CALL FOR HARD LINE AGAINST ATTACKERS OF OLD PEOPLE

Calls for the re-introduction of flogging; more co-operation by the general public with the Garda Authorities and a harder-line by District Justices in imposing adequate sentences, were made at the monthly meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan last Monday during a discussion on the increase in the number of crimes of violence against old people in the Courty in recent weeks.

Refersing to the increase in what he termed "covaredly crimes of violence" in the county in recent weeks in the word 'have law or order in this violence" in the county in recent weeks in which a number of old prophe had been attacked and robbed the Chairman, Mr. C. Carran, said that he had been informed that as a vesuit the number of Charats operating in the Ardmore and adjoining areas in the West had been augmented. He went on to say that he had been asked to refer to this matter and to say that the Garda Authorities were anxious and they were now talking about closing the Station alongether. to receive the co-operation of the public in their attempts to solve

DOING GREAT WORK

Mr. G. Heskin said that reduc-ing the number of Guards in country areas was not telping. This had happened in Ballydull and they were now talking about closing the Station alrogether. Mr. J. Quirke said that they should proper against the closing to receive the co-operation of the public in their attempts to solve these onimes.

Mr. Curran then issued an appeal to the public to co-operate as fully as possible with the Gardal in aftered matters. There was a tremendous number of old people ivand he said shar neighbours should keep an eye an them.

Mr. K. O'Rylan said that he wished to fully support all that the wished to fully support all that the Chairman had said but he added that if he was to offer any advice to these old people it would be that they should keep one or two good alkstain dugs and these would keep raiders from coming to their houses.

DOING GREAT WORK

Mr. N. Walsh said that the forces of the law should be shown greater respect than they were getting. The Guards, the added, weter doing great work but their aumbers were inadequate and they should acceive onore help from the public and District Justices should the public and District Justices should de their duty and when those people responsible for these crimes were brought before them they should a feel with an unco-operation when Guards are in were brought before them they should be add with an unco-operation when Guards are in were brought before them they won't go to their assistance."

Mr. Kennesly — We should of the public to coperate fully with the Gardai. The first of the great respect for the Guards, said Mr. Walst, "Up personally have great respect for the Guards," said Mr. Walst, "Up presonally have great respect for the Guards, and the public are the public and when Guards are in wear of the public and the first and have the control of the public and the public to coperate fully with the Gardai.

Mr. Curran — They are doing duties at the moment which they shou'd not be asked to do at all.

Mr. D. Ahearne said that where these crimina's who attacked oid people were concerned the maximum sentence of the Courts were not enough, "We should ask the Minister," he said, "to reintroduce flogging for these kind of triens. In fact flogging would be too good for them."

Mr. Ahearne then proposed a resolution requesting the Minister to do this. It was seconded by Mr. P. Kenneally and passed.
