A MINI GAELTACHT

Dungarvan, the prairie-battle of the Deise country, will play host to a big gaelic gathering this week-end when over 200 delegates from all over the country will make it their headquarters for the Annual Ard Fheis of Conrath na Gaeltachta.

With this great influx of Gaelic people into the town, Dungarvan will surely be transformed into a mini-Gaeltacht for the week-end. The local branch of Conrath na Gaeltachta will be busy ensuring that a real Gaelic atmosphere will be created and maintained throughout the period.

The Ard Fheis proper will take place at the C.B.S. Hall and principal interest will undoubtedly centre on the discussions on the motions which will take place on Sunday. Although they number only a dozen, they are sure to provide the delegates with plenty to talk about and touch on several subjects.

In one motion R.T.E. will come under fire when a call will be made to make the cultural standard of the nation. A number of motions inside the hierarchy and church to Irish. One of these calls for the condemnation of the hierarchy and church for their lack of support for Irish, another requests the outlook of the Catholic clergy on Irish while another requests that it be made a duty of every Parish Priest to have one Mass a month said in Irish.

The position in the North will also be discussed on a motion which condemns the oppression of the Irish language by the Six Counties Government while inter-Parish affairs will be dealt with under a motion which calls on the Gaeltacht to formulate a policy on the E.E.C. bearing in mind the interests of the people regarding the consequences of membership.

These will provide the delegates with the serious work of the Ard Fheis but behind sport agus pleisir an leas will be dealt with in a number of motions which call on the local hotels and licensed premises. Ar son muintir Dungarvan agus Gaeltachta na Deise fearam for-chaoin faithe roimh gach naon a thiofadh cuimhne le leas na deise seachtain agus tuilleadh na mbeid ar-am aca go leir nar meabair.

THE BIG CHARITY WALK
The big charity walk of the Catholic Boy Scouts on Sunday last was a huge success and thousands of walkers in over 50 centres up and down the country stepped in to help a big number of charities

A REASONABLE ATTITUDE

It would appear that removing the town dump in Dungarvan from its old location at Shandon to the outskirts of the town at Ballinamuck has merely meant moving the problem from one place to another. This fact is evident from the discussion which took place at last Monday night's meeting of the Urban Council when Councillor Deasy stated that having visited the new dump on Monday he was appalled by what he saw and the obnoxious smell that pervaded the entire locality.

Apart from the manner in which the negotiations for the purchase of the land for the new dump were carried out I find that I had to agree with the decision of the Urban Council to find a new location as the conditions that existed at the old dump at Shandon, because of its proximity to the Co-operative Creamery and the town centre, could not be allowed to continue. The common good demanded this and even though no one wants a refuse dump close to his dwelling it was better that a few rather than a majority should be affected.

This, of course, does not mean that the few, unfortunate enough to find themselves in a new situation which was not of their choosing, should not be treated in the most reasonable manner possible and that all steps should be taken to reduce to a minimum any nuisance that may be caused.

Prior to last Monday night's meeting of the Urban Council there were complaints about the new dump and recently a deputation from the local Trout Anglers Association sent a deputation to the Council to express their fears that the nearby river Collihan could well become polluted by deleterious effluent from the dump. When the Council originally signified their intention to open the new dump at Ballinamuck, at least one of the local families made an objection to the granting of permission to the Council for the use of the land for this purpose.

I have been looking into the matter and find that following an appeal to the Minister for Local Government against the granting of planning permission, an order was made by the Department on November 19, 1968 granting the necessary permission but making it subject to certain conditions.

Among these conditions were the following: (1) the margin of the site shall be planted with hedges to act as a visual screen and retain dust and fumes to prevent unauthorised entry; (2) all necessary precautions shall be taken to prevent the entry to the river of noxious materials injurious to health, amenity or fish; (3) dumping shall be controlled so as to prevent any threat to public health or the creation of a nuisance to persons residing nearby and (4) on completion of dumping the area shall be levelled, sowed and seeded and made suitable for such use as may then seem appropriate.

These regulations, leave no doubts as to the responsibility of the Urban Council where the dump is concerned and in asking the people living near the dump to maintain a reasonable attitude, they themselves must also adopt a similar line and live up to these responsibilities. It is not just good enough to foist such an unwanted thing as a dump on the people of any locality without taking the necessary precautions to ensure that it does not create a continuous annoyance.

The people now know the conditions under which the Council was granted permission to locate the dump in this area and if they feel they are not being observed when they can take the necessary action to see that wherever nuisance exists is abated.

Incidentally the order of the Department granting the permission to the Council was signed by the then Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Local Government, Mr. Paudge Brennan who was one of the men who resigned from the Government following the recent general election.

THE COMICAL BOY

Our choice this week for the ballad corner is Brian na Banban's "The Comical Boy".

A stóirín, O how can you cease
When you know that I'm faithful and true;
Sure my heart is as light as the breeze
Whenever I'm looking at you.
There isn't a land or a throne,
Or anything under the sun,
But I'd give for one jewel alone,
A jewel that's hard to be won.

And O Reisin, a stóirín,
No palace or castle for me;
I'd rather a cot in a boathouse,
With you in it, stóirín mo chroí.

You give me a glance of your eye,
I dance in the height of my joy;
Then you say with a sort of sigh,
"Mhaise now, you're a comical boy."
You frown and I wish I were dead,
You smile and I'm anxious to live,
Sure I'd rather one hair of your head
Than the riches the world could give.

A stóirín, I'll wait for the word,
I know that you'll speak it some day,
And then, with a heart like a bird,
I'll bear you in triumph away;
And there won't be a happier pair
From far-away Foyle to Fenway.
When your beautiful self is my share,
And yours is the "comical boy."

And O Reisin, a stóirín,
No king will be equal to me,
When I come to that cot in the boathouse,
With you in it stóirín mo chroí.

COUNTRY STYLE
A new name which has been cropping up regularly of late on the showband scene is that of Bill Ryan lead singer with the Hottentots, the seven-piece country outfit which is beginning to make a name for itself. Bill, who is a 22 year old son of a farmer from Burtonport, Co. Donegal, seems to be headed for a big hit with his debut disc "Mighty Lonesome" which was released this week.

The song is an original, co-written by Dungarvan born Mai O'Higgins and former band-

NEW CO. COUNCIL ROAD SIGNS HAVE DOWNGRADED STATUS OF DUNGARVAN AND YOUGHAL

COMPLAINTS AT URBAN COUNCIL MEETING

Complaints were made at the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last Monday night that signs recently erected by Waterford County Council on the main Waterford-Cork road at Tarr's Bridge, two miles outside Dungarvan, have resulted in downgrading the status of the towns of Dungarvan and Youghal.

Mr. T. Kynne, Chairman, stated that the Chairman of Youghal Urban Council had been trying to contact him and he understood that it was in regard to this matter. Although he had not seen it for himself as yet he understood that the road signs at the junction at Tarr's Bridge had recently been altered by the County Council. The new signs and road markings appeared to him to indicate that the "Military" Road which by-passed Dungarvan and Youghal indicating to tourists the road to Killarney was now the main road and that the Waterford-Cork road which passed through Dungarvan and Youghal was to be regarded as a secondary road.

Mr. P. Whelan pointed out that new markings and road signs for which the County Council were also responsible at the Master McGrath Monument at Ballymacmague now indicated that the road from Clonmel was the main road as a stop sign had been erected on what was always regarded as the "through" road up to this.

REDUCED STATUS
"I know that this action by the County Council," said Mr. Whelan, "has reduced the status of Dungarvan and the local Junior Chamber of Commerce are considering erecting another sign at Tarr's Bridge indicating to tourists the direction to be taken into Dungarvan. I think that the only

CLASHMORE NEARLY CAUSE UPSET AS MITCHELS COLLAPSE

Thrill Packed S.F. Clash

John Mitchels 2-9; Clashmore 2-6.

A first half display of superlative football by Mitchels, a bewildering second half reversal which saw Clashmore rock the favourites and almost snatch a dramatic win, interspersed with some thrilling goalmouth incidents and thrill packed sequences made this first round senior football championship game one of the best clashes in this grade seen at the Frasier Field, Dungarvan, for many a long day.

Sunday night last was baptism night for Clashmore in the senior grade and what a debut last year's champions had as they came within inches of causing a complete upset. They were literally wiped off the field by as complete a football side ever to grace the venue in the first half as Mitchels, perfectionists in every department, romped to a comfortable 1-3 to 1-1 interval lead, after shooting at least twice as many wides. But it seemed that the Clashmore side could afford the luxury of so many misses so completely were their dominance and so superb their skill.

Wish Tom Gough and Vinny Kirwan winning complete control at midfield and their forwards, in particular Tom Power, Pat Morrissey and Oliver Connors, were performing with devastating effect up front. Scores came fast and furious and by the 11th minute Mitchels were 1-3 up with no return from the losers.

Not in the least over-awed by these early advantages Clashmore showed fighting spirit when Finbar Hallahan finished off a great self executed move by fisting to the Mitchels net in the 16th minute. Within seconds, however, Michael Kirwan struck the crossbar at the other end with a response that before Vinny Kirwan sent over another minor for the winners.

Tom Power added a point from a free for Mitchels to which Liam Rourke replied in kind for Clashmore but Mitchels had the last say when Oliver Connors finished the first half scoring with a point to leave them 1-8 to 1-1 ahead at the break.

HAVOC It seemed all over with Clashmore well and truly destined for the losers group at this stage. Mitchels whose mastery of short passing movements and quick free kicking was causing so much trouble to Clashmore, were a football side supreme in this first half and few could visualise their all but total collapse in the second half as a casualness, which might easily have proved fatal, swept into their play.

Both sides showed several positional changes on the resumption. Mitchels moved Noel Kirwan to full back, Tom Gough moved to the "forty," with Tony Whelan moving to partner Vinny Kirwan at midfield.

The Clashmore switches which saw Vinny Rourke take over at full back, Pat O'Neill move from the flank to centre back, Liam Rourke moving from attack to defence to partner Mitchels danger man Tom Power and Jimmy Rourke move from full-back to full forward, were the moves which paid dividends. Within seven minutes of the restart Jimmy Rourke had sent over four points from frees as a completely revitalised Clashmore side took advantage of a slackness on the part of the winners to set up some fine striking movements.

UNLUCKY Despite a Vinny Kirwan goal in the 10th minute Mitchels failed to produce their first half form and Clashmore were extremely unlucky when Pat White shot wide from point blank range in the 13th minute.

Mitchels were under severe pressure and their lead was cut to five points when Jimmy Rourke pointed a Clashmore free in the 16th minute. A minute later there was only two points in it when Finbar Hallahan scored for Clashmore from a Pablo Rourke centre.

Vinny Kirwan increased Mitchels lead to three points with a minor in the 21st minute but for the remaining nine minutes it was all Clashmore and many will argue that luck was not on their side when a full-blooded shot from Finbar Hallahan screamed across the goalmouth in the 26th minute, was intercepted by goalkeeper Hum who failed to hold the shot, but happily saw the ball roll harmlessly over the line for a "50."

With it went Clashmore's chances of creating a major shock but the justice of the result taking all things into consideration, cannot be disputed.

Mitchels display in the first half was one of the best seen from a side at any venue in the county for quite some time. Going on this form alone they must be earmarked to go the distance this year, despite their unaccountable second half collapse.

FEW WEAKNESSES There were few weaknesses in the side in this first half, but perhaps their greatest worries lie in

BALLINACOURTY DISPOSE OF EIRE OGE

Ballinacourty 1-10; Eire Oge 1-4

Ballinacourty found little difficulty in disposing of Eire Oge in their first round junior football championship game played at Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

Even though they were made pre-much favourites, the Dungarvan club fielded without some of their better players, carried too many passengers, especially in defence to offer any serious challenge to the side which they conquered in the semi-final of the same championship last year.

Only once in the game did Eire Oge strike the front. This was in the tenth minute of the first half when a goal by Joe Woods wiped out an early two point Ballinacourty lead.

But the Abbeyside/Ballinacourty combination fought back to retrieve a two point lead 1-3 to 1-0 by the interval.

Twice during the second-half, in the 10th (1-4 to 1-3) and in the 20th (1-5 to 1-4) minutes Eire Oge came to within a point of the winners but when vigorous pressure was applied the losers defence completely collapsed to leave the winners through for a 4th of match winning scores in the final ten minutes.

OUTSTANDING DEFENDERS

Denis Flynn, John Hayes, Nicholas Cashin and Jimmy Fraher were Ballinacourty's outstanding defenders. Humphrey Keilher and Joe Flynn had things mostly their own way in the centre of the field, while Brendan Lynch, Michael Cosgrave, Jessie Leaders and Donald Whelan all contributed in attack. Pat Moore and Jimmy Keohan fought valiantly in defence for the losers. Tony Moore fought a gallant but lone battle at midfield, while Pat Walsh, Mickey Fraher and Billy Monahan all tried hard in attack.

Scorers - Ballinacourty - M. Cosgrave (1-2); B. Lynch (0-3); J. Leaders and N. Cashin (0-2 each); J. Flynn (0-1); Eire Oge - J. Woods (1-1); P. Walsh, D. Walsh and M. Fraher (0-1 each). Referee - M. McGrath (Dungarvan).

TRICOLOUR FLAG OVER LISMORE CASTLE

DUCAL RESIDENCE OCCUPIED BY SINN FEIN

Residents in the Lismore area were amazed on Saturday afternoon when they saw the Irish Tricolour flying from the flag pole on the tower of the castle. The Irish residence of the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, normally the home of the Duke and Duchess, was taken over by the Sinn Fein Organisation had taken over the castle and over the week-end the town became the centre of attraction and made the headlines in the national papers and television while many English newspapers also carried the story of the "occupation" of the Duke's castle.

The siege began on Saturday afternoon when the men stormed a side gate into the castle as the caretaker staff left at work. Seconds before the gate was opened by the men a fleet of cars, carrying the Sinn Fein members pulled up on the road nearby. The head caretaker, Thomas Donoghue, was in the town shopping at the time of the "take-over."

For 15 minutes the men roamed through the building before hoisting three flags, the flag of Sinn Fein, the flag of the Plough and Stars on the tower. They then set about barricading the entrance into the building and removed furniture from several rooms to block the main stairs leading to the tower.

The raid was planned last Sunday week when a group of men dressed as tourists visited the castle which was open to the public. During the visit they drew detailed sketches of the inside of the castle and the ground and during the week analysed plans for the "take-over."

Minutes after they moved in, at 5 p.m. on Saturday, Special Branch detectives from Waterford and Dungarvan, as well as gardai from Carraigún, Dungarvan, Cork, Malton, Fermoy and Waterford surrounded the castle. Chief Superintendent M. Costello, Superintendent M. Sills, Tramore, Superintendent M. O'Shea and J. Winters, Waterford, and Detective Sergeant P. J. Hayes, Waterford rushed to the scene. Following talks in Lismore Garda Station late on Saturday night, the garda officers who had been in touch with the Sinn Fein Commissioner in Dublin by telephone, decided they would attack the castle through a basement door.

Early on Sunday morning an eight-hour siege of the castle ended when 150 Special Branch detectives and gardai stormed the building. They forced open a basement door into the castle, smashed

New Dungarvan Dump Causing Air Pollution

COUNCILLOR ABSOLUTELY HORRIFIED BY CONDITIONS

He had received complaints about the new town dump at Ballinacourty and had gone to see it that day said Mr. A. Deasy at the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council held last Monday night. He was absolutely horrified by what he saw. He recalled that an Anglers' deputation had been before the last meeting of the Council about the possibility that the river Coligan would be polluted by the dump but he was now concerned about the air pollution it was causing.

"I heard," said Mr. Deasy, "that the dump had been set on fire and that there was a terrible smell but I didn't believe the reports. However, after being out there today I feel that the complaints made to me by the residents of the area are fully justified. The whole place was covered in a pall of smoke and there was a most obnoxious smell and the entire area was affected like this over the week-end as the weather was close and foggy."

Mr. Deasy went on to say that while many people live in the area near the dump, they as a Council had a duty to the people who did live there to see to it that the dump was not set on fire. He was one of the members of the Council who was responsible for having the new dump placed there but he was going to see to it that as little nuisance as possible was caused to the residents of the area by it. He asked who was responsible for setting fire to the dump, Mr. J. P. Robinson, Town Clerk, said that what people went to the dump to find what they could salvage there and it appeared that some of these set fire to the place in the night time. It was quite common to see the place smouldering at times. He also said that smouldering ashes were sometimes blown out in bins and these were taken to the dump and could be responsible for some of the fires. However, he felt that most of the fires were deliberate rather than accidental. Mr. Deasy said that he saw fires at 5 or 6 different places when he visited the dump and he was told that it had been smouldering over the whole week-end. He said that anyone found setting fire to material at the dump should be prosecuted. He was sure that any pollution of the river could be stopped and he added: "surely we should be able to stop this burning there as it is polluting the air of the whole district."

Mr. P. Whelan said that the problem was that the dump was so far outside the town it was hard to supervise it properly. DUMPING ON SATURDAYS Mr. Whelan went on to say that many of the traders in the town found it hard to dispose of refuse and material to be dumped on Saturday evenings. He suggested that if arrangements could be made to open the dump for an hour, say between 5 and 6 o'clock on Saturday evenings, traders could dump their stuff there in their own vans. If this was not done, he said that they would have to throw the stuff in over the gate at the dump as they had no storage and could not hold the stuff over during week-ends.

The Town Clerk said that it would be possible to arrange to have the dump opened for an hour on Saturday evening, to facilitate the traders as requested. He added that he would have a notice of the times published in the local papers.

COMPLAINTS OF OBSTRUCTION IN DUNGARVAN HARBOUR

Boat Owners To Discuss Matter With Engineer

When Mr. A. Deasy moved a resolution at last Monday night's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council proposing that objections in the harbour near the vicinity of the "110" buoy off Abbeyside Point be removed, he was informed by the Town Clerk, Mr. J. P. Robinson that a report on the matter had been submitted by the Town Engineer, Mr. P. Walsh, B.E.

The report stated that the obstruction had been caused when a boat going to the quay to discharge a cargo went aground there. As it would cost a considerable amount of money to remove the obstruction he saw no reason to remove it as it would disappear in time by the action of the tides.

Mr. Deasy said that the engineer's report was a contradiction of what he had seen and what people who used the harbour had told him. At low water he said that the obstruction was visible and it was a danger in the channel. "From half tide to low tide," said Mr. Deasy, "it is a nuisance to navigation and to the anglers, boats being used in the harbour and the people using these boats are afraid that serious damage will be caused. I do not agree with the Engineer's report and any member of the Council can go and see the position for themselves."

Mr. T. K. Kye, Chairman, said that the Council was pretty badly handicapped where matters of the kind were concerned as normally they would be referred to the Harbour Master. Now they had to be referred to the Town Engineer and he had stated that the obstruction was not actually in the harbour channel.

"I would suggest," said Mr. Kye, "that the Boat Association take this matter up as they are the people who own these boats."

Mr. P. Whelan - Let them see the Engineer's report and then discuss the matter with him. Mr. D. Goode said that he had received complaints about the obstruction and was told that at full tide there was only about 4 feet of water clear.

It was finally agreed to request the members of the Boat Association to discuss the matter with the Engineer.

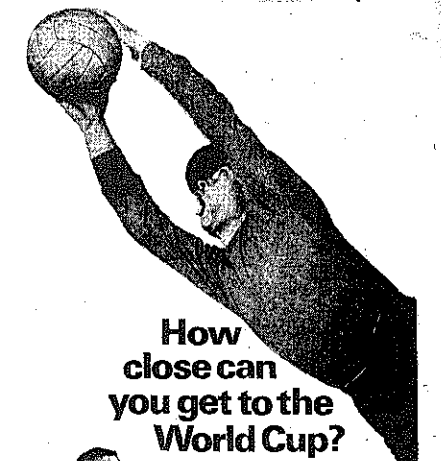

DUNGARVAN BRASS AND REED BAND RETAIN ALL-IRELAND CUP

The Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band were awarded the J. A. Williams Trophy for Intermediate Brass Bands for the second year in succession at the National Brass and Reed Band Championship held at Dun Laoghaire on Sunday last. The band in the opinion of the adjudicator reached the required standard and number of marks and as the Kells and Arklow Brass Bands withdrew at the last moment he had no hesitation in awarding the Dungarvan Band the Trophy.

Dungarvan came second in the Players-Willis Cup for the Piece of their own choice (Welsh Gwent) for Brass and Reed Bands. After were winners with 18 points out of 20. Dungarvan scored with 17 and Clonow 3rd with 15.

This was a praiseworthy effort by the Dungarvan Band who had left Dungarvan, Mr. Michael A. Henneberry, through illness and had to get Mr. D. Sullivan of Waterford at the last moment.

The EBS goes decimal 5.5% TAX FREE

Equal to almost 8.5% gross Paid on Shares by the EDUCATIONAL BUILDING SOCIETY ASSETS £19.5M More about decimals Knowing that 5 means a half, how do we find the decimal for a quarter and for three quarters? A quarter is, of course, half of a half. Divide 5 by 2 and we find it. The answer is .25. Remember the point and the fact that you can add ciphers after any decimal. For instance, .5 or 10/- can be written as .50 as it will be in our new money system - meaning fifty pence. Three quarters or 15/- can be got by multiplying .25 - a quarter - by three. i.e., 75. Thus £1.75 will be written £1.25 £1.10 will be written £1.50 and £1.15a, £1.75 the .25 .50 and .75 in each case standing respectively for 25, 50 and 75 new pence. E.
