County Board Make Cup And Championship Draws

By Commentator

Lines at the minor championships with clubs joining to make a team. The clubs would have to be sponsored by minor clubs. S. O'Brien, Western Board Secretary, said that as a result of this new arrangement, which he considered to be illegal, three clubs in the West who had affiliated would have to go out—Agligh and County in hurling and the Pike in football.

AT AGLISH

Two games will also be played here with Kinsale and Ballysaggart meeting in football and Glen Rovers taking on Ballymore in hurling. The hurling side in hurling in the other game, Kinsale and Ring are the opponents.

AT LISMORE

It is also a year since there has been a game at this very popular venue and Tallow and Ballymore will meet here in hurling on Sunday will be performing an unofficial repechage ceremony at the Castle Farm grounds which may be a very busy season.

WESTERN BOARD MEETING

The important meeting of the Western Board will be held at Dungarvan G.Y.M.S. Rooms on Monday night next. The meeting will make the new draws for the Under 21 hurling and football championships and will discuss matters relating to registration etc.

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

The second-half of the February County Board meeting was held on Monday night last and was much longer and more interesting than the first session held on the previous Monday and again there was a full attendance.

REGISTRATION

The Chairman, Eamonn O'Maoldomhnaigh said that he was issuing a warning to all clubs in the County that in future all registration forms would be scrutinised to see if the named officers were genuine members and not bogus characters. The Board, he said, were now aware that some clubs had named people who had no connection with their clubs, as officers of the club. He said that the motive here was obvious and that the Board would deal with any club which came to their notice this year.

PANISH RULE

This was the item under which the Chairman explained the recommendations of the Parish Rule Committee with regard to the 21 hurling and football championships. He said that the championships would be run on the same
