

Mr. Joseph Power

We regret to record the death of Mr. Joseph Power, Ballykerin, Dungarvan, which took place on Saturday evening last at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, following a short illness.

Deceased had been in Dungarvan during Christmas time, when he was taken ill and removed to the hospital. Of a quiet and benevolent nature, he was extremely popular in the Cappagh area where he had many friends.

His sympathy is extended to his sorrowing sister, nephews and nieces.

The large congregation were present at the removal of the remains to Modelio Church on Wednesday evening and at the burial in the adjoining cemetery on Friday after requiem Masses. Very Rev. Fr. Mullins, P.P., and Rev. N. Coghlan, C.C., officiated.

Chief mourners—Mrs. B. Foley, Limerick; Mrs. Power, family.

Fitzgerald Terrace, Dungarvan; nephews, nieces and sisters-in-law, etc., etc.

Funeral arrangements were carried out by James Kilkenny & Sons, Undertakers, Dungarvan.

COUNTY BOARD REPRESENTATIVES

All the outgoing members,

John McKenna, the longest serving board representative in the county, and Eamon de Paor, who has helped

Tallow to the top, and the outspoken Paddy Wall, chairman of the campaign, have been nominated again and are definite starters. Their opponents will be Paddy Kennealy, whose name is not on the published list. Pat More, one of the men who inspired Lismore's hurling resurgence, Johnny Hogan, well-known as hurler and coachctor, Abbrevius, Jim Brannon, a devoted man, who has done great organising work throughout the entire Gaeltacht area, and Paddy O'Brien, one of Ardmore's best known representatives, and the others, including Paddy

Walsh, secretary of the football club, and well-known county footballer, and Eddie Cunningham, well-known as a player, and a club mate of Eamon de Paor, one of the outgoing candidates.

This is a very interesting list of the candidates, and whatever the outcome, the West is assured of excellent representation on the selector board.

It is a pity that one of the selectors, who one would have been missing from the list of candidates this year, will be the late John Joe Flanagan, who has always had much to contribute to these annual gatherings.

The convention is timed for 2nd January, and the agenda

if the head agenda is to be dealt with in a reasonable time. *

SYMPATHY

On account of our sad duty to offer sympathy to the relatives and friends and here we offer our condolences to the parents and family of John

Michael O'Connor of Fitzgerald

Talbot, whose sad passing during the week caused great grief. John Michael, in his very early twenties was a most likeable person and a dearable son and brother. He played his hurling with Abeyside and had the distinction of winning an under 21 medal in the first county championship held in years before collecting a junior hurling medal with the same club. Very little is known about him, but he died on Saturday night at his funeral on Saturday night.

May he rest peacefully in heaven. *

In response to enquiries regarding the need for the positioned county banner, I can state when this function will be held. It is, however fairly certain that the dinner will be held on the same date

as the county convention and Ash

Wednesday.

Tallow and Round About Notes

Flanna Fall Cumann's A.G.M. — The annual general meeting of Flanna Fall Cumann was held on Tuesday, 2nd January, at Tallow. Mr. George Armstrong, M.P., presided. There was a large attendance of members and the Chairman welcomed all present and said he was glad to see such a big membership. He congratulated the Cumann for the work done during the year which in view of the By-elections and Local Government election was a very busy one. He also thanked those who had given their services to the party and the Chairman welcomed Mr. James Coughlan, M.C.C. and Mr. Declan Quirke, M.C.C., on their election to Waterford County Council and sub-councils.

Mr. James Coughlan, Secretary, gave a detailed account of the work of the Cumann during the past year.

The Treasurer, Mr. Dan O'Brien, said despite a heavy drain on the Cumann's resources their finances were in good order.

Mr. Declan Quirke, Parliamentary Secretary to the Mins. for the Environment, attended in an address congratulating the Cumann on the large attendance present. It was a great year for Flanna Fall and continued Mr. Davey when he won the By-elections and were also very successful in the Local Government elections. He also had the highest ever Native election and in the South Tipperary/West Waterford constituency he secured a high collection in the State.

On the danger of Foot and Mouth disease, Mr. Davern said that by far the worst cations it would appear that the disease in Britain was on the wane. This would not give rise to any complacency whatsoever. We should remain all the more vigilant and determined to protect the Nation's position by ensuring that no slackness was shown at home while under the tremendous good work accomplished with the care to abandon sports fixtures and recreations such as hunting, coursing, shooting, fishing, G.A.A. and other outdoor pursuits. He also thanked those who organised their annual dinner dances from wide areas. It has been arranged by prominent organisations. There is also temptation by selfish organisations of the public interest of other organisations who have cancelled their functions. The Taoiseach and various members of the Government requested our exiles in Britain not to return at Christmas did not do so lightly. The magnificent response to their efforts was well appreciated. The sacrifice made by our exiles should be an example to all at home as we have had to make a little in comparison and the minor inconveniences we are asked to endure for the remainder of the year should be cheerfully accepted.

In conclusion Mr. Davern thanked our Church leaders at home and in Britain for their wholehearted co-operation.

The election of Officers resulted as follows:—Chairman, Mr. George Armstrong (outgoing); Vice-Chairman, Mr. John O'Donnoghue; Treasurer, Mr. Dan O'Brien (outgoing); General Secretary, Mr. James Connelan (newly elected). Delegates to the County Ceannair—Messrs. James O'Gorman and J. J. Barnes.

Other speakers at the meeting were Mr. Declan Ahearn, M.C.C. and Mr. James Quirke, M.C.C.

Matters deferred to a later meeting was the holding of the annual social.

Flanna Fall Cumann's A.G.M. — The annual general meeting of Kilwaterny Flanna Fall Cumann was also held on Tuesday night, January 2nd, at Our Lady of the Wayside Hall, Tallow. There was a very big attendance which included some ladies. Mr. Don Davern, T.D., Parliamentary Secretary, Mr. John Fahey, T.D., M.C.C., Mr. Declan Ahearn, M.C.C. and Mr. James Quirke, M.C.C.

Mr. James Tobin, Jr., Chairman, presided and welcomed the Parliament Secretary and Mr. John Fahey to the meeting. He also welcomed the County Councillors and all others present and said he was glad to see such a large attendance.

In the course of his address to the Cumann Mr. Davern said he was very pleased at the large attendance especially he was glad to see so many young people and the ladies taking an active interest in the organisation. He then dealt with threats of Fect and Monby and his remarks were almost identical to those reported in the case of the "Tallow" Cumann meeting.

Mr. John Fahey, T.D., spoke on the achievements of Flanna Fall Party in winning the four by-elections this year on the success of the party in the local government elections. He said that Flanna Fall he would not agree with this point of view.

A long discussion took place on this matter and it was decided eventually not to seek re-election. Other matters discussed were the changes in the colours of the jerseys from green to white with a green shamrock on the breast. This was agreed to.

Mr. Seán Ó Sé said he intended to form a school team in the United Parishes and this was confirmed to be present.

Mr. James Tobin, Jr., Chairman, gave a detailed account of the expenditure of the club during the year which amounted to £17,945 leaving a balance on hand. He thanked the other club officers for their help and support during the past year and looked forward to better things for the club during the coming season.

Mr. James Tobin, Jr., Chairman, also spoke and thanked the members for the work the club had done for the community. Rev. Canon Sean Murphy, Chairman, Rev. Charles Scanlon, C.C., Chairman, Mr. Sean Murphy, M.C.C., Mr. Tomás Ó Sé, M.C.C., Mr. Declan Ahearn, M.C.C. and their sub-councils.

The election of Officers was as follows:—Chairman, Mr. James Tobin, Jr. (outgoing) re-elected; Vice-Chairman, David Treasuror, Mr. Thomas Geary (newly elected); Hon. Secetary, Mr. John Fahey (newly elected); Delegates to Comhairle Ceannair—Messrs. Declan Ahearn, M.C.C. and George Mills.

Comhairle Ceannair. Miss Angel Daly, President, Tallow, left for England on Saturday, 6th January. Both popular young ladies we with them the best of luck on their trip.

Local T.D. Mr. P. Daly—The late Mr. P. Daly, Tallow, died on the 2nd January.

On the danger of Foot and Mouth disease, Mr. Davern said that by far the worst cations it would appear that the disease in Britain was on the wane. This would not give rise to any complacency whatsoever.

We should remain all the more vigilant and determined to protect the Nation's position by ensuring that no slackness was shown at home while under the tremendous good work accomplished with the care to abandon sports fixtures and recreations such as hunting, coursing, shooting, fishing, G.A.A. and other outdoor pursuits.

Decesased was country's strongest for independence and reached an advanced age. His wife, Mrs. Curran, who was his constant companion, died last year.

Decesased was a native of Dungarvan, having been born there 80 years ago, having been the source of deep sorrow not alone to his family, but to the entire community and the area where he proved an extremely popular young man.

She was mother of Rev. P. O'Riordan, S.D.B., Mr. S. D. O'Riordan, Mr. Declan O'Riordan, Co-Operative Society Limited, for the past seven years, where he proved a conscientious and efficient manager, and a host of less friends during the course of his work.
