A proposal by Mr. O'Ryan-that the Committee should present against the decision of National Teachers to take striks action in support of their pay claims fell through when it was not seconded.

Mr. O'Ryan proposed that they should protest in the strongest possible terms against the cachers decision. He said that 14,000 teachers were, by their action, holding the Minister and the children all over the country up to razsone. They should take a very serious view of the situation as these teachers of the wind of the tright to strike was a very important thing and this was a waster in which the disquight deep should move slowly. Those who contemplated taking strike action he said were also faced with grave obligations as a result of their decision. As he believed in the right to strike he could as second Ar.
