All Set For Dungarvan's Great Annual Horse Fair
BIG ENTRY AND MANY BUYERS EXPECTED
Dungarvan's great Second Annual Horse Fair will take place on next Friday, May 19, and plans to make this year's event a greater success than the previous year's initial effort are well advanced.
The energetic Secretary of the Fair, Mr. John D. Power, has advertised the fair far and wide and as a result a great number of horse and horse dealers is expected from all over the country. Added to this leading buyers from England and Northern Ireland will also attend and this should ensure the success of the fair from the financial side.
In order to secure the best possible types of animals at the fair, the Committee have secured a number of trophies which will be offered for the best-bred horse at the fair (presented by Mr. D. Ryan): the best bred animal of three years and under (Horse Breeders' Association Cup); the best pony (Cup presented by Mr. Bobby Keane with a £50 prize presented by Mr. John D. Power).
The aim of the Committee is to make the fair a great gala occasion for the town and the co-operation of the various licensed traders, hoteliers, restaurants and indeed all the other business concerns of the town (this can be achieved).
On Horse Fair Night there will be a gala festival dance at the C.S.M. Ballroom, Clonea, for which the Carousal Showband will provide the music and this should prove a wonderful treat for all who attend. A great day for Dungarvan and for the Co. Waterford Horse Breeders' Association.

CO. COUNCIL IS DOWN £75,000
Waterford County Council at their quarterly meeting in Dungarvan last Monday approved an overdraft of £75,000 for the quarter ending September 30.
Reporting on the Council's financial position, Mr. F. J. O'Leary, County Accountant, said that while the overdraft was the same as for the same period last year, the Council were down £75,000. At the close of the financial year they were down more than £21,000 while at the same period in 1966 they had a credit in excess of £23,000.
Mr. O'Leary gave the following four reasons for the change in the Council's financial position: 1) the granting of the £1 per week increase in wages and salaries and the grant of a pension to the Chief Agricultural Officer which accounted for £20,000; 2) a higher demand from the Health Authority which accounted for £5,000; 3) the absence of capital monies which were available last year; and 4) the closing of the Council accounts before the end of the financial year.

BISHOP SPEAKS ON WORLD COMMUNICATIONS AT ABBESIDE CONFIRMATION CEREMONY
His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. M. Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore paid his first visit to Dungarvan on Saturday, May 13, at 10.30 a.m. and administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to 40 boys and girls from the schools in the parish at 10.30 a.m. Mass.
The ceremony was accompanied by his Secretary, Rev. Fr. Callinan, who was in charge of the boys and girls. The Bishop was met at the Abbey by Mr. J. D. Ryan, Chairman of the Dungarvan Confirmation Committee, and Mr. J. D. Ryan, Chairman of the Dungarvan Confirmation Committee, and Mr. J. D. Ryan, Chairman of the Dungarvan Confirmation Committee.
The Bishop celebrated the Mass and sermon on World Communications and that while priests dedicated their lives to God and to the preaching of the Gospel it was not necessary to wear a vestment and to know the Acts of the Apostles by heart. He said that every man and woman, married, single, young or old could do it by the example of their lives if they lived according to the virtues of truth, justice and charity.
Referring to mass media communications such as radio and television his Lordship said that when it came to judging proper standards, especially where children were concerned, parents were concerned people were inclined to condemn only if they conflicted with the sixth Commandment. This appeared to be due to an obsession with sex which many people in this country seemed to possess. He reminded the congregation that there were other Commandments which were as important as the sixth where these things were concerned.

PENSMAN takes you Behind the Spotlight

ALMOST CERTAIN
Since I wrote last week about the industry promised for Dungarvan by the Dungarvan born steel magnate, Mr. John A. Mulcahy, I have learned that Mr. Mulcahy visited his constituents in Abbeyside, Mr. Michael Foley, prior to his return to the U.S. On Monday last, during the discussion at the meeting of Waterford County Council on their Development Plan, the County Engineer stated in regard to the section of the Plan dealing with industries and water supplies that he was dealing with a current inquiry from an industrial source for a water supply of 1,200,000 gallons a day required quite close to Dungarvan.
After the meeting when I asked him, the County Engineer confirmed that the supply was required for the Ballinacorney area and this I understand is where Mr. Mulcahy proposed to have his new industry located. What are the chances of the industry coming? Almost certain I believe but the announcement will not be made for a little while yet. I understand that

Mr. Mulcahy will be returning from the U.S. shortly and has an appointment to meet Mr. J. D. Ryan, Chairman of the Dungarvan or Dublin where presumably a discussion on available labour resources, housing facilities and other aspects of the effects which a major industrial plant are bound to have in the area will take place.
I have no doubt that the people of Dungarvan will be looking forward to the firm public assurance that the industry is to be started here no less than the people of Ballinacorney where the "Gold Coast" will surely live up to its name when the project gets under way.

FATIMA GOLDEN JUBILEE

IN OLD DUNGARVAN
Last week I referred to the finding of an old tea bag printed with the name of Henry Dockery Family Grocer, The Square, Dungarvan, and asked for information as to where and when the house of Dockery traded in Dungarvan.
These well preserved copy of the tea bag, brought me a wealth of information about old Dungarvan in the form of a letter from Mr. J. D. Ryan, Chairman of the Dungarvan Confirmation Committee, dated September, 1967, which I got from the Dungarvan Confirmation Committee. The Journal which described itself as an "unillustrated monthly magazine of literature, news, advertisements, one of which was from the Henry Dockery tea bag. According to a full page spread in the paper, the address was given as Devonshire Square, carried on no men's business and the super-markets of the present time had nothing of the service he offers to the customers of Dungarvan and district in those days four score and four years ago. He assured his readers that "his present stock of really fine teas" could not be equaled anywhere for their purity and flavour and prices which varied from 2/- to 3/6d. per lb.
These teas came from China and India while coffee from Ceylon and East India was also available for the coffee drinkers. He offered sugar of several varieties and colours—brown, yellow, straw-coloured, white as well as brown and pale. Then there were spices, chillies and nutmegs, all kinds of dried fruit, groceries, dyes, dyes, washing soda and washing powder etc., biscuits, jams and jellies, candles, Broxton and Taylor do., soaps and cheese. He also included the finest wines and whiskies, ale and porter and mineral waters (Bewley and Hamilton, Lons and Co.).
Where did Henry Dockery have his shop? This baffled me until I met the man from Ballymore who told me that he knew more than anyone about old Dungarvan. I met Michael E. Curran and from him I learned that it occupied the site of the present site of the Lordship imparted his blessing

DRAFT DEVELOPMENT PLAN FOR CO. WATERFORD APPROVED
Waterford County Council at their quarterly meeting in Dungarvan last Monday considered and approved the draft development plan for the County including plans for the development of Lismore, Fermoy and Tramore. The draft, prepared by the County Engineer, Mr. J. D. Ryan, Assistant Co. Engineer, Mr. Tadg Lynch and members of the Co. Engineering Staff, was unanimously approved and after a period of months during which objections may be lodged against any section of the plan by the public, the plan will be adopted.
The Plan contains three sections: the first sets out the Planning Area, the second deals with the general position of the County and the third with Development Objectives relating to particular areas of the County.
Three of the main subjects dealt with in the plan are: water, sewerage and housing. In regard to water the report states: "The general position with regard to water in the County is quite good. All villages down to a population of 200 are already catered for. It appears that the expenditure of £50,000 per annum in pursuance of the Council's policy of minor water supplies coupled with the private development that will go on at the same time will result in a programme of about fifteen years duration to meet the needs of the County. There are a number of group schemes but this is a method which has not attracted much interest in the County and unless there is a significant increase in this interest, group schemes are unlikely to play a major part in the development of the County."
Referring to sewerage, the report stated that "group schemes are not as widespread as would be expected. It was the Council's objective to provide schemes in the near future in Adlish, Killybeg, Bonmahon, while the situation in such areas as Ballymore, Ballydun, Ballydun Upper and Lower, Rathgorman and Antles-

CONGRATULATED
After the Mass during which the confirmation ceremony took place, Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., welcomed the Bishop to the Parish and assured him of the loyalty of the parishioners of Garrymore, Ballinacorney and Abbeyside. He congratulated the teachers of the schools in the parish for the manner in which they had prepared the children and said that the Division Inspector of the Department of Education had informed him that the parish had the best group of teachers in the region from Cork to Clonmel. Mr. Roche also congratulated and thanked the parents for the way they had nurtured the children for the great occasion and then he congratulated the newly confirmed boys and girls and wished them all very happy days.
After the ceremonies the Lordship imparted his blessing
