COURT SEQUEL TO

The defendant pleaded guilty to the charge Supt Sills, Tramore, told the court that on the night in question a young man of 22 years was walking along the road at Lemybrien near the yellow line on his wrong side He was dressed in dark clothes and as he walked along he was thumbing a lift and there was nothing to show that he was on he road. The lorry and trailer driven by the defendant came along and collided with him and the pedestrian received fatal injuries

Mr M M Halley, Solicitor for the defendant said that this was a very great tragedy first for the young man who lost his life and for his family rela tives and also for the defen dant who he said, had suffer-ed a crisis of conscience as a esult He said that the defen-conscientious God-fearing man who was a non-drinker and who had been driving for over 20 years was unable to come to any other conclusion but that he should have seen the pedestrian on the road that strip off some of the mystique which surrounds the word 'Art,' Terms such as surrealism, Byzantine Art, neo classicists etc., turn off the ordinary person, yet the fundamental point is that Art is the paraphody.

To dispel the general idea that Art is for an in-group, Mr Cullinan spoke of the raw material of the artist being the colours, shapes, patterns of the world around us This is true of the modern artist as much as of the realistic artist All schools of Art, all movements schools of Art, all movements in Art are merely different ways of seeing the world Traditional realistic artists were focussed on the external world, the modern artist has turned to modern artist ha chools of Art, all movements ask the question why unusual? Well, here is the answer almost 200 people of all ages from 70 downwards, of all ranks in society, dined, wined, danced and sang in one room with one hope predominant in their minds that while the season just past was good they all hoped next season would be better

NATIONAL-COMMUNITY GAMES *

The attendance at last meeting of above held in Lawlors Hotel, Dungarvan, on Wednesday February 6 may have been small numerically, but the volume of work executed by those present in three hours was colossal. As usual, the centres of Ballinameela, Modeligo, Shabh gOua, Grange, Kirossanty and Dungarvan were represented and newcomers Mrs PENSMAN and Mrs. Whelan Carriglea Garda Pat Noctor, Messrs Faire and Woods were warmly welcomed

An apology for inability to attend was received from Cappoquin-no representation from ford What has become of the enthus asts from Portlaw and

The Draft Constitution was torn to shreds (meaning that each article was examined in detail') but securely out toge-ther again Most articles were agreed on, some were amended and a few deleted. Here it must be mentioned that the compiler Danny McGrath, was heartly congratulated on the excellent document he had produced If the interest and enthusiasm so evident at this meeting are maintained throughout the year and if co-operation of the parents of youthful athletes is given whole-heartedly the Community Games in 1974 will be something of which the Deise may be justly proud NA DEISIGH COMMUNITY

GAMES For the information of interested parties who have missed some meetings and who may not have read previous reports in this paper the games in the county will in future be known as "Na Deisigh Community Games

Those in charge of the various activities are as follows Mrs Butler Shabi gCua Hurling & Gaelic Football Jim Joe Landers, Cappoquin Handball, Garda Pat Noctor Basketball Sean Whelan Sliabh Albbeyside, Soccer, Tom Drummey Dungarvan Rugby Danny McGrath Ballinameela Chess Jim Ryan Ballinameeta Table Tennis, David Fitzgerald, Modeligo Cycling Paddy Dungarvan.

The next meeting will be at Lawlor's Hotel on Wednesday March 6 at 815 m The Committee expresses gratitude to the individuals and firms who have responded generously to the appeal for help in the very costly running of Community those who may have forgotten A word of appreciation is also extended to the Editor of this paper for his coverage of events Community Games were inaugurated in the county-July
