was getting 25-30p for my beef and 20-25p for my lamb.'

ARDMORE THROUGH TO I.H. SEMI

Cappoquin Defeated in Entertaining Game

Ardmore 3-15; Cappoquin 4-6. Ardmore created something of a shock when they ousted Cappoquin from the Intermediate hurling championship when they defeated them by 3-15 to 4-6 in their quarter final game at the Frater Field, Dungarvan last Sunday.

HIGH CALIBRE
Conditions were ideal for the contest which produced terrific second half hurling of a high calibre and the good sized attendance received first class entertainment for their money.

GREAT POTENTIAL
Ardmore who were the underdogs had previously knocked out Fournmulewater against all the odds and their display last Sunday shows them to be a side with great potential and they will take some beating in the semi-final.

They were on top throughout the first half and led 1-10 to 1-4 at the interval.

GREATEST EFFORT
The Comerston men drew level going into the last quarter and grandstand finish seemed imminent but it was in this final period that Ardmore produced their greatest effort when they went into the last quarter with a last minute goal from John O'Donoghue left Cappoquin fairly close to the winners at the end.

HONOURS
Ardmore attack must be given the honours for Sunday's victory. Jim Rooney, who netched some great points, John Joe Carlton and Finbar Hallahan were their real stars in this sector while Eddie Mooney and Thomas Hallahan also shone. As a matter of fact their only weak link in this sector was Noel Rooney who never got going and failed to hit true form.

Donal Lennane and Anthony Carlton gave them a noticeable advantage at midfield while Bernie Hallahan and Mikey and Paddy Carlton were outstanding in defence.

Cappoquin can offer no excuses for Sunday's defeat and sorely missed Eddie Frater in attack while their defence showed little confidence and only rookie Pat Morrissey, Noel Mason, Bill Arrigan (wound switched from attack) and sub Tony Smith gave any way well. Carlton gave them a noticeable advantage at midfield while Bernie Hallahan and Mikey and Paddy Carlton were outstanding in defence.

Scorers—Ardmore: J. Rooney (9-9); J. J. Carlton (1-1); N. Rooney and T. Hallahan (1-0 each); E. Mooney (0-2); F. Hallahan (0-1). Cappoquin: M. Frater (2-4); O'Donoghue (1-1); J. Frater (1-0); G. Mason (0-1).

Obituaries

Mother M. Dominic
The death of Mother M. Dominic later took place at the Presentation Convent, Dungarvan, on Monday, August 15th, after a protracted illness and an advanced age.

A native of Clara, the late Mother Dominic had been a well-loved and active member of the community. She was sister of Mother M. Alacogue, Presentation Convent, Carrick-on-Suir. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the Rev. Mother and Community at her passing.

Her remains were taken to the Convent Chapel on Tuesday evening and were blessed and received by Rev. W. Power, C.C., assisted by Ven. Archdeacon D. Power, P.P. V.F.

Office and Requiem High Mass was celebrated on Wednesday morning, Rev. W. Power officiating at the funeral which took place in the adjoining community cemetery.

Rev. Fr. Power, C.C., officiated assisted by the full choir of clergy. A very large and representative concourse was present.

Funeral arrangements were carried out by James Kely & Sons, Undertakers, Dungarvan.

NEWS FROM THE WATERFORD ASSOCIATION, LONDON

A very pleasant luncheon was held at the Irish Centre, London, on Saturday, 17th July, when 130 members and friends sat down to the now famous Bacon and Cabbage Supper. Those who attended were: Rev. Fr. Richard Enright, President of the Association; Rev. Fr. Nicholas Power, St. John's College, who is on a visit to London. A party of 40 travelled from Birmingham including the Chairman of the Birmingham Association, Mr. Ed. Cullinan, Mr. Michael Bell, Rev. Fr. John Power, who was unavoidably detained due to his place arriving late in London.

At the end of the meal, Mr. Bell, who was in the chair, proposed that a large number of members should be invited to visit London, not only to see the sights but also to enjoy the local culture and to meet some of the members of the Association who are in London. This was done by the Mayor of London, Mr. Joseph Wilson, who was in London at the time.
