THE VALUE OF MONEY
Questions raised in the Daily last week and the recent statement of Dr. T. K. Whitaker, Governor of the Central Bank when he introduced the bank's annual review point to the concern which should be concerning the country's present financial position.

Without a doubt money was never so plentiful but the creeping paralysis of inflation is slowly but very surely beginning to make itself felt. The major symptoms are there for all to see.

Due to the Daily questions concerning the rise in the national debt in the five years between 1965 and 1970 and the cost of servicing it. The Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Finance declared that the total national debt at the 31st March, 1965 was £636 million and the cost of servicing it for the year was £43 million. By March 31st, 1970 the amount of the national debt had swollen to £1,009 million and the cost of servicing it had more than doubled to £89 million for the year.

A second question in the Daily concerned the purchasing power of the pound but the relative figures in this instance were only given up to 1957. The Parliamentary Secretary to the Taoiseach stated in his reply to this question that on the basis of the consumer price index number at mid-May 1970, £1 would purchase the same quantity of goods and services at retail prices as would 5/1d. in 1922, 4/3d. in 1932, 9/5 in 1951; 10/10 in 1954 and 12/- in 1957.

The Governor of the Central Bank made no bones about the position when he stated that inflation of wages and costs in this country was proceeding so fast that if no urgent action was taken to stop it our exports could rapidly become uncompetitive, factories would eventually have to close and emigration would rise. Only an immediate pay pause and strict restraint on credit and Government spending declared Dr. Whitaker could ensure the turning of the economy away from the present slide and back to the road of recovery.

While Dr. Whitaker did not directly rebuke the Government for its lack of activity he nevertheless appealed to them, to industry and to the general public and wage earners to realise that our expectations were exceeding our resources. He said that the Central Bank wished to get across the serious trouble the country was in when costs were rising; we had not just a demand inflation, which could be reduced by monetary policy, but a cost inflation — and one worse than was going on in Britain, which itself was worried because its cost inflation was worse than on the continent. The country at present was heading for only one sort of control — unemployment and factories closing because they could not sell goods abroad at their high prices.

We are all caught up in this cost inflation and this was one of the major factors which has forced us with other provincial newspapers, into the unfortunate position of having to increase the selling price of this paper. The Central Bank has sounded the warning but no one seems to be listening. The holiday spending spree is now at its height and anyone who was out and about last week-end could not fail but to sense the euphoria that exists. In hotels and bars the crowds jostled with each other with fistfuls of notes to buy drinks at any cost the public toilets at Clonca. He wished to compliment in a special way the man in charge of the toilets. It is nice to hear comments of this kind and it is with pleasure that I pass them on.

The recent demolition of the old national school at the Pond at Abbeyside has removed a landmark which has been part and parcel of life in the village for almost a century. The disappearance of the old building which has been derelict since it was vacated when the new school was built was noted by many of the older generation whose alma mater it was with regret.

FINNEGAN'S WAKE
This is an old ballad now enjoying a new lease of life since it became a hit with a well-known ballad group from Dublin.

Tim Finnegan lived in Walker Street. A gentle Irishman, mighty odd. He'd a beautiful brogue so rich and sweet. And to rise in the world he carried a hod. But you see he'd a sort of a tipping way. With a love for the liquor pour Tim was born. And to help him through his work each day. He'd a drop of the crathur each morn.

SWIMMING INSTRUCTION
I welcome the latest move by the Minister for Local Government, Mr. Robert Molloy, who in a circular to local authorities has reminded them of their statutory powers to arrange for the giving of instruction in swimming and life-saving. The Minister has asked the local authorities to arrange to have swimming instruction made available wherever local facilities would enable classes to be held.

The value of such swimming instruction cannot be overestimated and this can be seen in Dungarvan where last month over 160 children attended the annual course of instruction held at the local swimming pool. Of the young non-swimmers who enrolled in the course over 80% were able to swim after the fortnight, a result which, taken by any standards, must be recognised as excellent.

This course in Dungarvan has been held annually for a long number of years thanks to the initiative and civic spirited action of a small local voluntary committee who have always been able to secure the services of top-class coaches on a more or less voluntary basis. These coaches have been coming to Dungarvan merely by having their travelling expenses met by the committee. Their services are given at the pool free. Were the committee unable to find coaches on this basis, the courses which the children of Dungarvan and other districts have been enjoying could never have been held as the necessary money would not have been available.

At it was the committee always worked on a shoestring budget as the charges were always kept to a minimum and at times several of them were out of pocket themselves in order to make ends meet. This is probably something which parents who brought children to the pool for lessons and demanded their full pound of flesh were never aware of.

HERE AND THERE
The rate demand notes for rate-payers in the Dungarvan Urban area were sent out through the post last week. They caused severe shocks to practically all recipients. I cannot see any great rush to the rate collector's office to pay them!

A visitor to Dungarvan last week-end called on me to request that I record his favourable comment on the excellent condition of

Festival Time In Lismore

WEATHER FAVOURED OPENING CEREMONIES

For the first time in many years ideal weather favoured the opening of Lismore's Festival Week on Sunday last and the change in the weather brought much larger crowds than ever. With the opening of the Castle grounds and garden in aid of the local Nursing Association from 2.30 to 5.30, also the attractive minor hurling game in the Castle Fields between Cappoquin and Lismore, together with other side attractions, the town was packed to capacity.

The Fermoys Brass and Reed Band also gave a band recital during this period. The festival itself was officially opened by Mr. J. D. Hally, B.E., who wished all success to the event and other speakers on the platform were Rev. P. Quealy, C.C., Rev. President of the Lismore Festival Committee, Mr. D. C. Lee, Chairman, and Mrs. R. Campion, Chairman of the Town Commissioners.

FANCY DRESS COMPETITIONS
For the children's fancy dress competition the entries were more numerous than ever and the following are the results: Best Single — 1, Shepherd and Lost Sheep; 2, Chip Off the Old Block; Best Pair — 1, Fish-in; 2, We're Only Here for the Best; Best Group — 1, Three Stooges; 2, Jim Figgerty and the Three Witches; Most Original — Little Pink Angel. Prizes were handed out.

For the adults fancy dress after tea, the standard was exceptionally high and the following are the prizewinners: Single — 1, All Kinds of Everything, Mrs. J. Sheehan; 2, Lord Mayor of Lismore, Mr. T. Barry; Pairs — 1, Daisy, Mrs. J. Feeney and Miss M. Daly; 2, John Steed and partner, Miss M. Pollard and Master E. Pollard; Group — Wedding, Ballyduff-Confident. Most original — Lunatic Flower, Mrs. Lee.

Heats of the talent competition are held each night on the stage in the Main Street, where the Abbey Folk Group also, entertain and as we go to press the following have qualified for the Talent Competition Final on Saturday night next: Girls' Quartet, Miss Eileen Merritt, Mr. P. Holland and Miss Kathleen Rucan.

Results of Art Competition — Age 4 — 1, Susan Fitzgerald; 2, Mark Gallagher; 3, Margaret Kenrick. Age 5 — 1, Frances Gallagher; 2, John Foley; 3, Agatha Croxey. Age 6 — 1, Carlyn Feeney; 2, John Landers; 3, (tie), Paul Keefe and Patricia Foley. Age 7 — 1, Clare Mangan; 2, Thomas Duggan; 3, William Houllihan. Highly Commended, Michael Fitzgerald and Brendan O'Leary. Age 8 — 1, Patricia Bransfield; 2, John O'Brien; 3, David Lee. Ages 9-10 — 1, C. O'Keefe; 2, Margaret Twomey; 3, Kathleen Feeney. Highly Commended — Emer Cullin, Brian Hennessy, G. Kennedy. Age 11 — 1, Helen Hennessy; 2, John Flavin; 3, Angela O'Daly. Age 12 — 1, A. Walsh; 2, M. Savage; 3, Gina Poynton. Highly Commended — May Walsh. Ages 12-15 — (Incl) M. Kennedy; 2, Helen Lenane.

MARQUEE DANCING
Dancing in the Marquee to date has attracted huge crowds and if the weather continues fine for the remainder of the week it should be a memorable finale. On Thursday night we have the visit of Waterford F.C. League of Ireland champions etc. to Lismore for the third successive year, when they play their B. League of Ireland team and as in former years they are sure to attract a huge crowd to the Cricket Grounds Dancing that same night in the Marquee to the famous Gallowglass Band. Highlights on Friday are the Old Time Music Hall Concert (Cork Artists) in the Town Hall at 8.30 p.m. the Barrow Boys Show Band, while each night in St. Canthage's Hall Bingo patrons are catered for.

Saturday is Course Fishing competition day also athletics while on Sunday is featured the Car Safety Rally commencing at 2.30. This event consists of a 57 mile course Ballysaggart/Araglin/Moicollip into Ballyduff/Tallow/Brown's Cross/Campfire, Cappoquin, Mountain Barracks and back to Lismore. This will be followed by a Pony Club Gymkhana event at 3.00 p.m. confined to members of West Waterford Pony Club and the week will conclude with dancing in the Marquee to The Supremes Showband.

Hurlley took a lot of watching. For Cappoquin Frank McGrath, Pat Egan, J. Duggan and J. McCarthy hurled their hearts out but lack of penetration in the middle of their attack cost them dearly.

In a most attractive senior tournament later that evening Lismore, showing more determination and drive than in their game against Abbeyside a short time ago, scored a good win over Dunhill who really made them work hard for their success, while on Monday evening Ballysaggart beat a weakened Tourin team by 4 goals and so collected another set of medals.

SOCCER
Lismore and Killeagh have qualified for the final of the inter-club tournament by virtue of their wins over Araglin and Modeligo respectively last week-end and by the time these notes appear the winners will be known as the final was played for on Tuesday night last.

In the first semi-final on Friday last, a goal from P. Mason two minutes from time made the scores level in their game against Araglin and in extra time, two further scores one from J. O'Connor and another from Mason made the scoreline 3-1 in favour of the home team. But this scoreline does not do justice to a very good Araglin XI who nearly caused the upset of the tournament as all through the game they gave Lismore more than enough to cope with and lack of finish on a couple of occasions saved the home side.

Admittedly Lismore failed to score from a penalty awarded in the first half, but in the end had to go all out for victory over very game and sporting rivals.

In the second semi Killeagh, though conceding the first score to Modeligo were far too good for their opponents and ran out easy winners. On this ranking they must be installed as favourites to win the Lismore Hotel Trophy and medals but if Lismore show more determination and team work, they could make things hot for the visitors.

What Results — Top prize in last week's hill drive held in St. Canthage's Hall on Tuesday night last was won by Mrs. Lil Ryan, New Street, with a score of 149. 2nd and 3rd prizes were shared between Miss B. O'Donoghue, Chapel Street and Miss Nora Wilmshurst, Main Street, each with scores of 145, while Mrs. M. O'Donoghue, Parks Road won the miniature.

For Lismore P. Scanlon had an outstanding game and his long raking clearances always turned defence into attack. He was closely followed by Johnny Dunne, who had a brilliant second half, while senior players, Billy Landers, Ducky Omond and S.

NO REGIONAL HOSPITAL FOR WATERFORD

Health Minister's 'Dail Statement

In the Dail last week, Mr. E. Collins (F.G.) asked the Minister for Health if he has decided to establish a regional hospital in Waterford City.

Mr. Childers—The FitzGerald Report on the reorganisation of the general hospital system recommended that regional hospitals, at which highly specialised services would be provided, should be established only at the medical teaching centres of Dublin, Cork and Galway. For other centres, including Waterford, it was recommended that there should be general hospitals which would provide a wide range of medical, surgical and obstetrical services for the community including the more common specialties. Waterford City already has at Ardkeen a large general hospital providing most of the services envisaged in the FitzGerald Report. I am glad to say that discussions have been proceeding between representatives of the health authority and the County and City Infirmary on the one hand and between the health authority and Airmount Maternity Hospital on the other, to work out ways in which a closer integration of services might be achieved for the future in the hospital organisation within the city. Beyond that there is the wider question of the catchment area which an expanded general hospital service in Waterford should cater for. This is more difficult and necessarily more long term because of the extensive building which would be involved. It is a question to which I expect the new South Eastern Health Board will be giving close consideration when it assumes responsibility for health services in the wider area.

Mr. E. Collins—Can the Minister give an indication as to when that decision will be forthcoming on the establishment of the general hospital in the area?
Mr. Childers—No, I cannot.
Sir Anthony Esmonde—Can the Minister give me a guarantee that whatever decision is taken will in no way affect the position of the Waterford General Hospital?
Mr. Childers—As I have already explained, this whole matter has to be considered. It would be impossible to give any guarantee that a particular programme might not affect the position of another hospital. I have already indicated that the matter will be given very close consideration and that the South Eastern Health Board will be asked to examine the whole problem. As the Deputy knows, there is a great deal of division of opinion all over the country, and in the midland area in particular, as to where the general hospital should be established. It is bound to affect the position of certain hospitals.

MOTHER FINDS INFANT DEAD IN CAR
When Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bohan paid a visit to the new Fire Station in Dungarvan on last Monday evening at about 9 p.m. they left their three children, a girl and boy aged 3 and 4 years and three months old infant son in their car outside the station. Mr. and Mrs. Bohan, from Mallow where Mr. Bohan is Fire Station Officer were shown over the Dungarvan Headquarters by Station Officer Mr. Ned Morrissey.

The two young children were in the front of the car and the infant was in a carrycot in the back seat. When Mr. Bohan went to check on the children a short time after leaving them she found the baby dead in the cot.
The body of the infant was removed to Dungarvan District Hospital where a post mortem examination was held to ascertain the cause of death and an inquest will be held later.
The Bohan family were on a visit to Clonca.

Records Tattle At Dungarvan Show

WEATHER FAVOURED WATERFORD'S BIG AGRICULTURAL EVENT

The Dungarvan Agricultural Show Society certainly further enhanced its reputation for efficiency by the smooth and successful running of their 55th Annual Show on Thursday. Favoured by overcast but dry weather which at one stage threatened to break but fortunately did not do so, the show which is County Waterford's biggest agricultural event of the year, attracted a large attendance and entries to the show.

The show was held at the Dungarvan Agricultural Show Ground, Dungarvan, Co. Waterford, on Thursday, August 7th, 1970. The show was opened by Mr. P. J. Power, Chairman, Mr. Con Dempsey, Secretary, and Mrs. Tom Phelan, Secretary of the Home Industries Section.

The morning session was occupied with judging in the various rings while the main attraction of the afternoon was the jumping competitions which attracted entries from all the top show jumpers throughout the county including members of the Dungarvan team and Mr. James Hayes who had four horses down from the Curragh.

Local exhibitors proved very successful and a number of them figured in the Special Awards list in both the horse and cattle sections.

Big Entries For Dungarvan G.C. First Open Week

NEW COURSE RECORD CREATED

The first Open Competition Week ever held at the Dungarvan Golf Club proved a successful one for the club. The Club Officials who organised it, were most pleased to see that there was a record number of 605 entries over the week and these included competitors from nearly all Munster Golf Clubs and quite a new team of 100 club members who were off to a flying start with the Men's Foursomes Competition on Tuesday. The week was played over the opening two days and the eventual winners were Mr. Tim McGrath, the popular captain of the club, who was partnered by Mr. P. Walsh.

Another highlight of the week was the winning of the Festival Trophy by the energetic treasurer of the Dungarvan Golf Club, Mr. Kevin D. O'Keefe, who was partnered by Mr. P. Walsh.

The following are the detailed results of the competitions:

Quigley Magnificent Foursomes—1st, P. Walsh and T. McGrath, Dungarvan 11 up; 2nd, P. Norris and P. O'Connell, Dungarvan 11 up; 3rd, M. McHugh and D. Barry, Dungarvan 11 up; 4th, P. O'Connell and T. McGrath, Dungarvan 10 up. Visitors Prize—M. Kenny and A. Keary, Douglas 9 up.

INCREASES IN SOCIAL ASSISTANCE PAYMENTS AND OTHER IMPROVEMENTS IN SOCIAL WELFARE SCHEMES

The Social Welfare Act, 1970, makes provision for increases in the rates of payments, and for other improvements in the Social Assistance Scheme as follows:

OLD AGE AND BLIND NON-CONTRIBUTORY PENSIONS

As from 1st August, 1970, all rates of pension are increased by 10% a week and additions to pension payable in respect of qualified children by 2% a week. The increases are being paid as follows:

Persons whose pension order books expired in June: Orders dated 7th August, 1970, onwards in basic pension books are overprinted 'Pay 10%' or '50p extra'.

Persons whose pension order books expired in July: Orders dated 14th August, 1970, onwards in supplementary books in respect of qualified children are also overprinted and the appropriate amount specified.

The means limit for receipt of pension is raised from £221.15.0d. yearly to £241.15.0d. yearly for persons with qualified children is further increased as follows:

Person with one qualified child £286.15.0d.
Person with two qualified children £325.15.0d.
The limit of £325.15.0d. is further increased for each qualified child in excess of two.

Persons whose applications for pension were disallowed because their means exceeded the former limits are advised to re-apply if they consider they would now qualify for pension.

Raising of age limit for increases of pension in respect of qualified children:

As from 7th August, 1970, the age limit for children in respect of whom increases of pension may be paid is raised to 18 years. (Increases will continue to be payable to pensioners who are widows in respect of children under the age of 21 who are receiving full-time education by day at any university, college, school or other educational establishment.)

WIDOWS' NON-CONTRIBUTORY PENSIONS AND ORPHANS' NON-CONTRIBUTORY PENSIONS

As from 7th August, 1970, the weekly rate of non-contributory pension payable in respect of each widow is increased by 11/6d. and by a further 4/6d. per week for each qualified child. The weekly rate of orphan's non-contributory pension are also increased by varying amounts available at Post Offices for distribution to pensioners on production of their existing pension books.

The means limit for receipt of widow's pension is raised from £208.15s. 0d. yearly to £247.15s. 0d. yearly and for widows with qualified children is further increased as follows:

Widow with one qualified child £286.15s. 0d.
Widow with two qualified children £325.15s. 0d.
The limit of £325.15s. 0d. is further increased for each qualified child in excess of two.

Persons who have been refused a pension because their means exceeded the former limits are advised to apply again if they feel they may now qualify for pension.

Raising of age limit for increases of pension in respect of qualified children:

As from 7th August, 1970, the age limit for children in respect of whom increases of pension may be paid and for orphans is raised to 18 years, in the case of contributory pensions, the extension of the age limit takes effect from 2nd October, 1970. The upper age limit remains 21 years for children, including orphans who are receiving full-time education by day.

Non-contributory widow pensioners who have children between 16 and 18 years of age ordinarily resident with them and not at present included in their pensioners should apply without delay to the Secretary, Department of Social Welfare, Dublin 1, to have such children included in their pensions. Each application should contain the widow's pension number and the name and date of birth of each child between 16 and 18 years, and ordinary resident with the widow.

Minister For Local Government States No Housing Scheme From Waterford Before Him For Sanction

In the Dail last week, Mr. E. Collins, asked the Minister for Local Government if he will state the number of housing schemes at present before him for sanction from the Waterford County Council; when they were received; and the likely date of granting sanction for each scheme.

Mr. Molloy: No proposal from Waterford County Council for the building of houses is before my Department at present. Local proposals for such schemes comprising 22 houses are under examination and my decision on them will be given shortly. These loan proposals were submitted originally as part of a bulk loan proposal which was received on the 14th January last.

OBJECTIVE IN MART'S ACT ACHIEVED

The President of the N.F.A., Mr. T. J. Maher said in a statement in relation to the Supreme Court decision on the Livestock Marts Act 1967 that he was pleased that the objective in pursuing this case had been achieved.

He said he welcomed the fact that the part of the Act giving far-reaching powers of exemption to the Minister for Agriculture and Fisheries was held to be unconstitutional. He said the case also successfully establishes the right of appeal to the courts where it is considered that the Minister has acted unfairly.

Mr. Maher said the Supreme Court recognised the justification and merit of the case presented by ordering the State to pay their own costs and 50% of the costs of the plaintiffs in both the High and Supreme Courts.

He added: "I would like to emphasise that the N.F.A. welcomed certain sections of the Act and have consistently advocated for 14 years that the establishment of livestock marts should be carried out in a rational manner. I would hope that the Act can be used to help a more rational development of the marts system so vital to our economy."

N.F.A.'S VIEW ON NEW TRACTOR SAFETY REGULATIONS

The N.F.A. welcomes, with certain reservations, the new safety regulations being introduced for tractors by the Government. The association is, however, concerned about the cost of these safety cabs and exhorts the Government and manufacturers to keep the prices within reasonable limits.

The Minister for Local Government has made regulations to the effect that any tractor in Ireland registered on or after September 1st next will have to be fitted with a safety frame, if the machine is for use in a public place. A further regulation is that tractors registered before that date will have until September 1st 1977 to fit the safety frame.

The regulations will not apply to a tractor which weighs more than 7½ tons unladen, the drawing component of an articulated vehicle, or a mechanically self-propelled harrow.

The standard for safety frames is set agreed by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development.

In welcoming the regulations the N.F.A. points to the high incidence of tractor accidents which make the safety regulations an urgent priority if lives are to be saved. Statistics show that the introduction of such regulations have drastically reduced the annual rate of fatalities from tractor accidents. In Sweden, for example, only two people have died since 1950 when the safety cab was first introduced.

An N.F.A. spokesman pointed out that while the Government could not make regulations for tractors used on private property, the fact remained that the majority of accidents do in fact take place during normal farming operations on the lands — indicating that it would be in the interests of farmers to have such safety frames fitted at all times.

By keeping the cost at a reasonable level the Government would be playing a big part in reducing substantially the frightening figure of some thirty deaths annually from tractor accidents in this country, the spokesman added.

MEETING WITH MINISTER ON GRAIN SMUGGLING
Representatives of the N.F.A. have met the Minister for Agriculture and Fisheries, Mr. Gibbons, and requested that effective measures be taken against grain smuggling. The delegation included members of the N.F.A. Grain Committee and the Louth County Executive of the Association.

They advocated that the anti-smuggling efforts of the Customs and Excise authorities should be stepped up and that the penalty for receiving smuggled grain should be made severe enough to be a real deterrent.

The Minister promised to examine these recommendations immediately, bearing in mind the rapidly approaching harvest and the danger of the increase in grain smuggling during that time.

An N.F.A. spokesman said that an influx of grain was objectionable to livestock feeders and grain growers alike. The interest of farmers would be much better served by obtaining their feed grain requirements through the regular authorised channels of supply.

The N.F.A. delegation consisted of Messrs. John Moorey, Chairman of the Grain Committee, James Waddock, C. W. Greene, J. Loughran, J. McMahon, J. Thornton, W. Tracey, B. Murphy and John Murphy, Secretary of the Grain Committee.

GOVERNMENT ACCEPT GRAVITY OF PIG SMUGGLING PROBLEM?

Mr. Colley's recent statements in the Dail imply that the Government has at last accepted that pig smuggling from Northern Ireland has taken place on a significant scale.

A spokesman for the N.F.A. said that for years past his Association had tried to have something done to stop it but the Departments of Finance and Agriculture could not be convinced at the time of the gravity of the situation and the previous Minister of Agriculture was once reported as saying that the smuggling of pigs had not got any great impact.

Now Irish pig producers are worried about the possible implications of the amendment introduced in the Dail by the Minister for Finance concerning the imposition of a levy on pigs.

The relevant section in the Bill is vague and open to many interpretations and the N.F.A. is seeking clarification on it. In replying to questions in the Dail, Mr. Colley, said that the main intention was to remove the incentive for smuggling pigs into the Republic from the 6-County. He is reported as saying that the levy would apply to the very light and very heavy pigs.

From newspaper reports it would seem that the levy might apply to roughly 200,000 pigs. Home produced pigs falling into weights ranges (yet to be announced) on which a levy would be charged will have to pay the full amount.

Until more details are available, however, it is impossible to say what merit the scheme, proposed by Mr. Colley, has.

Scheme for improvement of Irish Shorthorn Cattle

1. Applications are invited from owners of Dairy Shorthorn cows or heifers with good conformation, size and bone to have these animals considered for inclusion in a new Herd Book or Register to be set up by the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries in conjunction with the Irish Dairy Shorthorn Breeders' Association.

2. All animals in respect of which application is made will be inspected and those considered to be the most suitable for use as foundation stock will be selected for registration by the Department. It will be a condition of the Scheme that selected animals will be mated with a Shorthorn bull designated by the Department. The resulting progeny will be eligible for a grant at the yearling stage of £10 per head. Where heifer progeny are retained to at least three years of age, bred to a designated bull and have calved, a further grant at the rate of £10 per head will be paid.

3. Owners of selected cattle must agree to abide by the appropriate Herd Book rules and pay any membership or registration fees required.

4. Application forms can be obtained from the Secretary, Department of Agriculture and Fisheries, Anely House, Meapill Road, Dublin 4.

SHAMROCKS SCRAPE THROUGH

Atrocious Misses Cost Stradbally

Shamrocks barely scraped through their intermediate hurling semi-final battle with Stradbally at the Fraher field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last. For although the Knockmore men had five points to spare they were far from impressive against a Stradbally fifteen who literally threw away a place in the final with some atrocious misses in a forward division which in the final analysis cost them a victory which seemed assured at the half way stage when they led 2-5 to 1-4.

CERTAINITIES

But even allowing for this they still looked certain to win on a score of 1-2 with no reply. Stradbally were in complete control and had shot into a narrow lead with three of their goals which came within seconds of each other in the second quarter. But it was in this half with the advantage of the strong wind and a decisive pull outfield that the Governor's greatest weakness was highlighted as their attack, seemingly unperturbed and unopposed, threw away chance after chance through individual selfishness and inaccurate shooting.

During this first half they registered nothing from five close in frees and had three times that number of wides from scorable chances. At the point of fact should have been leading by at least double scores at the break.

IN COMMAND

However, Ballyduff/Portlaw made light of adversity and the game from start to finish. They were in command in a low-scoring first half after which they led 0-2 to 0-0. The scores were level 0-2 each five minutes into the second half and Clashmore fought back to bring the scores level 0-5 to 0-5 in the closing stages and their point from a free per Frankie Cullinane ten minutes from time was sufficient to age them safely through.

GOOD DISPLAY

This was quite a good display from Ballyduff/Portlaw who showed a significant improvement on their form since beating Stradbally in the preceding round. They had a goal by Gerry McGee in the 15th minute and a point by John Maher, Martin Hickey, John Deane and Pat Hennebery. Mick Regan and Mossie Whelan were the lead for the first and second halves respectively. Power were their best in attack.

Clashmore sadly missed the services of Denny McGrath and Vinny Rourke, both of whom are at present under suspension. However, their decision in dropping John Hogan from centre field and playing the P. Kennedy and Eamonn L. O'Rourke partnership in this sector failed to produce the desired result and Hogan's inclusion in the second half came too late to make any difference.

Their best defenders were "Pablo", O'Rourke, P. O'Rourke and Pat O'Neill, while Liam O'Rourke, Noel Murray and Claude Fitzgerald, were their best in attack.

Scorers — Ballyduff/Portlaw — P. Stone (1-0), M. Regan (1-0), Power and P. Cullinane (0-1 each). Clashmore — L. Rourke and N. Murray (0-2 each); E. Hennebery (0-1).

Ballyduff/Portlaw — N. Sullivan; P. Maher, P. Maher, P. Hennebery, P. White, M. Hickey, J. Delaney, M. Regan, M. Whelan, J. Cullinane, H. Maher, J. Kirwan, P. Stone, J. Power, P. M. Kennedy, E. Borsari, P. Cullinane, F. Cullinane for Hanrahan.

Clashmore — J. Hurlon; J. Daly, P. Rourke, L. O'Keefe; P. Rourke, P. O'Neill, J. Rourke; P. M. Kennedy, E. Borsari, P. Hanrahan, Sub.—K. Kelly for P. Cullinane; F. Cullinane for Hanrahan.

BALLYDUFF/PORTLAW THROUGH TO QUARTER FINALS

Surprise Result in Losers Group Semi.

Ballyduff/Portlaw 1-3 Clashmore 0-6
Ballyduff/Portlaw are through to the quarter-finals of the senior hurling championship. Last Sunday night at the Fraher field, Dungarvan, this predominantly hurling club still very much in the reckoning for senior hurling county honours, brought off a major surprise when they beat favourites Clashmore 1-3 to 0-6 in their losers group semi-final clash.

What a victory this was for the Eastern side who were given very little chance against last year's intermediate champions. They more than matched the favourites in every department, refused to fall victims to intimidation, and were still going first out at the finish of an hour riddled with bone crushing tackles and at times rough and over dangerous play. This was a game overshadowed by some very unopposed play which was continually interrupted by an unopposed Tom Ryan (four-mile-water) would have been justified in issuing marching orders to a few for blatant violation of the rules. As it was he refused to issue such orders and a minute after the interval this decision came about after going first out at the finish of an hour riddled with bone crushing tackles and at times rough and over dangerous play.

NON SHOOT AREAS

Last year's Green Plover (Lapwing) were put back on the shooting list because it was felt that they had recovered sufficiently from the severe winter of 1967/68. However, their retention on the shooting list that they are being fully protected against this season. In order to give needed additional protection to native and migratory wildfowl species, the open season for all wildfowl will end on 31st January, 1971, which has been the closing date for these species since 1960.

The killing or taking of green plover (lapwing), hen pheasant, barnacle goose, Brent geese, greater and lesser sandrail is prohibited throughout the whole country for the entire season in the interest of the preservation of these species.

RECAPTURE IN SOUTHERN RIVER OFF FAROE TAGGED ISLANDS

In April, 1970 the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries for Scotland in collaboration with the Faroes Fisheries Research Organisation used a ship called "Orca" to catch salmon by long lines for tagging or marking purposes. One of the fish tagged on that occasion was recaptured in a river in the south of Ireland as a grilse. Unfortunately the tag was broken when the fish was being prepared for freezing so the exact place of recapture cannot be recorded. It was a yellow in colour with three digits on one side and a message for its return on the reverse. This type of tag was attached to the fish by means of a silver wire in a nylon sleeve; and a yellow tag with a number and the message "SCOTLAND RETURN".

Other types of tags may also be found on salmon frequenting Irish waters and the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries would ask all fishermen to examine their catches of salmon carefully and report to him if they may find attached to fish to either the place named on the tag or to the Secretary, Department of Agriculture and Fisheries, Fishery Division, 3, Cathal Brugha Street, Dublin 1.

It is important in such cases that the high seas fishery for salmon which has developed recently that all tags should be returned promptly with as much information about the tagged fish as possible including its weight, length and place and date of capture. It is also desirable that a sample of the scales of the fish in question should be collected.

As announced earlier the Department will pay the sum of 50/- for the return of any foreign tag together with scales and relevant data. Without the co-operation of salmon fishermen scientists investigating various aspects of the life history of salmon will be seriously handicapped in their work.

PROTECTION OF GAME BIRDS

The Minister for Lands, Mr. Sean Flanagan, has made an order entitled "Game Birds Protection, 1970." In accordance with the provisions of the Game Protection Act, 1930, and this Order certain regulations are set out as may be seen from the advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

The traditional opening for grouse shooting on the 12th August has been restored for a trial period of one year except in Counties Car, Kerry and Mayo where the same open season as previous years will operate from 1st September to the 30th September. It is hoped that this experimental return to the traditional opening date will help to establish what effect early shooting has on grouse stocks.

The Order continues the curtailment of the open season for partridge. Last year's Green Plover (Lapwing) were put back on the shooting list because it was felt that they had recovered sufficiently from the severe winter of 1967/68. However, their retention on the shooting list that they are being fully protected against this season. Television Failures

In Dungarvan And Cappoquin Areas

The Editor Dungarvan Leader

Dear Sir: Cappoquin Television Transmitting Station which serves the Dungarvan and Cappoquin areas has been reported to be inoperative for a few weeks resulting in loss of transmission and I think some explanation would be appreciated. The Cappoquin Station has given good service for many years and the transmitter equipment is bound to develop some minor faults. It is common with the majority of our stations, the equipment is duplicated so that in the event of a fault the other set can be used. It would be most desirable if the transmitter could be repaired as soon as possible and the equipment replaced. EUROPEAN CONFERENCE FOR IRELAND

The European Association for Potato Research is to hold an important scientific conference in Ireland in September. This 200 delegates—experts in the various fields of potato husbandry an utilisation—will come to a time when the commercial handling of the potato and when many callings face Irish producers as well as entry to Europe.

The European Association for Potato Research was founded about 10 years ago and has its headquarters at Wageningen, Holland. Ireland is a member for a number of years but this is the first time a conference was allotted to the country. The conference will be held from 13-17 September at the Minister for Agriculture, Dublin, by the late Mr. P. J. HOLLAND. Shamrocks Pipped Stradally in I.H.C. Semi-Final. In the Western semi-final of the Intermediate hurling championship played at the Fraher field, Dungarvan on Sunday last, Shamrocks in a last ditch effort, scored a five point win over Stradally. For the greater part of the game Stradally looked like winners, but in a do-or-die effort which is characteristic of Shamrocks they outlasted Stradally.

The game which is reported fully elsewhere in this paper produced some good, if a times a bit robust hurling. A goal by Gerald McGeehan in the closing stages clinched the issue for the winners.

We would like to comment on the condition of the Fraher field on Sunday. The grass badly needed cutting and the mowed areas were good hurling. As one player remarked to us after the game "The mowers must be taken away by her father, were a full-length gown of white boucle crepe worn under a tall length coat of French lace, tiered, tier-length veil was held in place by a diamond-studded tiara and she carried a bouquet of carnations and maidenhair fern.

The bridesmaids wore full-length empire line dresses of primrose brocade anglaise with purple sleeves and carried bouquets of roses and carnations.

The reception was held at the Commodore Hotel, Cobh, on Sunday night. The bride and groom were accompanied by a large party of guests.

Mr. Adrian Gebauer presided at the organ in the cathedral. The bride and groom were accompanied by a large party of guests.

Mr. Ted Hartley, formerly of Old Road, Tallow, will conclude a Sunday school course on Friday of this week. Mr. Hartley, who works in a Coventry factory, is a member of the Tallow Old Road, Mr. Michael Hartley, do. Mr. P. Hartley, Caterers Dept., Shannon Airport, Mr. Tom Hartley, England and Mrs. William Hartley, do.

West Waterford Greyhound Owners Board. At the recent meeting of West Waterford Greyhound owners held at the Municipal Hall, Cappoquin, a West Waterford Greyhound Owners Board was formed.

Members of the Association are those for the Tallow-Knocknoscure area Messrs. J. Ahearne and Tom Goulding, Ballymore, and Mr. M. Kille Quirk for Ballyduff.

The objects of the Association are to protect the rights of greyhound owners in all their activities.

Returning to U.S.A.—Mr. Michael Murphy, wife, Mrs. Nancy Murphy, and their three children will return to the U.S. this weekend, after a two month holiday in Ireland.

Mr. Murphy is second youngest son of the late Patrick and Mrs. Murphy, Ballyhammet, Tallow. His wife is American born, but has Irish ancestors.

During their stay they visited many places of interest in the county.

The Well of the Holy Cross, Kilmertney, Needs Up.—The historic Well of the Holy Cross, situated a short distance from the church, is in a very neglected state at present. The Parish of Westwaterford, Dungarvan, is in a very neglected state at present. The Parish of Westwaterford, Dungarvan, is in a very neglected state at present.

Interfering With Signposts.—The sign posts at various places in the Knocknoscure Stradally area have again been interfered with. Some of the new signposts have been turned in the opposite direction to those which they carry out this way. It is hoped that the signposts will be returned to their original position.

Married.—Kevin J. Treavor, 20, of the road, Tallow, and Miss E. Leahy, Knockmanna, County, who were married recently at St. Catherine's Church, Cobh.

Getting The Message—In an effort to make a farmer aware of the danger of fire, a farmer in the area was asked to "It all depends," replied the farmer. "When there is a drought, I don't go till it rains again — you've got to make the good Lord understand."

From A British Golf Club Bulletin.—As in previous years the evening concluded with a toast to the new president in champagne provided by the retiring president drunk as usual at midnight.

The Late Mr. T. McCarthy.—The death took place at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Saturday, August 1st of Mr. Timothy McCarthy, 82, West Street, Tallow. We extend our sympathy to his nephews, nieces and relatives. A report of the obsequies will appear in next week's issue.

New Selloiter.—At the opening of Fermoy District Court on Monday last, Mr. Michael O'Connell was introduced by Mr. J. Barry, Barrister, Mr. Larkin, who has joined the firm of Messrs. A. Carroll and Co. Fermoy, is a native of Tallow and was welcomed by Kevin J. McCourt, D.J., Supt. P. Whelan, on behalf of the Garda and the Court Clerk, Mr. Mullins, joining in the expression of welcome.

Sympathy.—We extend our sympathy to Mr. Alexander O'Connell, ex-Supt. Garda District of Fermoy, on the recent unexpected death of his wife.

Friends On Holidays.—Rev. Fr. E. Cotter, S.M.A. of Nigeria is spending a holiday at his father's home at Windmill Hill, Tallow.

COURT SEQUEL TO AGLISH INCIDENTS

JAILED FOR ASSAULTING FARMER

The facts of the case were very gruesome stated District Justice J. D. McLay when at Cappoquin Court he convicted Michael Merrigan, 28 Rosary Place, Middleton, on charges of assault and demanding money by menaces at Ballycullane, Aglish, on May 5 and sentenced him to a term of six months in prison.

The Justice also dismissed the assault charge against Dunne.

Merrigan was charged with unlawfully assaulting Patrick Dunne, Hackney Driver, 3 Riverside Estate, Middleton and Michael Cowling, a 70-year-old farmer of Aglish, Cappoquin. He was further charged with demanding £12 from Dunne on May 5 and with creating a car ignition key the property of Cowling valued 3/6. Dunne was also charged with unlawfully assaulting Merrigan on the same occasion but the Justice dismissed the charge.

Michael Cowling told the court that on the evening of May 5th he was working in one of his fields at Ballynappark, Aglish when Merrigan's wife approached him. She had the copy of a will in her hand and accused witness of having forged it. She also accused him of owning land that should legally have been his husband's and asked him to hand over the land to Merrigan. The defendant then arrived on the scene, caught him by the coat and pulled him all over the place. Merrigan then asked him for £12 to pay for a taxi fare and when he refused Mrs. Merrigan asked to give them the price of a bottle of brandy but again he refused.

Witness said he attempted to get to his car but they would not let him out of the field, and when he eventually got to his car Merrigan ordered the hackney driver Patrick Dunne to block the road with his car. Merrigan then grabbed the ignition key from his car and also invited him to strike him about fifty times. The entire incident lasted about two hours.

Cross-examined by Mr. M. J. Lavan, Solicitor, defending, witness said Merrigan was very disappointed witness did not strike him. "Had I done so it would have come out of it very badly" he added.
