WHERE THE MONEY GOES

Last week I wrote about the mounting problem of local rates and the disastrous effect which the spiralling cost of the Health Services is having on them. On next Monday night, the Waterford Health Authority will meet in Dungarvan to adopt the Estimate for these services for the coming financial year and to determine the amount which will be made to the County Council. This estimate provides for a gross expenditure of the colossal sum of £2,457,500 and after taking account of receipts from State grants and other sources the net expenditure to be met in the local authority will be £1,034,769, an increase of £193,364 over the amount spent in the current year.

Ratepayers may be interested in figures given in a break-down of the estimates as shown in the Health Services. Accurate figures show where the money is being spent. Under the heading of "General Medical Services", there is an estimated total expenditure of £1,654,400 and this is made up as follows: Salaries, £73,000; Medical Appliances, £6,500; Dispensary, Clinic and Health Centre, £6,500; Stationery, printing and advertising, £500; Postage and telephone charges, £1,350; Other expenses, £1,050; Loan charges, £2,500.

Yes, we have the heading "Hospital Services" under which the cost of running the various hospitals and institutions under the control of the Authority for the year is listed with details as follows: General Hospitals, £670,700; St. Patrick's Hospital, Waterford, £134,300; District Hospital, Dungarvan, £35,000; District Hospital, Lismore, £15,800; St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, £113,500. The total in this case is £1,069,300.

Under the heading "External Hospitals" we find the costs listed as follows: General Hospitals, £140,000; Maternity Hospitals, £240,000; Homes for Mental Deaf-Blind, £50,000; Homes for Deaf-Blind, £7,000; Homes for other persons, £4,000; Fever Hospitals, £1,000; T.B. Hospital, £25,000; Other Sanatoria, £2,000; Other Hospitals, £2,000; Contributions to Voluntary Institutions, £18,000; Other Expenses, £200. These payments are in respect of patients from the County and City being treated in hospitals and institutions other than those under the direct control of the Authority and the sub-total in this instance amounts to £291,900.

The grand total of all costs for these institutional services comes to £1,261,200.

Then we have other items such as the Maternity and Child Health Services to cost £64,900; T.B. and other Infectious Diseases, £24,000; Dental, Ophthalmic and Special Services, £33,300; Special Services, £18,000; Disablement Allowances, £118,000; Boarded typical and as the research is good. I thought his effort worthy of inclusion.

Who Invented Smoking?

Nobody knows—it was so long ago, for when Columbus discovered America in 1492 the Indians had been smoking for centuries. Pipes dating from about A.D. 700 have been dug up there.

The Indians of North and South America thought tobacco was good for them, and also used it in many tribal rites—i.e. the Pipe of Peace. When the new "weed" came to Europe, attention was concentrated on its physical properties. Francisco Fernandez, a physician, introduced it in 1588, and Jean Nicot, a French diplomat, helped to publicize it. From his name we get the word "nicotine".

Sir Walter Raleigh started the habit of smoking for pleasure, and it soon spread from England to the rest of Europe. Raleigh Lane, the first governor of Raleigh's colony, Virginia, in North America, brought Sir Walter an Indian pipe and tobacco and taught him how to use it. Raleigh was first Englishman of note to smoke, but the fashion soon spread and he gave his fellow-courtiers pipes with silver bowls as presents. A servant of Raleigh's is said to have come upon his master one day and seen clouds of smoke rising round his head. He was indignant and rebuked the unfortunate smoker and shouted for help.

Even in those days there were people "for" and "against" the habit. Those in favour said it cured indigestion, scurvy and gonorrhoea at Eton College were ordered to smoke a morning pipe and neglect was punished by whipping. But James I loathed the habit. He published a pamphlet called "Counterblaste to Tobacco" and forbade the plant's being grown in England. He also multiplied the duty on imported tobacco forty-one times—from 2d. a pound to 6/10d. a pound. But smoking did not die out.

Louis XIII (13th) prohibited its sale in France except when prescribed by a doctor. The "Evening Press" of Urban VIII issued a bull excommunicating all who took it into church. Still smoking flourished.

During the American War of Independence tobacco could not be imported, and people started to grow it in England. But the law of James I had not been repealed and the growers were fined £30,000 and sent to jail, while the crops were publicly burned by the hangman. Nevertheless, smoking continued to spread, and almost all peoples now have the habit. The Chinese christened tobacco "the Queen herb of the rude Barbarian" when it arrived in China.

Well now you know!

A FAUX PAS?

In the classified small advertisements in the "Evening Press" of January 14, under the heading "Matrimonial", the following appeared: "Mattress required. Second-hand, soft and sinking type. Please state price. Box No. . . . I wonder who 'classifies' these small ads!"

THE GREAT O.D.V.

This week instead of our usual ballad, it gives me pleasure to publish an original composition by Mr. Martin Noonan formerly of Congress Villas, Dungarvan, now residing in London. It concerns a great horse known in the Old Boro many years ago and it may be sung to the air of "Boold Thady out."

DUNGARVAN PIPE BAND WILL GET SITE FOR NEW BANDROOM
 Assured By Urban Council

A deputation from the Dungarvan Pipe Band received an assurance from the Council's monthly meeting last Monday night that they would get a site for a bandroom on the land recently purchased by the Council at Quann's and thus ends the Band Committee's agitation which has gone on for the past three or four years since the Band's old headquarters at Youghal Road was closed by order of the Council.

The members of the Band Committee have sought an alternative site to build a new bandroom in town up to the Council's monthly meeting last Monday night. At Monday night's meeting the Secretary of the Committee, Mr. Par McGrath, who was accompanied by Mr. Tom Fitzgerald, Pipe Major of the Band, told the Council that they were back to square one again and whether they wanted to know definitely whether they could get a site to build their bandroom at Quann's. Mr. T. Kyne, Chairman, said that the Band would be given a site on the land purchased by the Council at Quann's but it was a question of choosing where the Council had not yet got the land and it would probably be next month before the property was transferred. They intended having a housing scheme, a soccer pitch and other things there; and when the land was given to the Council, he said the Town Engineer would examine it and let the Band Committee know where they would be given the site.

Mr. McGrath said that they did not want to be given a site which would be subject to flooding.

Mr. Kyne—We will give you a suitable site but we will give you to do anything until the Engineer has first looked over the property. I will give you an assurance that you will get a site and one that you can build on.

Mr. McGrath said that the Band Committee wanted to start a fund-raising campaign and were anxious to know if they could now go ahead with it.

Mr. Kyne—You can go ahead on the assurance that has now been given you.

The deputation thanked the Council for this assurance and then withdrew.

NEED FOR SHELTER

At a later stage of the meeting Mr. T. Wade spoke on the need to provide a shelter at Quann's and said that this was something which the Council should provide and the sooner the better as it would please a lot of people. "Many men go down there every day and talk to each other," he said, "and it is only right that we should provide a shelter there for the old stock of the town."

Mr. P. Walsh, Town Engineer, thought the suggestion a very good one but said that for the moment he thought it would be best for the Council just to give approval in principle to it as no overall plan for the area had as yet been drawn up. When this plan was prepared he said that the building of a shelter could be included in it.

"I know," he said "that it is desirable to have such a shelter at Quann's as many of the senior citizens of the town use the area

REPAIRS TO DUNGARVAN TOWN HALL "BALLROOM"

Reference to the "Ballroom" at the Town Hall, Dungarvan, was made at the monthly meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council last Monday night when plans for repairs and redecorating it were approved.

In the course of a report to the Council, the Town Clerk, Mr. J. P. Robinson stated—

"The Town Engineer has inspected the ballroom recently and has suggested that the most economical way of carrying out the repairs would be to close the ballroom entirely for approximately six weeks. He has suggested that this might be done during lost time when there are normally few dances held."

The alternative to this course would be to do a small piece of work at a time, and remove scaffolding every night that a dance would be held. This would add considerably both to the length of time for the job and to the cost.

"Pending the Council's decision on this matter, no bookings of the Hall have been accepted for the period during Lent. This would mean that the Hall would be closed from February 22nd until the 10th April. We would hope to have the Hall re-opened again on Easter Sunday."

It was also agreed that the "ballroom" should remain closed until the work had been carried out.

COUNCIL WOULD PREFER TO SELL THAN RENT PLOT OF LAND

Arising from a request by Mr. C. Power, Ballymacnaghe, Dungarvan, for the letting of a small field for grazing owned by the Council near the waterworks at Kildangan for the sum of £10 until the end of the year, members of the Dungarvan Urban Council were informed by the Town Clerk at their monthly meeting last Monday night that he had discussed the matter with the Town Engineer who had suggested that negotiations might be opened with Mr. Power to purchase the place outright. He said that the field was used one time by the former caretaker of the Waterworks but it was not being used now.

Mr. Kyne—I think it would be just as well to give Mr. Power an option to buy it.

Mr. P. Walsh, Town Engineer, said that there were about 3 acres involved which were of no use whatever to the Council. The only reasonable thing he could suggest was to get someone to value it and then negotiate with Mr. Power to purchase it at this valuation.

It was agreed that the suggestion of the Town Engineer should be followed.

SUB LEASE OF SHOP

On the proposal of Mr. N. Kelly, seconded by Mr. A. Deasy, the Council approved an application from Mrs. A. Cullinane for permission to sub-lease her shop at the Causeway, Abbeyside to Mr. John Enright, Sarsfield Street, Abbeyside for a period of 3 years. The Town Clerk, Mr. J. P. Robinson said that the land on which the shop stood was leased by the Council and it could not be sub-let without the Council's consent.

Obituary

Mrs. Eileen M. Slattery

It is with regret that we learn the death of Mrs. Eileen M. Slattery, nee O'Connell, who passed away on Monday, January 19th, 1971, at her residence, 10, St. Mary's Road, Dungarvan. She was 68 years of age. Her husband, Mr. James Slattery, died in 1958. She is survived by her two sons, James and John, and her daughter, Mrs. Mary Slattery. Her funeral was held on Tuesday, January 20th, at 10.30 a.m. in St. Mary's Church, Dungarvan. Burial took place in the family grave in the cemetery. The interment was officiated by Rev. P. Flavin, P.P.

Mr. Thomas Kely

Mr. Thomas Kely, late of Hevick, who died at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Friday, January 22nd, 1971, was a well-known fisherman at Hevick. He had been ill for some time and had reached an advanced stage of the disease. He was a member of the community and was well known and respected by the people in the Gaeltacht area where he was better known. He was a fluent Irish speaker and his death is deeply regretted by all who knew him. Our deepest sympathy is extended to his sister, Mrs. Annie Kely, and to all his relatives. His remains were removed on Saturday evening to Ring Church followed by a very large cortege. Very Rev. P. Flavin, P.P., received and blessed the coffin at the church gates. Funeral Masses were offered on Sunday morning for the repose of his soul after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Large and representative corteges were present. Very Rev. P. Flavin, P.P., imparted the final absolution at the graveside. (Funeral arrangements were carried out by James Kely & Sons, Undertakers, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Thomas Carey

It is with regret that we record the death of Mr. Thomas Carey, who died on Monday, January 19th, at his residence, after a long illness but at an advanced age. He was one of nature's gentlemen and a man possessed of wonderful characteristics which won for him widespread admiration. The late Thomas Carey was also an honest, upright gentleman in all his dealings through life. He also served his beloved country during the struggle for freedom. To his sorrowing sister, Elsie, and to all his cousins and relatives we tender our most sincere and deepest condolence. His remains were removed on Monday evening to Ring Church, where the coffin, draped in the tri-colour, was blessed and received by Very Rev. P. Flavin, P.P. Requiem Mass was offered on Monday evening to Ring Church. The interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Large and representative corteges were present. Very Rev. P. Flavin, P.P., imparted the final absolution at the graveside. His former comrades formed an honor guard at the removal of remains. (Funeral arrangements were carried out by James Kely & Sons, Undertakers, Dungarvan.)

Very Rev. William F. Hallinan, Adm., Cathedral of the Holy Trinity, Waterford

Deepest sympathy is extended to His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. M. Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, to the clergy of the diocese, and to the brothers, sisters, nephews, nieces and relatives at the passing of Very Rev. W. Hallinan, Adm., Cathedral of the Holy Trinity, Waterford, who died at Maypark Nursing Home, Waterford, after a period of failing health, on Wednesday, January 21st, but at the early age of 59 years. Fr. Hallinan was a native of St. Kieran's, Ballinacorney, and was educated at St. John's College, Waterford and ordained in Waterford Cathedral in 1935. He went on temporary mission to the diocese of Dunkeld, Scotland, and returned to the diocese of Waterford and Lismore in 1939 when he was appointed chaplain to the De La Salle Scholasticate at Fethlegg. In 1941 he was appointed curate of St. Patrick's Parish, Waterford. He was transferred to the Cathedral Parish as curate in 1944 and was appointed Administrator in 1958. Fr. Hallinan was a wonderful churchman and priest and he will be long remembered in Waterford City for his great charity to the poor of that city. He was a man who also kept in touch with his native parish of Kibrien where he also spread his wonderful generosity to those kind old neighbours who were in need of his help in the rough paths of life. His great qualities of character and his numerous friends throughout the diocese, all of whom mourn the loss of a great priest and a wonderful friend, are a true representation of the general public. The Mayor of Waterford and

Mr. John Moran

Deep regret was occasioned at news of the death of Mr. John Moran, Bohadon, Dungarvan, which took place on Monday, January 19th, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, after a lengthy illness and at an advanced age. He was a very popular member of the community and had been in the employment of Mr. Nicholas Walsh, Ballyduff, for a long number of years. Deep sympathy is extended to his brothers, nephews, nieces and relatives. His remains were removed on Tuesday evening to Ring Church, followed by a large cortege and were blessed and received by Rev. P. Flavin, P.P. Requiem Masses were offered for the repose of his soul on Wednesday morning after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Large and representative corteges were present. Very Rev. P. Flavin, P.P., imparted the final absolution at the graveside. (Funeral arrangements were carried out by James Kely & Sons, Undertakers, Dungarvan.)

Miss Catherine (Amy) Halpin, S.R.N., A.M.

The people of Dungarvan and district learned with regret of the death of Miss Catherine (Amy) Halpin, S.R.N., A.M., late of Sarsfield St., Abbeyside, and formerly of Crossbridge Street, Dungarvan, which occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Saturday, January 19th, after a duration of illness but at a comparatively early age. The deceased was a member of an old Dungarvan family and a lady of many charming qualities. Her wonderful personality endeared her to a very large number of friends both in the district of Dungarvan and also in London where she worked in her nursing profession at the Royal Hospital and Home Putney, and also at the National Hospital, Queen's Square, London. Our deepest sympathy is extended to her sorrowing sisters, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews and to her wide circle of friends. Her remains were removed on Sunday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, followed by a large and most impressive cortege. The coffin was blessed and received by Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. J. Law, P.P., Kilgobnet, and Rev. C. Law, C.C., Cathedral, Waterford. Requiem Mass was celebrated on Monday morning for the repose of her soul after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. M. Walsh, C.C., was celebrant of the Mass and also officiated at the graveside, assisted by Very Rev. P. Flavin, P.P., Very Rev. J. Murphy,

Very Rev. William F. Hallinan, Adm., Cathedral of the Holy Trinity, Waterford

Deepest sympathy is extended to His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. M. Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, to the clergy of the diocese, and to the brothers, sisters, nephews, nieces and relatives at the passing of Very Rev. W. Hallinan, Adm., Cathedral of the Holy Trinity, Waterford, who died at Maypark Nursing Home, Waterford, after a period of failing health, on Wednesday, January 21st, but at the early age of 59 years. Fr. Hallinan was a native of St. Kieran's, Ballinacorney, and was educated at St. John's College, Waterford and ordained in Waterford Cathedral in 1935. He went on temporary mission to the diocese of Dunkeld, Scotland, and returned to the diocese of Waterford and Lismore in 1939 when he was appointed chaplain to the De La Salle Scholasticate at Fethlegg. In 1941 he was appointed curate of St. Patrick's Parish, Waterford. He was transferred to the Cathedral Parish as curate in 1944 and was appointed Administrator in 1958. Fr. Hallinan was a wonderful churchman and priest and he will be long remembered in Waterford City for his great charity to the poor of that city. He was a man who also kept in touch with his native parish of Kibrien where he also spread his wonderful generosity to those kind old neighbours who were in need of his help in the rough paths of life. His great qualities of character and his numerous friends throughout the diocese, all of whom mourn the loss of a great priest and a wonderful friend, are a true representation of the general public. BIG PIG MEAT PROCESSING PLANS BY CORK MARTS Dungarvan Weaner Scheme May Be Expanded Important developments in pork and bacon processing in the Cork area are forecast in a report issued this week by Cork Marts Ltd. and C.F.U. Meats Ltd. The report has been sent to Cork Marts 28,000 shareholders in connection with the amalgamation of the two former Co-Operative Societies which becomes effective on February 1st. Projections in the report for per annum at the C.F.U. Meats plant at Ballinacorney, six miles west of Cork city, will when realised establish the plant as Ireland's biggest processor of pork and bacon products. Expansion at Ballinacorney, which has a current capacity for 100,000 bacon and pork pigs per annum, will cost approximately £35,000 to raise this capacity to 225,000 pigs. The development of the new Cork Marts Plant at Midleton for cattle and sheep will help to rationalise the Society's processing facilities by allowing the concentration of all pig activities at Ballinacorney and developing it as a specialised pig meat processing plant. The report to Cork Marts shareholders indicates that C.F.U. Meats, in common with most other pig processing plants in Ireland, has been running under capacity for a number of years due to the existence of too many factories in relation to pig numbers available for processing. Cork Marts and C.F.U. Meats are confident that the plant at Ballinacorney as part of the report to Cork Marts shareholders will be in a very strong position to procure its requirements of raw material and market it successfully. This confidence is based on the fact that approximately 100,000 pigs are finished each year in Cork County, while a total of 234,000 store pigs were sold through the ten markets in the Cork Marts Group in 1969. It is envisaged in the report that a policy of maximum integration of pig production and processing from weaner to factory stage will be pursued by Cork Marts. The Society's marts in this situation will serve as booking and transport points for the pig requirements of the Ballinacorney plant. DUNGARVAN EXPERIMENT Already Cork Marts are ex-
