White Paper On L.G. Reorganisation Is Beginning Of End For Local Administration

VOLUNTARY ORGANISATIONS TO BE ASKED FOR VIEWS

I think we should reject this white paper in its entirety stated Mr. Kieraa O'Ryan at the monthly moeting of Waterford County Mr. Kieraa O'Ryan at the monthly moeting of Waterford County When the Council were considering the White Paper containing proposals for the reorganisation of the existing structure of local government with a view to submitting their existing structure of local government with a view to submitting their existing structure of local government with a view to submitting the Councils. The problem in regulation to the latter was which would go and which stav and the White Paper to abolish Seanad Eireann which only more tool 18 days out of 356 in 1970 and for which Seanad Eireann which only was the proposal that there shad a county and City. This was suct in the White Paper proposed. A county of the Council was now doing!

"I think the Mitister is daft in making such provosals," he said. Mr. N. Walsh thought that the White Paper signified the beginning of the end of local administration. Mr. M. Harty said that the new proposals would mean that official would not be county and City. This was suct in the work of the case of the work of the work of the case of the work of the case of the work of t
