NO CHANGE
The annual elections of the County Council took place at the annual meeting of the Council in Dungarvan last Monday and as there was no change in the status quo despite the resignation of the outgoing Chairman and Vice-Chairman were again re-elected and the Fianna Fail party showed an unanimous front in the contest.

KNOCK THAT WALL
The television sequence which showed the demolition of the wall surrounding Beggars Bush Barracks in Dublin last week reminded me that so far nothing has been done about removing the unsightly wall which fronts the District Hospital in Dungarvan. A couple of years ago a resolution was passed by Dungarvan Urban Council calling on the Waterford Health Authority to knock the wall but somehow or other the matter became forgotten in the meantime.

ALMOST TWO HUNDRED YEARS OLD
Recently Mr. Paddy O'Brien, a member of the well-known Dungarvan firm of Building Contractors, passed me a number of old documents which he came into his possession. The documents are noteworthy not merely because they bear the date 1794 but also because of their excellent condition.

TEARING UP THE LINE

C.I.E. workers are engaged this week in removing the last traces of the permanent way from Dungarvan station and thus goes with it the last hope that C.I.E. would come to its senses and restore the service, at least between Waterford and Dungarvan.

THE OLD RUSTIC BRIDGE

My choice this week is in response to a request for the words of "The Old Rustic Bridge By The Mill".
I'm thinking tonight of the old rustic bridge,
That bends o'er the murmuring stream,
Twas there, Maggie dear, with our hearts full of cheer,
We strayed 'neath the moon's gentle gleam;
Twas there I first met you, the light of your eyes
Awoke in my heart a sweet thrill;
Tho' now far away, still my thoughts fondly stray
To the old rustic bridge by the mill.
Beneath it the stream gently ripples,
Around it the birds love to trill;
Tho' now far away, still my thoughts fondly stray
To the old rustic bridge by the mill.
How often, dear Maggie, when years pass'd away,
And we plighted lovers became,
We rambled the path to the bridge day by day,
The smiles of each other to claim,
But one day we parted, in pain and regret,
Our vows we could not fulfil,
Oh! may we soon meet and our fond love repeat
On the old rustic bridge by the mill.
I keep in my memory our love of the past,
With me 'tis as bright as of old,
For deep in my heart, it is planted to last,
In absence it never grows cold,
I think of you, darling, when lonely at night;
And when all is peaceful and still,
My heart wanders back in a dream of delight,
To the old rustic bridge by the mill.

Chairman And Vice-Chairman Of County Council Re-Elected

FINE GAEL APPEAL FOR ROTATION REJECTED

An appeal by a Fine Gael spokesman for unanimity in the election of their nominee to the chair of the annual meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan last Monday was not accepted by the Fianna Fail party who pressed a division and voted back both their nominees for the chair and vice-chair.

TOO LATE IN THE DAY
A division also took place for the election of vice-chairman. Mr. W. Kennelly, T.D., who proposed the re-election of the outgoing holder of the position, Mr. S. Whelan, stated that while he personally agreed with Mr. Deasy's suggestion on rotation the Council would have to accept the fact that they in the Fianna Fail were members of a political party and were bound by its decisions. He thought it was too late in the day now to be suggesting an agreement about rotation and said that the proper time to consider this would be following the election of a new Council.

PARLIAMENTARY SECRETARY ATTENDS
Prior to the elections a hearty welcome was extended to Mr. Jack Fahey, T.D., whose first attendance at a meeting of the Council this was since his appointment as Parliamentary Secretary. He was congratulated by Mr. Curran, Chairman, and by Mr. Walsh and other members of the Council on his promotion.
Mr. Fahey thanked the members for their remarks and said that he felt that his appointment was more an honour to the Constituency and to the Council than to himself. He said that he felt sad when he was informed following his ap-

FOUR SENT OFF AS CLASHMORE BEAT DE LA SALLE

ROBUST S.F. LOSERS GROUP TIE

Clashmore 2-7; De La Salle 2-4. Fr. Michael Kennedy must surely have been the most of Clashmore on Sunday last. For his goal, a well-taken effort eight minutes from time at a stage when the issue swung precariously in the balance with the scores level and both sides absolutely giving everything they had, snatched Clashmore from the precipice of defeat to earn them a victory well deserved yet dearly paid for.

This goal proved vital, for it was the final score of the game, and despite tremendous pressure from De La Salle in the tension-packed closing stages Clashmore just held on to register a win which at the half way stage looked anything but certain.

In all there were four players sent off by referee Jimmy Moran of Kilmoblet in what proved a rather robust losers group senior football tie. Clashmore just held on to register a win which at the half way stage looked anything but certain.

Clashmore just held on to register a win which at the half way stage looked anything but certain. The loss of both Vinny O'Rourke and Denny McGrath was a severe blow and a dear price to pay for victory and their absence could be sorely felt in their next round game.

BIG NIGHT FOR FORMER WATERFORD ALL-IRELAND HURLER AT YOUGHAL TRACK

Mr. Johnny O'Connor of Kilmoblet, the well-known Waterford All-Ireland hurler whose family home is at Sexton St., Abbeystead, Dungarvan, supplied first and second in the final of the "Conviction" at the Youghal Track last Friday night.

MAJOR SEA ANGLING TROPHY FOR FORMER GO-KART CHAMPION

Mr. Tom Coffey, principal of the firm of Thomas Coffey & Son, Car Tow-Bar Manufacturers, Springmount, Dungarvan, who recently retired as All-Ireland Go-Karting champion, showed his capabilities in another sporting capacity last Sunday when he won the major award in the Waterford Glass Deep Sea Angling Competition organised by the Dungarvan Sea Angling Club.

Mr. Ted Murphy, Southern Area representative, on behalf of the Messrs. Gibbey's of Ireland, presented the trophy to Mr. O'Connor, who said it was the first time he had won at the Youghal Track and he was delighted to do so.

Mr. Dick Power, Chairman, Youghal Track, thanked Messrs.

STRADBALLY COMMIT "CHAMPIONSHIP SUICIDE"

GERALDINES WIN AGAINST RUN OF PLAY

Stradbally it seems have yet to learn the folly of their ways. This was glaringly apparent at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday night last where they made their exit from the senior football championship when they went under 2-5 to 0-6 to Geraldines in their losers group tie. And this all happened against the run of play. For even Geraldines must forgive this writer for penning the opinion that they were blessed with luck against a Stradbally side whose attack literally committed championship suicide on more than one occasion during the hour.

Never have a team dominated a game to such an extent and still manage to come out losers. Stradbally who have been dogged with this same problem in attack for the past few years did just that on Sunday night last.

They were short a few regulars, but so too were Geraldines, yet Stradbally it seemed were no way handicapped in this respect. They took the lead with a Tom Cunningham point from a free after only two minutes and were in complete control for most of the half except for a brief period between the 10th and 12th minutes.

ONE WAY

Play was completely one way as the Reds camped in the Geraldines goal area but it would be no exaggeration to say that in this period alone they drove at least 15 wides as well as missing two goals.

As a result of this they found themselves held to level pegging 0-4 to 1-1 at the interval when they should have had the game in the bag.

JURY TOOK MERCIFUL VIEW SAYS JUDGE

There was a sequel to a collision between two cars which occurred at Ballycullane, Aghish, on June 29th, 1969, at Waterford Circuit Court before Judge Fawcett last week when Captain Connolly and Patrick Whelan, who were charged with dangerous driving, were given a non-prosecution, thereby causing serious bodily harm to George McGrath, O'Kylie, Cappogin.

Mr. M. Fenehan, prosecuting, said that the defendant was driving from Cappogin to Youghal. He was wearing a seat belt and a gurgling sound was heard as the car crossed the road and collided with a car driven by Mr. Thomas Power.

UNCERTAINTY OVER WARBLE ERADICATION SCHEME

Warble Fly eradication, Brucellosis eradication and the possible implications of current developments in Britain affecting the availability of antibiotics...

On Warble eradication much of the discussion centred around the question of responsibility for the cost of the treatment. The N.F.A. delegation were very emphatic in their view that an Autumn dressing campaign is necessary and that this is likely to be needed for more than just one year...

The Department's representatives adhered to the view that farmers should pay the cost of the treatment and this issue remained completely unresolved at the end of the meeting.

The delegation also expressed concern at certain indications which had been given that the Department's future involvement in Warble eradication would be on a somewhat limited basis.

BRUCELLOSIS ERADICATION

In a discussion on the arrangements recently announced by the Department for new clearance areas under the Brucellosis eradication scheme it was recognised that the particular grouping of Counties already decided on will cause some displacement of the established pattern of trade in heifers. Special sales for 14 day tested animals at mart centres for store and breeding heifers, can help to get over the problem.

Representatives of the Liquid Milk Group on the deputation drew attention to special problems which would arise for liquid milk producers in Clearance Areas and they emphasised in particular the need to protect producers against any adverse effect on their quotas as a result of the operation of the Brucellosis Scheme.

A very useful discussion took place on the question of initiating an interim scheme to cater for the rest of the country outside of the existing Brucellosis free areas and clearance areas. It emerged from this discussion that the Department and the N.F.A. are in full agreement on the idea of introducing a scheme based on the multi-test whereby recognition would be given to herds which obtained three successive clear tests within the space of a year.

The N.F.A. delegation renewed their recommendation for the removal of the upper limit on payment for brucellosis and T.B. reactors. The present limit of £100 per beast has prevented farmers from obtaining full market value in several instances.

The voluntary Brucellosis Scheme which is available to farmers outside of the eradication areas was also discussed and N.F.A. representatives expressed the view that the scheme is not an attractive proposition as it now stands.

SOLVING THE PROBLEM OF RURAL COMMUNITIES

Bishops, teachers, politicians, farm leaders and Local Authorities are partly to blame for the economic and social decline in many rural areas because it is doubtful whether they have done as much as they might have done to cure the ills which were obvious for decades past.

way out and say the decline in population in rural areas might be a good thing; and (c) those whose hearts are in the right place and are anxious to see improvements take place but who are unaware of the basic facts at local level and whose words therefore have little effect.

The day has gone when we can talk about rural people as though we meant farmers only. In the future it must be borne in mind that agriculture and industry cannot be divorced from each other in a country like Ireland. For the sake of the national economy and the national well-being both sectors must be treated as being complementary to one another.

The next decade or two is going to see changes taking place with greater rapidity than ever before. Technology and business techniques are no longer the prerogative of one group in our society. They have as much importance for farmers as for anyone else.

Whether it is at Primary school, Vocational school or University level, whether it is on the farm, the factory floor or the village street, whether it is in the church, meeting hall or local mart there is a need for an appreciation of where we want to go, why we want to go there and how we intend getting there.

The N.F.A. is anxious to contribute what it can to the efforts of others and through its Rural Development Committee it will be making special efforts during the coming year to promote the necessary spirit of co-operation and goodwill.

LICENSING OF BULLS

Applications for licences for bulls killed during the period 1st July to 31st December, 1969 should now be made. Application forms may be obtained from Garda Stations, Post Offices, County Committees of Agriculture and the Department.

HOGGET EWE AND MOUNTAIN LAMB SUBSIDY SCHEMES

The following statement was issued by the Government Information Bureau on behalf of the Minister for Agriculture and Fisheries.

These schemes will operate from 28th July to 18th September. The subsidy rate will be 30/- per animal. To qualify for subsidy hogget ewes and lambs must have been dipped in accordance with the Sheep Dipping Orders.

The Hogget Ewe Scheme applies to all good quality hogget ewes irrespective of breeding. For purpose of this scheme a ewe is deemed to be a hogget only if it has more than two permanent incisor teeth.

SHEEP MUST BE DIPPED FIRST

Inspections will take place only at centres appointed by the Minister. Particulars of these centres and of inspection dates and times are published elsewhere in this issue of the 'Dungarvan Leader'.

Under both schemes owners will be required to produce their sheep dipping certificates at the inspection centres. On this account there is no point in bringing out sheep or lambs unless they have already been dipped.
