PENSMAN takes you Behind the Spotlight

THE APPARENTLY IMPOSSIBLE ACHIEVED Man has conquered space and landed on the moon and as most of us sat glued watching our television sets in the early hours of last Monday morning it was an awe-inspiring experience to see a human being step on to the surface of the moon for the first time and achieve what up to now seemed to be apparently impossible.

where dirty, uncleaned streets are concerned and we still think, despite the mechanical improvements in the equipment at their disposal, that there is room for a better and more efficient service. However, all the blame cannot be laid on the shoulders of the public authorities—the urban and County Councils. The general public, must themselves, accept a great deal of the responsibility for the dirty condition of our streets.

Years ago, those interested in science fiction followed the cartoon adventures of Dan Dare who was called the pilot of the future. We took it all with a grain of salt as we saw the daring Dan walk in space and make interplanetary trips in his space ship. Never in our lives would we see it, we thought. Now it has become a reality and man has, for the first time, moved on to another planet.

LITTER BUGS The streets of most of our towns present a dirty, untidy appearance and are winning no praise for us from visiting tourists. The litter problem has grown enormously in recent years but the attitude of the general public to it leaves a great deal to be desired.

Dungarvan Shark And Shanty Festival Had Sun All The Way

HUGE CROWDS FOR FINAL DAY The fine weather which has been accepted as a permanent part of the Dungarvan Festival Week did not fail to oblige last week and on Sunday when the final events in the Shark and Shanty Festival programme were held. On Sunday night there was a huge crowd—one of the biggest of the week—in town. On Saturday night the highlight of the week was the Starboard Talent Contest and later Friday night was crowded to the doors in anticipation of a great night. And the audience was not disappointed. For two-and-a-half hours, almost non-stop, they were given a variety of acts of very high standard in which some great talent was displayed.

On Thursday night the official opening of the 3-day international Sea Angling Competition was performed at the Sea Sports Officer's Board which raised the tri-colour to a fanfare of trumpets. Mr. Michael Moloney, Chairman, Dungarvan Sea Angling Club, speaking from in Irish, welcomed the visiting anglers and said that the occasion was also in Ireland but possibly the world. They were offering a prize of £100 for the angler who caught the largest fish of the world with prizes (Olympic style Gold (1st), Silver (2nd) and Bronze (3rd) Medals) which would be coveted in years to come.

NEW BOAT FOR DUNGARVAN Last Monday five members of Dungarvan Boat Club, the Company which has been providing the boats used by the Dungarvan Sea Angling Club, made the long journey to Bunbeg, Co. Donegal to take delivery of a new addition which will increase the fleet strength of the Company to four. They were Messrs. Gerard Walsh, John Flynn, John Mansfield, Nick Cleary and Dr. Mackey.

MISS MERMAID The grand finale of the Festival took place at the Marquee at Shandon on Sunday night when the final of the beauty competition, heats of which took place throughout the week, was held. The winner, who received the title "Miss Mermaid" and a cheque for £250, was Miss Mary Keating, Kilsenny, a student nurse at Arden.

Tallow and Round About Notes

Death Of Noted Tallow Born... The death took place in Dublin recently of Mr. Richard (Dick) Lynch. The late Mr. Lynch was born at West Street, Tallow, and held a very responsible position in the Department of Agriculture up to his retirement some years ago. He was brother of the late Mr. Andy Lynch, C.M., and son of the late Mr. John Lynch, West Street. He had several University degrees.

Bankers' Bend - A very dangerous bend exists on the Parkside/Kennally's Cross road at the old Kilwatermoy graveyard. And to make matters worse, trees on the right of the point are overhanging the road, so that visibility is almost completely obscured. Many near accidents have occurred there and as the roadway is narrow at the bend it does not improve matters. It will be too late to have the bend removed after some serious accidents have occurred there. We would request the County Council to at least have the overhanging trees removed.

On Holiday From England - Mr. John Leahy, Chairman of Parkside, is presently spending a holiday from England at the home of his father, Mr. Dick Leahy, Parkside.

Miss Janette Greene, Dunmore, Tallow.

Clonduff Sale of Railway Slopers - We received an important notice from Mr. Wm. Fennessy, Auctioneer, and Valuer, Fermoy, at Clonduff Railway Station, on Wednesday, July 30th at 12 o'clock, for the Board of Clonduff Railway Slopers. The slopers are very suitable for farmers and others. They will be sold in lots to suit purchasers. It is almost the last chance to acquire some of these valuable timber. Youghal Town Clerk Leaves - This has been a busy year for the Town Clerk, Mr. Frank Moloney, who has taken up the position of County Accountant, Westport. Frank has been Town Clerk at Youghal since 1958, and during that time the town has progressed beyond recognition. He took over as Town Clerk in 1958, and during that time he has been in charge of the education of the town, C.B.S. and St. Phelim's College, his first post was a reporter to a Provincial newspaper. He has been in the Local Government as a Clerk in Clonduff County Council and from there came to Youghal as Town Clerk.

FINE GAEL VICE-CHAIRMAN OUSTED FROM COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE

OUTGOING CHAIRMAN RE-ELECTED UNANIMOUSLY

The pattern set at the annual meeting of the County Council the previous week was followed at the annual meeting of the County Waterford Committee of Agriculture in Dungarvan last Friday evening when the outgoing Chairman was re-elected unanimously but the outgoing Vice-Chairman was ousted from the position of Vice-Chairman unanimously.

Mr. J. Fahey, T.D. (F.F.), the outgoing Chairman who presided at this stage said that it looked as if he had no choice but to accept this proposal as there appeared to be no chance of agreement on Mr. Walsh's suggestion.

Mr. Walsh then declared himself re-elected and said that he would accept Mr. Dowd's resolution proposing Mr. O'Ryan for the position of Vice-Chairman.

Mr. Walsh then formally proposed the re-election of the outgoing Vice-Chairman, Mr. H. R. Dowd, and this was seconded by Mr. W. Dowd, (F.F.).

Mr. Walsh then congratulated Mr. O'Ryan and wished him success and said he hoped he would appreciate the reason why they opposed him.

Mr. O'Ryan thanked all the members who had voted for his election and also those who voted against him. He bore no animosity against anyone for this. He was a member of the Committee since 1956 but this would be his first term as Vice-Chairman.

BOOK REVIEW

Missionary With A Mike, The Bishop Sheen Story, by Reverend Daniel P. Noonan. Published by Pagan Press, 101 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10003. $5.00.

The biography of Bishop Sheen is written by one of his former aides, Father Noonan, a native of Youghal. He views Bishop Sheen in a more than favourable light, nevertheless he does not let the Bishop's short-comings pass without a kindly and just judgment.

The authors estimation of the dynamic Bishop of Rochester, from beginning to end he has managed to pack his story with a host of anecdotes in a great human interest story. A vein of humor and wit pervades the book.
