THE BUDGET

In the days prior to the introduction of the 1970 Budget in the Daily Mail there was much surmise as to what it would contain in the form of new taxation or relief but it was generally accepted that it was going to be a tough budget. Forecasts were made that income tax would go up and that the prices of beer, liquor, petrol and cigarettes would again be hit.

However, the Minister for Finance wrong-footed all the experts in what has now come to be recognised as a most unorthodox budget by the course he adopted in the circumstances which prevail. He decided not to impose any new selective taxes on the occasion but found the money to balance the national accounts by merely doubling the turn-over tax.

£5,000 REWARD

The Garda Authorities have reason to suspect that there are some persons in County Waterford or in South Tipperary and east Lark who goona assist them in solving the murder of Garda Kenneth Rafter during the recent Dublin Bank raid and they wish to bring to the attention of the general public that there is a reward of £5,000 offered for any information which might lead to the apprehension of the persons responsible.

TO SETTLE AN ARGUMENT

I went to see the All-Ireland Colleges Senior Hurling Final in Dungarvan last Sunday and although this is not the column in which G.A.A. affairs are highlighted, I refer to the matter only because I was asked to settle an argument which arose out of the game.

THEY MADE A GALLANT SHOW

In the same issue (old newspaper files have a wonderful fascination for me) I saw a heading "Dungarvan L.S.F. Notes" which

NEW SPECIAL SCHOOL IN DUNGARVAN WILL COST AN ESTIMATED £42,500

ANNUAL MEETING OF ST. JOHN'S ASSOCIATION FOR HANDICAPPED CHILDREN

At the Annual General meeting of St. John's Association for Mentally Handicapped Children held at the C.B.S., Dungarvan, last Tuesday night it was disclosed by the Chairman of the Association, Mr. N. Walsh, M.C.C., Cappoquin, that the new school for the special education of the children being catered for from the region by the Association to be built in Dungarvan will cost an estimated £42,500. The meeting was attended by delegates from branches in Dungarvan, Cappoquin, Lismore, Ballyduff Upper, Ardmore, Kilmacthomas, Ballinacorney and Ballymacarbery.

THE SONGS OF OUR FATHERS

Our choice for the ballad corner this week is "The Songs of Our Fathers," a song in praise of all the ballads we have published here down through the years.

Oh! sing them on the sunny hills,
When days are long and bright
And the blue gleam of the shining rifts
Is loveliest to the sight!
Oh! sing them to the misty moor,
When ancient hunters roved,
And swell them through the torrens roar,
The songs our fathers loved.

RECENT PUBLIC APPOINTMENTS

On the recommendation of the Local Appointments Commissioners the following appointments have been made:—Mr. Philip G. Murphy, B.E., 4 Lime Trees Road, Douglas, Cork, as Assistant Co. Engineer, Waterford Co. Council. He was formerly Assistant Engineer with Mr. E. G. Pettit, Consulting Engineer, Cork; Mr. Peadar J. Murphy, B.Agr.Sc., Bniscrone, Co. Sligo, former Instructor in Agriculture, Co. Waterford; Mr. Seamus Dooley, Emmu Street, Tipperary, former Town Clerk, Tipperary U.D.C., as Town Clerk, Youghal U.D.C.; Mr. G. Geary, B.E., former Borough Engineer, Clonmel Corporation as Assistant Chief City Engineer, Cork Corporation.

NEW SPECIAL SCHOOL IN DUNGARVAN WILL COST AN ESTIMATED £42,500

even though we are still in temporary accommodation it goes well with our school. I was privileged to be at the party given to the children before the Christmas holidays and one could not fail to be impressed by the obvious improvement in the children, not only from the physical point of view but from the physical one also, and great credit for this is due to Mr. McCann, our Principal and to the teaching staff, religious and lay.

SIXTY-SEVEN ON ROLL

In a most informative and comprehensive address to the meeting Dr. M. E. O'Neill, Assistant Chief Medical Officer, paid tribute to all involved in the work of the Association and thanked the firm of Thomas Power & Co. Ltd., Dungarvan, the Dungarvan Junior Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Horace Dowd, Lismore, for donating a tape recorder, money and a transistor to the Association.

Mr. Walsh went on to say that in recent correspondence from the Department they learned that the estimated cost of the proposed new school was £42,500 towards which the Department would give a grant of five-sixths of the cost which would mean that the local contribution to be made would be a substantial one. "Consequently from now on," said Mr. Walsh, "we must direct our attention in no uncertain fashion to a fund-raising campaign for this specific purpose and each branch will have to play its part in this connection. Our principal source of income is our annual Church Gate Collection which will take place this year throughout the region on Sunday, May 31st. I would like to thank very sincerely all the Organisations, Associations and Clubs who contributed so generously to our funds during the past twelve months. We are deeply grateful for their kindly interest in our cause."

Mr. Walsh then went on to refer to the progress being made in the education of the children and said:

Mr. P. Power, Chairman, Dungarvan United A.P.C. presents a shield to Anselm Hayes to mark his selection on the Waterford Youth's team last season. The presentation was made at the Club's annual social held in the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Dungarvan last week. (See report on page four).

AWARDS PRESENTED TO 1969 SPORTS STARS

SUCCESSFUL G.A.A. COUNTY BOARD DINNER

The association came at a time when the soul of Ireland was dying. It was founded to save that soul. So said Mr. S. O. Maoldomhnaigh, former County Board, Chairman, when proposing the toast to the Gaelic Athletic Association at the Waterford G.A.A. County Board's Third Annual Dinner, held at the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Dungarvan, on Sunday night last.

This was the most successful County Board Dinner held to date. At the function presided over by Western Board Chairman, Nicholas Mac Craith, the awards were presented to the Sports Stars of the Year for 1969 by his Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. M. Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore.

Among the guests were recently elected Association President, Mr. P. O. Fainin, Cllr. William Jones, Mayor of Waterford, Mr. M. V. O'Donoghue, former President and County Board Chairman, and Rev. P. Cooney, C.C., Kilgobnet, representing the County Waterford Camogie Board.

Recipients of the awards were Abbeyside/Balinaacourty, Club of the Year; Pat Enright, Abbeyside/Balinaacourty, Waterford and Munster, Hurler of the Year; Michael Power, Tamore, Waterford and Munster, Footballer of the Year and Marie Gough, Gaultier and Waterford, Camogie Player of the Year.

Power who won two county senior football championships in '69, one with Tramore and one with U.C.C., had the distinction of keeping the footballer of the year award for the second year in succession.

Mr. O. Maoldomhnaigh said that the Association had great leaders in the past. These were changing times but the Gaelic Athletic Association had elected a man capable and prepared to face any challenge. He was said proud that Waterford could give such a man as Pat Fainin to the Association.

TRADITIONAL TO JUNGLES

Methods might change, Mr. O. Maoldomhnaigh said, but one thing could never change and these were the ideals and principles of the Association. He wondered how faithful the younger generation were to these principles. They found their entertainments in dance halls where the music was not traditional to this country but to the jungles of South Africa.

He appealed to all to pledge themselves and be loyal, not alone to the Association, but also to their language and culture. The sooner the work of the G.A.A., Gaelic League and Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann was combined he said the better it would be for the country and the stronger they would be.

Mr. O. Fainin in reply to the toast said it was a nostalgic occasion for him and he was proud and happy to be present as President of the Association.

NOT STATIC Mr. O. Fainin said the G.A.A. was an organisation of people which established its own traditions. It was an Association with principles, not static and not refusing to change. Because of this the President said it had emerged as a great National Organisation.

Although, he said, the games were the basis of their efforts they were no longer sufficient. They should look to the social activities and the amenities which go with fields, pavilions and dressing rooms.

Expressing appreciation at the manner in which the people of the County supported him, Mr. O. Fainin said it would give encouragement to any person in the County who would transpire to office.

Mr. Noel Dalton, Chairman, Eastern Board proposed the toast to the Gessus. In reply the Bishop, Dr. Russell, who paid glowing tributes to Mr. O. Fainin, said that tradition came from the schools and from the older members. He told those present: "go out and pass on the message. If you don't you are no good for the Association or for Ireland."

Mr. Nicholas Mac Craith in proposing the toast to Ireland said that it had been said the Association was changing and was waking up. He did not subscribe to the idea. They had never fallen away and had been leaders for generations.

Mr. Mac Craith thanked the manager and staff of the hotel for the excellent meal they had served. During the dinner, prior to the serving of the sweet the host provided a unique innovation when Piper Tom Fitzgerald of the Dungarvan Pipe Band marched into the dining hall and played a selection of Irish airs.

AWARDS The awards presented by the Bishop, consisted of a framed scroll, accepted on behalf of Abbeyside/Balinaacourty by Mr.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

CREAMERY AMALGAMATION

To the Editor Dungarvan Leader Dear Sir—On March 28th the "Irish Farmers Journal" reported that the I.A.O.S. (Irish Agricultural Organisation Society) had proposed the amalgamation of the County Creameries. The proposal was led by the Society's Vice-President, Mr. Jerome Buttiner. It appears that Mr. Buttiner stressed to the Minister that his (the Minister's) independent committee might confuse the real issues and cause undue delay in implementing the amalgamation of the creamery societies.

Rule 5 lays down that when a member of the committee takes any office of profit under the society he must vacate the committee. Rule 51 lays down that the committee may appoint and dismiss a secretary who may also receive a salary if he is a member of the committee or that they may arrange to have the secretarial work performed otherwise and to arrange remuneration therefor.

Now Mr. Buttiner has only one course open to him that is to get the required number of shareholder signatures to call a special general meeting (see the Castletroyan Rule Book) to straighten matters in his own creamery area first, amalgamation with Mitcheltown must, to comply with the law be voted in accordance with the Castletroyan society rules to be valid.

Now Mr. Buttiner will please without undue delay make a start on this very urgent job of work for Irish agricultural co-operation. I remain, yours sincerely, THOMAS SCANLAN, No. 86 Castletroyan, Bartlemy, 18.4.1970.

Go. Council Seeks Stronger Representation On New Health Board

RECOMMENDATIONS TO MINISTER APPROVED AT SPECIAL MEETING

Waterford County Council are to submit to the Minister for Health a number of recommendations on the draft regulations to be made in respect of the new Regional Health Boards. The recommendations suggested by a sub-committee were considered and approved by the Council with a number of additional recommendations, at a special meeting of the Council held in Dungarvan last Thursday night.

The following is a list of the recommendations made by the special committee submitted to the Council for approval:

(1) That Waterford County Council should have 3 members on the Regional Health Board, as in the case of the other Counties, and we feel that Waterford City, being a County Borough and having the functions and responsibility of a County Council, should likewise have 3 members on the Regional Health Board.

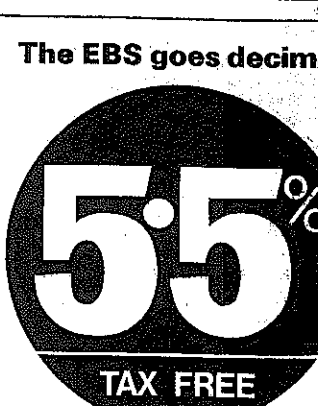

(2) That 60% at least of the Local Health Board should be appointed by the Local Authorities. (3) That terms of office of Regional Health Boards should be the same as for the Local Authorities, i.e. that members be appointed after each Local Election.

(4) That in the case of serious illness or other emergency involving it impossible for a Local Authority member to attend Meetings of a Regional Health Board, provision be made for the appointment by the relevant Local Authority of a substitute member to attend Meetings in his place.

(5) That there be an Annual Election of Chairman and Vice-Chairman and that the offices of Chairman and Vice-Chairman be held only by members of the Local Authorities. (6) That Meetings of the Regional Health Boards be held at least once in each month.

(7) That all Meetings of the Regional Health Board be open to the public and to the Press. (8) That Annual Estimates be prepared in Draft by Regional Health Boards and presented to the Local Committees for recommendations thereon before submission to the Minister or the draft Regional County Council should be made by the Rating Authorities and that Local Committees consult their respective County or County Borough Councils before making

More about decimals Knowing that .5 means a half, how do we find the decimal for a quarter and for three quarters? A quarter is, of course, half of a half. Divide .5 by 2 and we find it. The answer is .25. Remember the point and the fact that you can add ciphers after any decimal. For instance .5 or 10/- can be written as .50 as it will be in our new money system — meaning fifty pence. Three quarters or 15/- can be got by multiplying .25 — a quarter — by three, i.e. .75. Thus £1.65 will be written £1.25 £1.10s. will be written £1.50 and £1.15s. £1.75 the .25 .50 and .75 in each case standing respectively for 25, 50 and 75 new pence.

Obituary

MR. J. DONOVAN

Feelings of profound sorrow and regret were occasioned in Dungarvan and the surrounding areas at the death of Mr. John (Johnny) Donovan, Keating Street, Dungarvan, which took place in the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Tuesday, April 21st.

Deceased who had reached the grand age of ninety-three years had been ill for just a short period. The late Johnny Donovan had been a world wide traveller and had seen action in the Boer War and in World War I. Consequently his knowledge of general history and the remarkable narrations of his adventures as a young man made him a conversationalist par excellence.

Imbued with a great love for his native town and its people his warm personality and ever present good humour made him tremendously popular with people from all walks of life and among every age group.

Deep and sincere sympathy is extended to his sorrowing son, daughters, sisters, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law and grandchildren at his passing.

Large and representative corteges were present at the removal of his remains to St. Mary's Parish Church on Wednesday evening and at the burial in the adjoining cemetery on Thursday morning following Requiem Mass.

Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. N. O'Donnell, O.S.A., Rector, received and blessed the remains at the church gates while Rev. W. Callanan, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

MR. WM. LOOBY

The death of Mr. William Loohey, Touraneena, took place at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Sunday, April 26th, after a long illness and at an advanced age.

Sincere sympathy is extended to his relatives on their bereavement.

His remains accompanied by a large cortege were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church on Sunday evening and were blessed and received by Rev. B. Crowley, C.C.

WHAT IS THE COMMUNICATIONS INSTITUTE?

Irish Bishops Ask For Country Wide Church Collections

The Catholic bishops of Ireland have asked for a collection in the churches of every diocese on World Communications Day, Sunday, May 10th. They want £100,000 so that the Catholic Communications Institute may pay off its £200,000 debt and launch new projects to expand and co-ordinate the work of the Church in radio, television and the press.

The Institute was set up last October by the bishops when they merged the Communications Centre at Booterstown, Co. Dublin, with the Catholic Truth Society of Ireland and their own Communications Council of 30 people, mostly laymen and women.

The Institute inherited the heavy debt of its parent bodies. It has valuable assets—more than five acres with buildings and equipment at Booterstown, as well as the headquarters at Veritas House, Lower Abbey Street, Dublin—but there is a shortage of available cash.

The 48-year-old Dublin priest, Fr. Joseph Dunn who is well-known for his work with the Radiarc Film Unit and was director of the Communications Centre since it was set up in 1957, is now director of the new Institute. Dr. Morris, Archbishop of Cashel and Emly is president.

The bishops are taking their cue for this collection from the Vatican Council Decree on Communications which recommended an annual World Communications Day and added that Catholics should be encouraged, if possible, to contribute to the technical problems and expense involved in the use of radio and television. The most well-known activities of the Institute are the courses in television training at Booterstown where another Radiarc priest, Fr. Lemass has taken Fr. Dunn's place as director.

Television training, under former BBC, ITA and RTÉ main staff, includes courses ranging from one to eight weeks on television production, editing, script writing and how to make the best use of TV programmes for schools.

Courses in radio are under Fr. Pat Ahern from Co. Kerry. Journalism is under Douglas Barry, who is also director of working in Ireland for several years, first with advertising agencies and then on the editorial staff of the Irish Farmers' Journal.

More than 2,000 priests, nuns, teachers, students and laymen are now taken courses at the Centre and at least 25 per cent of them are working in radio and television in all parts of the world.

The Radio department produces a monthly bulletin, "The Radio Department", a programme of news and comment on current religious affairs for the evening on the Irish Farmers' Journal.

SUCCESSFUL DUNGARVAN UNITED A.F.C. SOCIAL

Dungarvan United A.F.C. held their Annual Social in the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Dungarvan, on Friday night of last week, and as in former years the affair proved successful beyond all expectations.

Over one hundred and thirty members and guests sat down to a delectable dinner in the dining hall which was decorated with the club colours, and with brevity the key note in the after dinner speeches the function went off smoothly and without a hitch.

The Chairman, Mr. Patrick Power, presided, and after welcoming all and thanking Mr. Joe Barry, Manager, and Staff of the hotel, for the wonderful meal they had served, he paid special tribute to the shopkeepers and business people of the town for the help they had given the club during the year and in providing spot prizes for the social.

Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., thanked the club for their generosity in inviting him to their function year after year, even though, he said, he never event went to their matches. He congratulated the club on the success they had during the year and wished them every success in the future.

SHOULD BE SUPPORTED

Rev. M. Faragher, C.C., said it was an honour for him to be asked to the social. He appealed for money for the Club. The youngsters had been neglected, he said, but it was a question of money then this should not stop them.

The members were not pulling their weight financially, he said, and appeals for finances should be supported.

Mr. Jim Scarsion, Chairman of the Munster Football Association, said that last year the tables had been bare but tonight there were trophies on it. Dungarvan had brought off a wonderful double in winning the Waterford & District Youth Cup and League. They were he said, unbeaten to date this season and it was up to the team to retain the cups. He also mentioned the fact that Dungarvan were in a position to take the Marquis of Waterford Cup as well this year.

Referring to the fact that the club were going to lose their grounds, Mr. Scarsion indicated that both the Waterford and District League and the Munster Football Association would do all in their power to help the club in this respect.

Mr. Michael Lyons, Secretary of the Club gave a brief run-down on the achievements of the Club during the year.

It is estimated that with an immediate £20,000 to re-acquire and modernise Veritas House the club would be profitable within two years and the company could sell films, tapes and video-tapes all over the world.

PROTEST AGAINST PROPOSALS TO CLOSE GARDA STATIONS

He had heard rumours that a number of Garda stations throughout the county were going to be closed, said Mr. P. Cahill at a special meeting of Waterford County Council last Thursday night in Dungarvan. Mr. Cahill said that such a thing should not be allowed to occur as in his view they did not even have enough Gardaí and these were the only protection which the people had.

He proposed that the Council protest to the Minister for Justice against any such proposals.

Mr. N. Walsh seconded the resolution which was passed unanimously.

I WAS DELIBERATELY SNUBBED SAYS CO. COUNCIL CHAIRMAN CHARGE AGAINST VOCATIONAL TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

Mr. C. Curran, Chairman of the Waterford County Council and a member of the County Vocational Education Committee, alleged last week that he was deliberately snubbed by members of the Vocational Teachers Association, not to invite him to attend the recent V.T.A. Congress held in Traamore, Co. Kerry, who was speaking at Monday's meeting of the Vocational Education Committee in Dungarvan said he had been purposely snubbed because in the past he had spoken out against the percentage system of granting salary increases.

The matter was raised by Mr. L. Comerford who said the Chairman of Waterford and the Commissioners had been invited to the official opening of congress but Mr. Curran alone had been ignored. It was an oversight on the part of the V.T.A. then it was a deplorable one and Mr. Curran was due an apology but he personally did not think it was an oversight, and he believed he had been ignored because of the fact that several years ago he had spoken out against the percentage system of granting increases whereby the man at the top of the scale got another £10 a week and the man at the lower end 10/-.

Mr. Curran he said, was never afraid to take the unpopular side. If he thought it was the right thing to do and it was on that account that he was not invited to the opening of the Vocational Education Committee should be strongly deplored. It was also an insult to Waterford County Council, the parent body in the county, and was a very bad example of public relations.

Mr. Curran said he intended to write to the V.T.A. pointing out that the Chairman of the County Council, Mr. Comerford, was not invited to the Congress. He did not consider it so much a snub on himself as on the County Council as a whole. He was a deliberate decision, taken by some members of the Vocational Teachers Association, not to invite him to the Congress and while he would not tolerate his name being taken personal snub he would not tolerate his colleagues on the County Council being snubbed.

Mr. Curran went on: "I have spoken out against the system of granting these percentage increases. I would also like to say with a real sense of responsibility that no teachers have snarled up relations here between the V.T.A. as a body and this Council. It was not too long ago since we had the spectacle of anonymous letter-writing, but I know who was involved in that and I will meet them in the future. I am not offering over my not being invited to Congress but I am very annoyed because my name was never mentioned. When Mr. A. Dooley asked if it was possible that it might have been an oversight, Mr. Curran assuredly reassured him that it was a deliberate snub that it was a deliberate snub. Mr. D. Aherne said he would deplore it if it was deliberate. Mr. Comerford—We should write to the V.T.A. pointing out the fact that Mr. Curran was not invited to the Congress. Mr. Curran said it was so important that was discussed at length and prompted by some members of the Vocational Education Committee should be strongly deplored. It was also an insult to Waterford County Council, the parent body in the county, and was a very bad example of public relations. Mr. Curran said he intended to write to the V.T.A. pointing out that the Chairman of the County Council, Mr. Comerford, was not invited to the Congress. He did not consider it so much a snub on himself as on the County Council as a whole.
