Win I.H. & J.F. nes opening of Fraher id mentator

An interesting thing about the personnel of Sunday's game is that each division will be represented by 15 players.

What should be a very exciting programme of hurling is laid on for Lismore on Sunday afternoon when the senior teams of the two clubs meet in a senior challenge at that venue at 4.30 p.m.

Two games are arranged for this evening on Sunday and evening games are being engaged in both which are the junior grade.

At 1.45 p.m. Abbeyside play a game with the 21 ball game versus Clare on 11.30.

The Western Board will meet on Monday night at 8.15 p.m. at the club house to discuss the results of the 21 ball game versus Clare on 11.30.

The 21 ball game was won by the home side who defeated St. Anne's by 1-10 to 0-10.
