Mr. Peart added that the first allegation concerned the claim for wages in which O'Hara stated that if Miss Mounsey idin't settle his claim he would put it out that he slept with her in Claridge's hotel in London and that he could call the hotel parter to prove the allegation. MOUNT MELLERAY NOTES

NOTES

Death—As briefly repurred last week, there was widespread regret throughout the area when the news of the death of Mrs. Scan O'Dounell, Knockboy, was learned on Tuesday fast. Of a quiet and kindly dispositiou, she will long be remembered for her outstanding qualities of neighbourliness and hospitality. She was an active member of the Legion of Mary, being one of the founder members of the local tadies praesidium.

There was a very large attendance at the removal of the remains to St. Mary's Church, Cappoquin, on Wednesday evening, where they were received and blessed by Very Rev. Fr. Power, P.P., and Rev. Fr. McGrath G.C.

Again at the interment on Thursday, the big crowd present was ample proof of the stem of Thursday, the big crowd present was ample proof of the stem in which the deceased was held. Very Rev. Fr. Power, and Rev. Fr. McGrath officiated at the graveside, and the Rosary was recited by her colleagues in the Legion of Mary.

To her sorrowing husband and family much sympathy is extended.
