GREAT HURLING PROGRAMME AT FRAHER FIELD

NEXT WEEK END

The All-Ireland Club championship final replay between Cork champions Blackrock and the champions of Wexford, Rathnure will be the feature game in the greatest ever hurling programme at the Fraher field on next Sunday The club final will be preceded by the All-Ireland Colleges hurling final between Farrenferris (St Finbarr's College Cork) and St Kieran's Kilkenny and it will be followed by the Waterford first round senior burling.

FIELD OPENING

The official opening of the Abbeyside field will take place on Saturday night and to mark on Saturday night and to mark the occasion the present senior team will play a team from the past at the club grounds at past at the club grounds at aroused tremendous interest round matches On Saturday and at the moment the Village aroused tremendous interest and at the moment the Village and its surrounds is agog with speculation about the composition of the past team. About fifty names are being mentioned for a place on the side so in attempting to name a possible side one could run the so in attempting to name a possible side one could run the risk of making fifteen mistakes All the information that I have Shannon and another to Dublin Airport on Saturday morning to pick up players

The field itself is sure to be in excellent trim for the game Purchased in 1962 the field has undergone several stages of development at a cost of several thousand pounds and as well it holds a splendid dressing room that has hot and cold showers laid on A splendid tribute to the dedication and sacrifice of the many members who worked to achieve all this.

The referee for the "big" BOATG meeting!

Arising out of referees reports Peter Power, Kilgobinet, was suspended for a period of two months for striking his opponent with a hurley Three other Kilgobinet players were warned as was a player from

The referee for the "big" same is a well-known personality in the Gaelic world (I have been told) but his name is not being released until after was granted as was a player from Permission to hold the finals of the community games at Cappoquin Sportsfield on July 7th was granted the game

ARRANGEMENTS FOR

Local residents are being advised not to take their cars out for the game as all roads and streets in the area will be taxed to capacity No parking 15 being allowed along the
Shandon road Parts of both matches are being recorded for televising later and part of both will be broadcast

The Dungarvan Brass Band will attend and will give a recital between the two All Irelands and play the Anthem before the second match

The Dungarvan juvenile club have produced a splendid pro gramme which includes both games and these will be on sale

the All-Ireland Club championship final is arousing tremendous interest throughout the country and all who saw the d awn match will feel eager to enjoy another hurling thriller from the same sides

Rathnure who have won no ess than eight senior hurling county titles since 1948 have produced many of the big names who brought success a All Ireland level to Wexford mind are the Rackard brothers, Nicky and Willie the five Quigleys (there are five leys playing on Sunday) tin Podd Jim English, Jim English. Sunday will be their attempt to win the All-Ireland Club title against the Rockies Two years ago when the sides the venue was Walsh Park and following one of the best ever club finals Blackrock survived by a single point on the score 5—13 to 6—9

Blackrock one of the oldest hurling nursaries in the counhave won more county titles than any other Cork club and their records claim that they were in existence before Association was founded Like Rathnure the famed Cork team has produced many of the hurling men who brought fame to Cork in the last half show at the Children's Book century Names like Jim Bro-Fair in the Town Hall Youg-hal on the 1st and 2nd of May Cashman who was Cork's goalman for several years Sean Og Murphy Jim Hurley Endie Blackrock considered to have been unlucky not to have won on March are slight favourites. It is howin recent years due to the ever interesting to note that on the two previous occasions on which they met the under-foot conditions were exceptionnow who knows what will hap

This game should by all accounts be a classic display of hurling between St Kieran's Kılkenny Cork and it will not surprise many patrons of the game if this curtain-raiser" the feature game on the pro gramme This will be the secchildren's books on all subjects ond occasion on which the Frafrom the popular classics to her field has housed an All-Ireland Colleges final and if this one lives up to the high standard of games between the William Ahearne Toor Novil same teams here then this match on its own would be worthy of a record attendance

COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIPS

Normally, a game between Mount Sion with all its county stars and Ballvduff/Ballysaggart with such players as Liam are for sale. The Fair will be sampling the many delights where there was a double white open from 10 a m —9 p m both available should not be missed line.

The fourth game of the day will mark the opening of the senior football championships with a first round match be tween Stradbally and Brickey Rangers Stradbally already issuing statements about their plans to recover the title this year are prepared for this first round game and are confident that they will overcome the Brickeys with a little to spare Stradbally should win but Stradbally should win but there will be very little between

YOUR SUGAR BEET CROP HAS GOT OFF TO A GOOD START BY EARLY SOWING

NOW TAKE GOOD CARE OF IT TO REAP HIGHEST RETURNS.

Observe the following rules:

- 1. INSPECT the emerging crop daily to ensure it is not being damaged by insect pests which would reduce plant population.
- 2. SPRAY with insecticides on first sight of insect damage and especially WHERE YOUR CROP IS SOWN TO A STAND.
- WEED CONTROL: if the pre-emergence herbicides you have used have not worked satisfactorily, apply a post emergence treatment of BETENAL E or a tank mixture of BETENAL E and PYRAMIN or BETENAL E and VENZAR.
- 4. ADVICE: If you require any advice whatsoever on any aspect of. sugar beet production please contact at once your nearest Sugar Company fieldman or 'phone your local sugar factory.

REMEMBER: Attention at this stage will pay very good dividends later and it will also reduce your labour involvement with the crop.

REMINDER: Any grower whose crop is not already in should set without delay in order to give it the best possible chance.

After the interval a thriling half hour of first class hurling sides with the issue hanging in the balance up to the final 10 minutes when Tallow's superb fitness and skill slowly brought them out on top Talbow again began to set the pace they had set in the first quarter. The ambition of the full when the county champions was a warning to Lismore, but the home side were found wanting in many positions throughout the first ten to a disastrous start, being 7 points down within the first ten the county champions.

Well on this day Tallow had fifteen sound links who did not yield under strong pressure including Johnny Curley (sub-stituted in the second half)
All played their hearts out for the Blue and Gold" colours and congratulations to all including the subs on the line the other necessary links who were willing to help
