A NEW PLAN

The manner in which industrial relations have failed to operate in this country in recent years must be a matter of grave concern. We have had a series of national disputes which have done nothing to help the economy while at local level we have not been completely free from trouble either.

There is something gravely wrong with a system under which many hundreds of people can be thrown out of employment through no fault of their own when those not involved in a dispute find themselves forced out of work. This was the case in the recent cement strike which brought the building and construction industry to a virtual standstill. It also happened locally during the construction of the Quigley Magistrate's Place at Ballinacorney when groups of workers placed unauthorised pickets at the plant and it thus kept the entire work force out.

At the annual meeting of trade union students at the College of Industrial Relations in Dublin, some time ago, the Director of Studies, Rev. Kevin Quinn, S.J., stated that if workers continued to refuse to pass pickets not authorised by the unions they were doing a grave disservice to the cause of trade unionism.

A new move to remove this confusion over picketing during strikes was presented at this week's annual delegate conference of the Irish Congress of Trade Unions in Cork gets sufficient backing to the point which will be clarified.

The new plan aims as from October 1st at regularising picketing to an extent never before achieved and comes at a time which sees mounting criticism about the national interest in industrial disputes. There can be no doubt but that this is a matter on which clear guidelines are required to eliminate confusion and end abuses as well as clearly to indicate whether or not a picket has official backing. Under the plan, the Irish Congress of Trade Unions will become the recognised body to issue picket placards in any trade dispute where the picket has been placed for the purpose of stopping all workers from passing. However, individual unions would still be able to place pickets under their own names but these would be interpreted within the movement as meaning that the dispute is confined to the union concerned.

The interests of our industrial development and the national economy as a whole demand that the plan be approved. We must simply realise that disputes which involve the whole country cannot be allowed to drag on interminably and that it is better to solve them sooner than later and also that unofficial strikers should not have the power to involve other innocent groups.

We cannot afford a continuation of situations which allow these things to happen. There is urgent need for more goodwill on all sides.

ANOTHER WEEK END OF TERROR

It was another week-end of bloodshed and terror in Belfast last week-end when the Catholic community of the Falls Road area were subjected to one of the most distressing and vicious actions which any minority group could possibly undergo. The manner in which the entire area was sealed off from all communication with the outside world while units of the British Army ransacked property was absolutely appalling and when news came with experience of warfare in other parts of the world, men were allowed to go through the iron grip security of the army they even gasped at what they saw.

The manner in which this Catholic section of the community was singled out for this terrible treatment indicates clearly the attitude of the Stormont Government and also pinpoints the strength of the influence which the Orange Order wields over this Government. While Stormont Ministers talk about liberal reforms which are to be enacted for

Judge Refuses To Adjudicate In Tallow Slander Action

CLAIM FOR £600 DAMAGES ADJOURNED

There was a surprise turn in an action for slander listed for hearing at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday when Judge Fawcitt informed Counsel for the plaintiffs concerned that he proposed not to hear the case. The barristers and solicitors representing both parties were present in Court when the case was called.

The action was one in which Miss Madge Mounsey, The Cottage, Lisfinny, Tallow, claimed £600 damages against William O'Hara, Aglish, Glencain, Co. Waterford for alleged slander in statements made by the defendant concerning the plaintiff on or about June 18, 1968.

Mr. D. Goldberg, B.L. (instructed by G. Y. Goldberg, Solicitors, Cork), was for the plaintiff and Mr. F. Morris B.L. (instructed by E. A. Ryan and Co., Solicitors) was for the defendant.

As Mr. Goldberg began to open his case, Judge Fawcitt referred to the fact that he had already heard the background evidence to this case in another action involving the same parties which came before him at this year's February sessions.

Mr. Goldberg stated that the previous case involved a claim for wages.

Judge Fawcitt then said that if the case was to go ahead he would prefer if it were heard before another Judge as he held certain views since the last case. He went on to say that if the parties insisted he would hear the case but in the circumstances he proposed not to hear it as he thought he could not do justice to the parties concerned having heard the other case which he now understood was the subject of an appeal.

Mr. Morris said that this was so and the appeal was down for hearing in October.

Judge Fawcitt then stated that he would adjourn the present case with liberty to re-enter and if the parties still wished to proceed with the case he would arrange with a colleague to hear it.

(N.B.—At the February sessions William O'Hara made a claim for £287-15-6 against Miss Mounsey and another defendant alleged to be due for work done and services rendered by the plaintiff for the defendants between 1967 and 1968. Having heard the evidence, Judge Fawcitt dismissed the claim with costs.)

THE GRAVE OF WOLFE TONE

The eyes of the country were turned towards Bodensown a few weeks ago when the annual pilgrimage to the grave of Wolfe Tone drew thousands of people. This song was written by Thomas Davis in the days of the Young Irelanders after he had made a similar pilgrimage.

In Bodensown churchyard there is a green grave, And wildly around it the winter winds rave; Small shelter I seen are the ruined walls there, When the storms sweep down on the plains of Kildare.

Once I lay on the sod that lies over Wolfe Tone, And thought how he perished in prison alone; His friends unavenged and his country unfreed: "Oh bitter!" I said "is the patriot's meed."

I was woke from my dream by the voices and tread Of a band that came into the home of the dead; They carried no corpse and they carried no stone, But they stopped when they came to the grave of Wolfe Tone.

There were students and peasants, the wise and the brave, And an old man who knew him from cradle to grave; And the children who thought me hard-hearted for they On that sanctified sod were forbidden to play.

But the old man who saw I was mourning there, said: "We come, sir, to weep where young Tone is laid, And we're going to raise him a monument too. A plain one, yet fit for the simple and true."

My heart overflowed and I clasped his old hand, And I blessed him and blessed every one of his band; "Sweet, sweet 'tis to find that such faith can remain, To the cause of the man so long vanquished and slain."

In Bodensown churchyard there is a green grave, And freely around it let winter winds rave, For better they suit him, the rain and gloom, Till Ireland, a nation, can build him a tomb.

GARRANBANE SCHOOLBOY WINS TRIP TO CASABLANCA

A 12-year-old pupil of Garranbane National School, Dungarvan, has won a round trip to Casablanca in the 15,000 tons "Irish Prince" of Irish Shipping Ltd. He is Denis Looby, one of a family of 5 children, who in his off school hours helps his father on their farm at Clonca. He will be accompanied by his mother on the trip. This was the prize which Denis won in the Irish Shipping sponsored Essay Competition held in conjunction with the company's "Follow The Fleet" scheme for schools.

Competitors were drawn from the pupils of more than 500 schools from all over Ireland. The scheme enables school children to follow the movements of the Irish Shipping fleet each week on maps provided by the company and is designed as an aid to the teaching of geography.

BALLYSGAGART EJECTMENT CASE

A Land Commission agreement was referred to in a case in which Mrs. Margaret Stack, Feagarid, Ballysgagart, Lisimore, sought the recovery of a house and outbuildings from Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Devine of the same address.

Mr. F. Morris B.L. (instructed by E. A. Ryan & Co., Solicitors) was for the plaintiff and Mr. D. Budd B.L. (instructed by P. O'Meara & Son, Solicitors) was for the defendants.

Mr. Morris stated that this was an ejectment bill on the title under which plaintiff sought possession of a house at Ballysgagart-moore which was let to the defendants by the plaintiff in 1963 only until such time as the defendants were able to get another house.

Mr. Budd told the Court that

DUNGAN'S EXPERIENCE PROVED A MATCH WINNER

Clashmore Defeated in Rip Roaring Struggle

Clashmore 2-12
Dungarvan 2-6

Clashmore's experience proved a match winner at the Frater field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last when their greater craft and ability saw them safely through in a rip roaring, soundly intermediate hurling championship clash with Clashmore.

It was Clashmore's first outing in this grade but while they were outplayed and outwitted they certainly showed plenty of guts and sheer effort were worth more than their final 2-6 tally.

Not that Colligan did not deserve their win. For they matched their opponents in every respect and were not found wanting when the chips were down in the second half as Clashmore battled furiously for those elusive match winning points.

Colligan did most of the attacking in the first half and were well worth their 1-8 to 0-2 interval lead.

They were in complete control at midfield where Sean Wall and Paddy Walsh were far too good for John Hogan and John Daly. Consequently an overworked Clashmore defence were hard pressed by the first moving and industrious Colligan attack.

Colligan were 0-6 to 0-1 up when a shot from a Paddy Ahearne free went direct to the Clashmore net in the 19th minute. Two points later before Clashmore had their second score of the game, a Liam Rourke point just at the interval.

The second half produced a tremendous struggle as Clashmore, with a rearranged side, fought tooth and nail to get back into the game.

PUNCH
Liam Rourke who moved from defence added much needed punch to the attack and by the 6th minute of the second half they had cut Colligan's lead to 6 points (1-9 to 1-3). Within minutes Paddy Walsh had crashed home Colligan's second goal but Claude Fitzgerald shot Clashmore back into

SUPERIOR FITNESS SEES FOURMILEWATER THROUGH

Fourmilewater 4-8
Dungarvan 2-2

Had Dungarvan's fitness matched their enthusiasm they could have surprised favourites Fourmilewater in their first round intermediate hurling championship game at the Frater field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

For although Fourmilewater had twelve points to spare at the finish it had taken them three-quarters of the hour to master a Dungarvan side, short several of their more prominent players.

It was in the final quarter that the Ballymacbray men's superior fitness, (they were much stronger physically) saw them pull away from Dungarvan to snatch the match winning scores.

Up to this Dungarvan had matched the winners in virtually every sector and could count themselves rather unlucky to be trailing 2-3 to 1-1 at the interval.

A Michael Power goal in the 12th minute of this half brought them within two points of the winners but then when they seemed to be coming to grips with the game a long probing shot from Mick Connolly deceived juvenile goalkeeper Patsy Hackst to end up in the Dungarvan net.

Strangely enough it was Dungarvan who did most of the attacking early in the second half. With Michael Mahoney and Sean Murphy giving them an even break in the centre of the field their efforts grew in intensity and by the 13th minute they were again holding the winners to two points (2-4 to 2-2).

But in the final quarter it became more obvious that Dungarvan lacked staying power as Fourmilewater spurred on by an Austin Barton goal in the 15th minute went on to register a further 1-4 with no reply from the losers.

There was very little good hurling in a game which attracted few spectators. Fourmilewater disappointed to a certain extent and their anticipated "easy passage" to the next round was curtailed by an attack which failed to get a full return from some easy scoring chances and against a Dungarvan

AMBIGUOUS APOLOGY

Msgr. Ronald Knox once told of a Scottish clergyman who approached to his congregation for not having prepared his sermon.

"He said: 'I had to fall back on the prompting of the Holy Spirit but actually it I had a little more time I would do better myself.'

A kindly act is a kernel sown. That will grow to a goodly tree. Shedding its fruit when time has flown. Down the Gulf of Eternity.

GUINNESS OAKS DRAWS INTERNATIONAL FIELD

TWENTY-SIX ACCEPTORS FOR IRISH CLASSIC AT CURRAGH

Last Wednesday marked the final acceptance stage for the Irish Guinness Oaks to be run at the Curragh on Saturday week (July 18th) and when the Turf Club had taken note of all the strikingly out, twenty-six fillies had held their ground representing a quality which guarantees that this year's running of the premier Filly Classic will be the most hotly contested since the Dublin Brewery assumed responsibility for its sponsorship seven years ago.

Seamus McGrath has accepted with three fillies Sweet Mimosa, Lovely Kate and French Score, all of whom have proved their ability in top class company. Sweet Mimosa, an own-sister to last year's Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Levross herself made racing history when becoming the first Irish runner ever to win a major fillies race in France. Last time out she came with an irresistible run in the straight to beat the English-trained Highest Hopes (also a Guinness acceptor) by two lengths in the Prix de Diane (the French Oaks) at Chantilly a victory that credited her owner, trainer with £69,981-5-0.

Lovely Kate won three successive races before finishing a staying second to Black Satin over the mile of the Irish 1000 Guineas while French Score, a good third to Decies and Great Heron in last year's National Stakes, defeated Mackintosh and Nor to win the Hardicanute Stakes at Navan in May.

AMBIGUOUS APOLOGY
Msgr. Ronald Knox once told of a Scottish clergyman who approached to his congregation for not having prepared his sermon.

"He said: 'I had to fall back on the prompting of the Holy Spirit but actually it I had a little more time I would do better myself.'

A kindly act is a kernel sown. That will grow to a goodly tree. Shedding its fruit when time has flown. Down the Gulf of Eternity.

DUNGARVAN ATHLETES SCORE IN MUNSTER U-17 CHAMPIONSHIPS

Elizabeth Mountain, St. Mary's A.C., Dungarvan, who has been having such a wonderful run of success this season added another title to her list when she won the Girls 800 metres in the Munster Under-17 Athletic Championships Under B.L.E. rules at Glenwilliam Grounds, Tipperary, last Sunday.

Another Dungarvan athlete, Joe Gough, Frisary A.C., took second place in the Boys 800 metres event. Joe later travelled on to Ballyduff Open Sports that evening where he scored a great double in winning the 800 metres and 400 metres events. Joe, who is only 17 years and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gough, Mitchell Street, Dungarvan, is now running as a senior and this is certainly an outstanding distinction and speaks highly of his ability and promise in middle distance races.

Pat Meehan, a well-known member of the Dungarvan A.C. was also a winner at Ballyduff where he took the title in the 400 metres for Boys under 16, while John Treney of St. Nicholas A.C. won the 800 metres Boys under 13 event.
